New St. Kilian Pastoral Council Member: Jack Baus

Hello, my name is Jack Baus, and I am looking forward to being a member of the Pastoral Council. My wife, Cyndi, and I have moved back to Hartford after being away for my job. I was born and raised in Hartford, received all of my sacraments at St. Kilian, and attended St. Kilian School. My parents and grandparents were also members here. This history provides me with a deep loyalty and commitment to our parish. While living in another community, I was a member of the parish council, served on two Catholic school boards, and Cyndi and I taught religious education and facilitated pre-marriage counseling. My education and career experience is in administration. I appreciate this opportunity to serve our parish.

~Jack Baus

New St. Kilian Pastoral Council Member: Eric Dietenberger

My name is Eric Dietenberger, the youngest child of Cleo and Karl and a life-long resident of Hartford. I am married to Agnes, and we have two adult sons who graduated from St. Kilian School as well as being baptized and confirmed at the parish. I have worked at UW-Milwaukee for 31 years, currently as the AV integrator for the campus. Many will recognize me as one of the cantors, choir members or instrumentalists over the years. Like most, my parents instilled in me the calling to give of your time, talent and treasure.

However, we tend to rely a bit too heavily on those God-given talents to fulfill that calling. Sometimes we need to get out of our comfort zone to truly grow. I can't bring an in-depth knowledge of the liturgy to the council, nor can I bring a profound understanding of the Gospel. What I can bring is a desire to serve the parish of St. Kilian in a different way. I also bring a longing to grow in my faith—something I think we all share. I would like this opportunity to grow with the parish of St. Kilian.

~Eric Dietenberger

Thank You to Our Volunteers!

On Wednesday, June 1st, St. Kilian held a Volunteer Appreciation Event for all our wonderful volunteers! There was a Prayer Service followed by a social. St. Kilian is the growing parish it is today thanks to the help we get from all our generous volunteers!

School's Out!

On behalf of the staff and students of St. Kilian School, I want to take this opportunity to thank our parishioners for your support during our school year. We enjoyed participating in School Mass each week with you and appreciate your participation in our fundraising efforts throughout the year.

We look forward to August when we see you again!

Have a wonderful summer!

They serve 13 southeastern Wisconsin counties including Washington County.
