2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

How is your Lent going so far? In changing the circumstances and order of our lives a bit, perhaps we can hear God's voice more clearly and drink more deeply of graced moments we experience. Having God as a friend always involves several things. First, there is God's call. We become attuned to the echo of God's voice in the depth of our souls calling and beckoning us to listen. Second, there is a request. We begin to see that God asks us to do certain things, to order our lives a particular way, and become more intentional in the choices we make. Third, there is trust. Do we trust this call and request? Trust commits us to the relationship and makes a claim on who we are. Finally, we are asked to act. We find ourselves acting, not in the way we used to, but in a transformed, more enlightened way. Things seem clearer and all that is around us shines with the brilliance of God's presence. God's call came through a cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him," This is the call and the request. Can we give God our trust and do as God asks?

THE GIFT OF SUNDAY

Lenten Missions

ST. MARY CATHOLIC CHURCH | WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 2021 | 7:00 - 8:30 P.M.

Being held at 18 Parishes throughout the Archdiocese

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee will be hosting Lenten Missions at 18 parishes on the evening of March 3rd. This Mission is based on The Gift of Sunday, a theological reflection issued by Archbishop Jerome Listecky. The evening will be held to in the context of a prayer service and will highlight the importance of Sunday Mass in living out our faith on a daily basis.

PLEASE SEE OUR PARISH WEBSITE (WWW.STMARYCATHOLIC.ORG) FOR IN PERSON REGISTRATION OR TO FIND THE LINK TO ATTEND VIRTUALLY.

Meet St. Mary's RCIA Catechumens and Candidates

During Lent we will feature our RCIA Catechumens and Candidates as they continue their Faith Journey preparing for the Easter Sacraments.

Please keep them in your prayers and welcome them when you see them!

My name is Justin Frederick. I was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, grew up Catholic, and was baptized at St. Mary's Church, receiving my first communion in second grade. Unfortunately, in my latter teen years I did not continue to go to CCD and was never confirmed as a result. Now, I am 30 years old and currently engaged to my wonderful fiancé Madalynn Strzelecki.

She was also brought up in the Catholic church and is confirmed so we want to get married following the Catholic guidelines as our faith means a lot to us. I am excited to have this opportunity, and with the help of RCIA, I am looking forward to taking this next step in my spiritual journey as this brings me one step closer to Jesus and the Catholic Church. For my Saint, I have chosen Saint Michael. Saint Michael's stunning bravery is very appealing, and it correlates with me as there is always a daily struggle of good vs. evil no matter where you are in the world. Lastly, I want to receive confirmation to not only get married in the Catholic Church, but I want to be a part of Jesus, and have Jesus' faith and love with me through everlasting life. I ask God to watch over me and my family through this process and open our hearts to the love of God and the church of St. Mary's Parish.

Financial Aid for Catholic Education

St. Mary's Congregation is offering financial aid in support of families sending their children to St. Joseph Catholic Academy and All Saints Catholic School. These programs are open to all registered, active members of the Parish.

The Tuition Assistance grant is to families that might not be financially able to send their children to St. Joes or All Saints. This program is not limited to either school or to any particular grade level but is based on need. The amount to be given is at the discretion of the Pastor with the assistance of the selection committee. Tuition Assistance applications are available in the parish office and can also be found on the Parish's website. The Application with all required supporting documents are due in the Parish Office by noon on April 30, 2021. If you have any questions regarding the Tuition Assistance program you can contact Fr. Roman at the parish office (262)694-6018.

The second program is the St. Mary's Scholarship program that the parish has offered for a number of years to worthy eighth grade students who will attend St. Joseph Academy as a ninth grader for the 2021-2022 school year. The Parish is again offering two one-time scholarships of $500.00. Scholarship applications are available in the parish office, and at All Saints School and St. Joe's upper campus. Applications can also be found on the Parish's website as well as the St. Joe's and All Saint's websites. The Application and the necessary supporting documents must be received at the Parish office by noon on April 7, 2021.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact John Higgins at (262)945-8744 or jhiggins001@wi.rr.com.

TRANSFORMING VISION

The world is aglow with vision experiences. Have you noticed the glow of pride on the faces of those who have reached out to help others, the sparkle in the eyes of children when they are praised, the gaze of joy on the faces of parents as they behold their infant child, or the glow of contentment on the face of spouses who have shared much of their lives together? These are the vision experiences that remind us of the transforming power of love.

“Indeed, what was transfigured was not Jesus himself, but the disciples’ vision of him.”

If we are observant, we have had vision experiences that have impacted every segment of our world. Seasons change terrain, violent weather dramatically alters landscapes, age and sickness change appearance, and lifestyle and personal interests change images. Caught in time---an inspiring song, a wedding glance, or a parent’s worried face, can profoundly change us. While these transformations vary in significance, they share a common characteristic: the changes they generate are usually external in nature.

Every human transformation impacts our physical appearance, and may or may not affect our spiritual vision. In today’s Gospel, we celebrate the transfigured view of Jesus. “And He [Jesus] was transfigured before them and his clothes became dazzling white such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.” This radiant vision revealed not a poor carpenter in peasant clothing, but someone aglow by the indwelling of God. For his disciples, this was not a sudden apparition, but the recognition that their teacher and friend was much more than he had seemed.

Indeed, what was transfigured was not Jesus himself, but the disciples’ vision of him. For the first time they saw what they had never seen before, but what had always been there. They saw Jesus as divine, as Savior, and as prophet. This mountaintop vision, uncommon as it was, only lasted for a brief time, and then vanished as the routine of every-day life returned.

These glimpses of the holy have continued to occur down through the ages. Saint Elizabeth of Hungary was said to give off a bright halo of light, people who have been in Pope John Paul’s presence have experienced a lasting impression of holiness, and the TV crew that videotaped Mother Teresa a few years before her death, discovered that her image in a darkened room appeared vivid and bright. Wherever we experience the holy, we become keenly aware of its presence. We may even begin to see holiness shine through the every-day events of our lives.

We might want a quicker, faster route to holiness, but never fear, the Lenten terrain will keep changing---desert one minute, mountain the next. If we keep one foot in front of the other, our faithfulness will be rewarded by glorious moments along the way, when Christ springs brilliantly into view. In the unfolding events of our lives, in the faces of those whom we meet, and in the lives whom we touch, we become transformed. Strengthened by faith and fueled by love, each of us, reveals the mystery and richness of ourselves, and allows our divinity to glow for others to see. At these times, our vision, tricky though it may be, becomes crystal clear and our world is never the same.

----Deacon Wilson Shierk

Use the Rice Bowl Program to share a part of your wealth with the needy and hungry of the world. Rice Bowls will be collected during Holy Week. Catholic Relief Services sponsors the “Operation Rice Bowl” Program. They ask that we pray for the poor of the world and share some of our resources with them.

Most of us are trying to put together the jigsaw puzzle we call life without a very important piece. Over time this can become incredibly frustrating. In this extraordinary book, Matthew Kelly powerfully demonstrates that we cannot live the life we have imagined, or experience the joy we yearn for, unless we learn to tend the soul. From there, with his classic style of practical wisdom, he teaches us how to remedy the problem.

Are you taking care of your soul? Are you feeding it and nurturing it? Or are you ignoring it and neglecting it? The reality is most people have never really been taught how to tend their souls.

I Heard God Laugh will help you to do just that, and so much more.
