From the desk of Father Randy

"May this Sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world."
- Eucharistic Prayer III

Imagine you are sitting in the church and there is an emergency and you need to get out of the church quickly and as you safely as you can. Do you know where every exit is, not just the ones out of the church proper, but also out of the building? There are 4 doors into the church proper from the gathering area: two double, two single. There are 5 more doors. Do you know where they are? If not, next time you come to church, see if you can find them.

"Racist acts are sinful because they violate justice."
- USCCB, Open Wide Our Hearts

"Living Joy" by Chris Stefanick is the book the parish gave out at Christmas. If you read it and really like it, you may want to pass it on to someone. If you have not read it yet, you may want to get it on your list of things to read. Thanks to Jesus we can be joyful. You might also want to join one of our faith sharing groups and discuss the book with them. You may call the parish office for details on joining a group.

"The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen" is the other book our parish gave out at Christmas. This contains daily reflections. If you have not started it yet you still can. Learning from someone else's wisdom is always a blessing.

Tax contribution statements can be downloaded from the parish website: stannparish.weconnect.com
If you need a paper copy or assistance, please call the parish office.

Help us keep in touch with you!

Please contact the parish office if you change your address, phone number or email address.
Thank you.

Did you make a New Year's resolution to pray more?
If so, please join us for the Rosary for Life!
This month, we will be praying after the 5:15 Mass on the 22nd, as well as after the 10:30 Mass on January 16th and 30th. The Lord will bless you for staying a little longer after Mass and for saying extra prayers for all human life. We will be meeting on the right side of church towards the front.

Parish News & Notes

ATTENTION ROMEOS:

Our next lunch is scheduled for Thursday, January 20th. We will meet at Deak's at 11:30am. If it snows, we will meet at Deak's at 11:30 am ANYWAY. Bring a friend or an enemy. Bring somebody if you can. See you all there!

Thank You

The Human Concerns Commission would like to thank all for contributing to the St. Ann Advent Tree. The amount of donations was AWESOME! We would also like to thank all who helped with the sign-up genius, loading and unloading cars and delivery of items. You are all angels indeed. May God bless you in 2022!

Come to Holy Hour to see our Lord!

“Sometimes our light goes out but is blown into flame by another human being. Each of us owes deepest thanks to those who have rekindled this light.” - Albert Schweitzer

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Please keep the following people in your prayers:

Audrey Haessig
Bunny Lannoye's son, Michael
Bill Lannoyes's brother, Dick

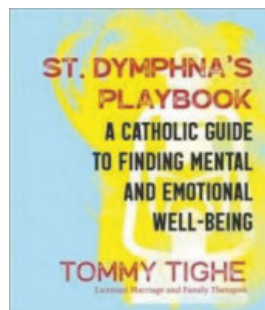

Please keep the soul of Verna Smet in your prayers, as she passed on to eternal life. Also, please pray for Clarence "CR" Rumpel, who also passed recently. We pray that God comforts Quinn and Laine and all their families and friends who will miss them greatly.

Are you feeling hopeless? Lonely? Sad? Anxious? Maybe you know you need support but joining a support group of strangers and driving somewhere seems overwhelming and even weird... Well, you are not alone. There is a St. Ann's Catholic-centered support group for those who long for a community of people "who get it." We are called Friends of St. Dymphna.

Who is St. Dymphna? Well, she was a "demon slayer." Her life on Earth ended when she was beheaded by her own father. She is the patron saint of those with a mental illness - those fighting a mental battle every. single. day. Friends of St. Dymphna will begin meeting on Sunday evenings, with the first meeting on Sunday, January 16th from 6:30 – 7:30pm over Zoom. We will start out by reading together (Yay! No homework!) St. Dymphna's Playbook: A Catholic Guide to Finding Mental and Emotional Well-Being by Tommy Tighe. The book is available through Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and Ave Maria Press and looks like this:

Email or call Shaun in the parish office if you want more information, and she will help you with all you need for the first zoom gathering Also, if you can't make the first meeting, or any of the meetings, no worries! Join us anytime!!

St. Dymphna, pray for us!

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." — Jn 2:3-5
