New St. Kilian Pastoral Council Member: Eric Dietenberger

My name is Eric Dietenberger, the youngest child of Cleo and Karl and a life-long resident of Hartford. I am married to Agnes, and we have two adult sons who graduated from St. Kilian School as well as being baptized and confirmed at the parish. I have worked at UW-Milwaukee for 31 years, currently as the AV integrator for the campus. Many will recognize me as one of the cantors, choir members or instrumentalists over the years. Like most, my parents instilled in me the calling to give of your time, talent and treasure.

However, we tend to rely a bit too heavily on those God-given talents to fulfill that calling. Sometimes we need to get out of our comfort zone to truly grow. I can't bring an in-depth knowledge of the liturgy to the council, nor can I bring a profound understanding of the Gospel. What I can bring is a desire to serve the parish of St. Kilian in a different way. I also bring a longing to grow in my faith—something I think we all share. I would like this opportunity to grow with the parish of St. Kilian.

~Eric Dietenberger

Hartford Churches Ecumenical effort hosted at

First United Methodist Church
738 W. Monroe Ave., Hartford

Everyone Welcome!

On Sunday, June 19th, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, the Church in the United States will embark on a National Eucharistic Revival, a three-year journey to deepen our devotion to Christ's physical presence on earth, which we celebrate at every Mass in the Holy Eucharist.

It takes time to kindle a living, loving relationship—a relationship with Jesus Christ is no exception. That's why the Eucharistic Revival allows three years for discernment, encounter, and grassroots response on the diocesan, parish and individual levels.

Watch the bulletin to find out what's coming in the months ahead.
