A Message From Fr. Britto…

The school year is coming to a conclusion. On behalf of our parishes, I congratulate our 8th Grade students from St. Kilian School, as well as our parishioners graduating from high school and college. Blessings in this time of new beginnings!

After almost 2 years, I am now able to visit my family in India for a couple of weeks. I will be taking my vacation from June 7th until July 1st. As everyone is aware, India has more travel restrictions due to COVID. I don't know clearly what I will do during my vacation except to spend time with my family. Hopefully I will be able to visit some of my relatives who lost their family members due to COVID. At this point, please keep me in your prayers if you could. During my absence, our parish staff and council chairs will ensure that the mission and ministries of our parishes continue to run smoothly. All the weekend Masses at both locations have been arranged with our help-out priests, Fr. Jerry Brittain and Fr. Gerald (Gary) Rush, who have graciously agreed to help us. Fr. Rick Stoffel and Fr. Jonathon Schmeckel will be gladly assisting with Friday Masses. We are blessed to have their assistance! Please see the bulletin for weekday Mass/Prayer Service and Eucharistic Adoration information. For any emergency for the sacraments, please call the parish office and they will be happy to help you or if you know of a Catholic priest, don't hesitate to give him a call. I will be happy to see you all upon my return.

Sincerely,
Fr. Britto Suresh

We hear in the Gospel verse today, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever" John 6:51. We come together at every liturgy and hear the words of institution, today from Mark's Gospel, "While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.'" Even though I am present at every liturgy and I hear these words (if only to remember to play the acclamations) over and over again, it takes a very conscious effort to recognize and recall the sacrifice given by Jesus on the cross and the gift of the Eucharist given at each liturgy to sustain us and to prepare us for the banqueting table in heaven.

Come to the table. Be uplifted. Be healed. Come in thanksgiving for all God has done. If we truly believe in the sacrificial gift of the Eucharist, how could we not have our deepest hungers satisfied?

~Audrey Rhinehart

St. John Trustee Treasurer Nomination

Ann Reinicke has been nominated for the position of Trustee Treasurer on the St. John Pastoral Council. Here is a statement from Ann telling a little about herself and why she would like to be part of the Council:

My name is Ann Reinicke. My family became members of St. Kilian in 1996. In 2016, we became members of St. John as well. My husband, John, and I have three grown children (Brook, April and Anthony) and four grandchildren who we adore.

After surviving cancer in 2014, I realized how truly blessed I have been and felt the need to share my gifts with those around me. We became foster parents in 2015 and helped five children return to their families.

For the past 18 years, I have been a project manager specializing in technology implementations. I am hoping my organizational skills can be of benefit to our St. John family. There are so many wonderful people in the community who are doing so much already. I just hope I can make a meaningful contribution.

Thank you,
Ann

Official discernment for the new member will take place at the June Council Meeting.

Time to Say Goodbye

Leslie Biersack began teaching at St. Kilian School 42 years ago. This past Friday, Leslie began a new journey as she entered retirement. Over her career at St. Kilian, Leslie taught hundreds of students who continued on to bigger and brighter things. Her legacy includes doctors, lawyers, scientists, and those successful in the trades, arts, and business.

Leslie has proved herself as a good and faithful servant to the St. Kilian School and Parish Community. We wish her well as she follows her new path to retirement and we thank her for her years of dedication and service to Catholic education here at St. Kilian.

Good Luck and God's Blessings upon you, Ms. B.!

Love,
The Staff and Students of St. Kilian
