4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

Inspiration for the week

God's messengers always seem to get mocked. They speak a truth that some folks do not want to hear. While on the one hand we admire them, we also are quite happy keeping them at a distance. After all, they are not referring to me but someone else, aren't they? We often wrongly conclude that because we may be more avant-garde, contemporary, politically sensitive, and untraditional, we are somehow more in the light than others. People tend to prefer darkness more than light, even the most spiritually sensitive among us. The light always carries with it the richness of God's mercy and compassion which see beyond ideologies and concepts to relationships that cultivate life, earthly and eternal. Every hand of compassion and mercy extended to a human being must always point back to God. The call always involves ordering our lives in accord with our truth and essence of being. As God never forgets us, we must never forget God. Now is the time to take stock of our infidelity and return to the light, even though it is difficult to look at.

DIVINE LOVE AFFAIR

Some people never get lost. No matter where they are, they have a built-in sense of direction that allows them to find their way. Others however, get lost easily! Following directions doesn't help much. Over and over they ask, "Say again," and then after further instruction, after writing directions down, and even after viewing the "highlighted route" showing where to go, they make the wrong turn and get lost. Even using a GPS is not always helpful. We all get spiritually lost. Time and time again we make the wrong turn, and we sin. And then

"God loves each of us as if there is only one of us to love."

along comes another Lent and we try to improve our spiritual travel. We always start out with the best of intentions but within a short time, we lose our Lenten zeal and we find ourselves lost again. We know we still have time to get back on track—it's not Easter yet! There is still time to improve our spiritual sense of direction, so we ask ourselves, how well have we done this Lent?

Our gospel reminds us that: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." This short passage is perhaps the most frequently quoted of all Scripture verses. We have found it displayed on banners and signs at various athletic events, on bumper stickers and t-shirts, and quoted in various print materials. Within this short verse exists the very essence of the Gospel. God gave us Jesus! He is the divine word in flesh and blood, in time and space, and on the cross. We ponder the message and the messenger...God so loved us that he gave us his Son! It is a powerful reminder that we are loved, that we are forgiven, and that the basis of God's being is love. This gospel passage also reminds us that it is God who initiates that loving call. Often our view of God is clouded by human images of a stern, angry or unforgiving father who is anything but loving. We may even think that the gentle, loving and forgiving Jesus was responsible for changing God's attitude toward us from condemnation to forgiveness. Wrong! Our Father's love for Jesus is also extended to us. We can't earn it because it's a free gift. Yet it is this short text that reminds us that it is with God that it all started, loving us and showing us his love through his Son Jesus. Scripture scholar William Barclay reminded us: "God yearns over us and woos us into love. Scripture scholarship poignantly states God's love in this way: "Everything that happens between God and his Son Jesus on earth is simply the unfolding in history of what happens between God and his Son Jesus in heaven. And through the humanization of Jesus, you and I are swept up into that divine love affair." That divine love affair embraces the whole world, not just the United States, not just good people, not just those who love him, but everyone. Those who love him and those who never think of him, and even those who reject him, are all included in the vast expanse of his love. As Augustine put it: "God loves each one of us as if there was only one of us to love."

Confronted with this image of God's love, we realize how often we stumble over our feeble attempts to love and forgive. During this Lent, we have more chances to reach out in love to all the "others" in our world, especially those whom we find difficult to love. Could it be that through our attempts to love, we embrace the messages that have been sent again and again by our compassionate God? Could it be that finally this Lent we get the message and continue our life journeys without getting lost?

---Deacon Wilson Shierk

(Checks should be made out to: St. Mary Parish with the ministry name on the memo line.) While the Matthew 25 Program has assigned specific items to each week during Lent, please feel free to adopt these Lenten responses as you can.

ANNUAL RICE BOWL COLLECTION

Beginning the first weekend of Lent the Human Concerns annual Rice Bowl Program will begin. "Rice Bowls allow us to reach beyond our own parish and beyond national boundaries to become a truly Catholic parish." [U. S. Bishops, 1997] Rice Bowls will be available on the first Sunday of Lent and during that first week of Lent in church or in the parish office. Use the Rice Bowl Program to share a part of your wealth with the needy and hungry of the world. Rice Bowls will be collected during Holy Week. Catholic Relief Services sponsors the "Operation Rice Bowl" Program. They ask that we pray for the poor of the world and share some of our resources with them.

Most of us are trying to put together the jigsaw puzzle we call life without a very important piece. Over time this can become incredibly frustrating. In this extraordinary book, Matthew Kelly powerfully demonstrates that we cannot live the life we have imagined, or experience the joy we yearn for, unless we learn to tend the soul. From there, with his classic style of practical wisdom, he teaches us how to remedy the problem.

Are you taking care of your soul? Are you feeding it and nurturing it? Or are you ignoring it and neglecting it? The reality is most people have never really been taught how to tend their souls.

I Heard God Laugh will help you to do just that, and so much more.

Copies of this book now available. One Per Family Please.

At SJCA, our faith is alive, both in and out of school and we embrace our Catholic obligation to serve others. The St. Joseph our Lower Campus student council set out to make a positive difference in the community. Joining forces with the high school National Honor Society, these groups spearheaded a drive that raised $1,000 and collected nearly 2,000 items, including clothing, toiletries, and bedding. These donations were given to Women and Children's Horizons to assist in their work supporting the victims of abuse. This collaborative service initiative involving all levels of SJCA is yet another strong example of SJCA building scholars, leaders and stewards who are transforming the world. We are grateful to the LC Student Council, the high school NHS, their respective moderators and our entire school community for making this project so successful. To learn more about SJCA, please contact the Admissions Department at admissions@sjcawi.org or 262-654-8651.
