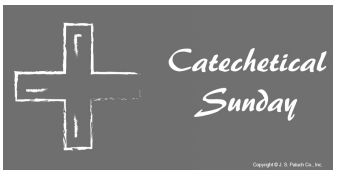
Saint Hugh, what's not to LOVE?

From the Pastor's Desk



We are celebrating Catechetical Sunday this weekend. This very important weekend, brings to us the problem but also hopes that we connect with the Catechism today. Too few people today, know the basics about the Catholic Faith! The fast pace of life, daily business, simply life prevents too many from knowing Christ enough.

But thankfully there's hope! During the Catechetical Sunday weekend we not only try to advocate for more Catholic education for All, but we promote the culture that helps the cause. We connect the theory with practicing of the faith . Children and adults who come to our program are exposed to theory but also St. Hugh philosophy expects everyone to practice their faith while attending at least Sunday Mass and the other obligatory Holy Days like Christmas, Easter, and more. A true faith is dead without the Church on Sunday.

Here at St. Hugh we are grateful to our Religious Education teachers and RCIA teachers for helping children and adults to know Christ better and to even start somewhere their Journey with HIM. No one is left out. We all come to be changed here. Let's follow Christ.

Many Blessings this School year to all!!!

Fr. Robert Marchwiany, Pastor!

Yes! "We are adding more pews" to our church!"

Last year I stated in one of the article bulletins that we might be adding some more pews to our church. We are! Perhaps we physically will not do any construction in the church area, but I have a different idea that will mean some more work for me and the others who will want to help.

It is great too see that our Mass attendance is growing. Since July of 2018, almost every weekend Mass grew! Especially the Sunday 10:30am Mass shows the "up" tendency, but the others are not far behind. Many Sundays during the year are full. The 10:30am can be often called packed.

The joy is great because I believe many of us have prayed for this, but the new more hopeful reality is calling for some more action as well. I have talked to some of you already and I know that this may not be that big of a surprise that I would like to try to have an extra Sunday Mass here at St. Hugh. It will start probably in January of 2020. It will be said at 1:30pm!

It will be started this coming January but normally it would be available from October through May. We will see how this Mass will be received by the parish and the neighborhood. There will be trial months, that will decide about the future of this Mass. We hope to find some ministers to cover some of the "duties" of that proposed Mass.

I hope that this will benefit St. Hugh!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Robert Marchwiany, Pastor!

Saint of the Day

September 17. Saint Robert Bellarmine was ordained in 1570 during a period when the study of theology was in a weakened state. He dedicated his time and energy to the study of Church history, the Fathers of the Church, and to Scripture, to organize Church teaching and to face the attacks of the Protestant Reformers.
September 18. Joseph (of Cupertino) is most famous for levitating at prayer. Already as a child, Joseph showed a fondness for prayer. After a short career with the Capuchins, he joined the Conventual Franciscans. Following a brief assignment caring for the friary mule, Joseph began his studies for the priesthood. His tendency to levitate during prayer was often times a cross.
September 19. Little is known about the life of Januarius. Legend has it that he and his companions were thrown to the bears in the amphitheater of Pozzuoli, but the animals failed to attack them. They were then beheaded, and Januarius' blood ultimately brought to Naples.
September 20. The Korean martyrs, including Saints Andrew Kim and Paul Chong Hasang, spread the gospel in their native land under extremely difficult circumstances. The holy companion martyrs include bishops, priests, and laity, some of whom where French missionaries.

Just Look at the Cross

The common theme of today's readings is forgiveness. The Gospel is one familiar to us all, and Paul in the second reading highlights his story of receiving God's mercy. But the first reading might cause us to wonder if God was always so forgiving. God and Moses come across like a couple of parents deciding whether they should punish their children. One, the Lord, points out how bad Israel has been. The other, Moses, points out how good God is, in the promise to make them a great nation. The important point is that God relented and forgave the people.

In each case, great sins are forgiven --not because the people deserved it, but because they were loved. My favorite line in the second reading is "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" (1Timothy 1:15)--not to find the wealthiest people to build his kingdom, or the nicest, or the holiest; he came to save sinners. The Pharisees and scribes did not get this. That was one of the reasons they wanted to kill Jesus. And yet, when they did just that, Jesus' death on the cross brought forgiveness for us all. Remember the story in Genesis 18, of Abraham bargaining with God not to destroy Sodom if he could find a few good people? Maybe he should have "reminded" God of that divine mercy instead of hoping to find enough good people to spare the town. Sometimes we can't believe that God would love us so much as to forgive any sin. Just look at the cross if you need a reminder.

Treasures from Tradition

Although New Year's Day has been fixed firmly on January 1 for several hundred years, Labor Day has the feel of a great dividing line between leisure and routine. The pace of life has since picked up, and new schedules and commitments crowd us. In the background is God's call to consider the third commandment, still life-giving and binding, to make holy the Lord's Day by worship and rest. Jews see the Sabbath, Saturday, not so much as a day of worship, but as a day of rest, a day of renewing friendship with God by delighting in the beauty of creation and the joy of family and friends. It is a day for contemplating the wonder of God's creation, but not disturbing it.

For Christians in the first three centuries, the Lord's Day, Sunday, was not for rest, but worship. It was a regular work day. People met before dawn, and after Eucharist hurried off to daily routines. Today we come to Mass, but many hurry off to essential work, not a day of rest. The Lord's Day is not the Sabbath, but we can enhance Sunday's ability to transform us if we consider embracing some Sabbath values: having a family meal, going for a walk in a beautiful place, making room in our lives to open ourselves more fully to holiness of life in Christ.

Stewardship Thought

"Everything I have is yours." Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on all that God offers in exchange for a material wealth that has no lasting value?

Vincentian Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that the shepherd rejoices when he finds one lost sheep. The story tells us that nothing and no one is insignificant to God who is compassionate and loving to all. Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness?
