Parish & Community News

Hi, my name is Amelia M Avila, but my family call's me (Monse) in reference to my middle name.

I'm from Jalisco, Mexico. I came here when I was 18 years old. I enjoy travel, serving God in his church and going on mission trips. I am currently studying Religious Studies and Social Justice at Cardinal Stritch University. I am very happy to start working at St Charles Borromeo and St Roman in the Religious Education Program. The entire church needs every baptized person to continue growing in Faith, Hope and Charity. As Jesus reminds us in Matthew 9:37 "The harvest is much and the workers are few".

I will be available to the entire community, and I encourage every one of you to join me in this mission. May God continue to guide us in His ways and our Most Holy Mary intercede for each one of us.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BRIAN HOLBUS

On behalf of both the parish communities of Saint Charles Borromeo and Saint Roman I am very happy to welcome Amelia Ávila as our new Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry. Amelia is also known as “Monse,” which is short for Monserrat*her middle name. (As you know Lety Gutiérrez-Kenny accepted a position at Saint Gregory the Great parish. We wish her well in her new position.) Amelia wrote a few words to introduce herself that appear elsewhere in this weekend’s bulletin. Welcome, Amelia Ávila to the pastoral staffs of our two parish communities!

Please remember that Cathy Krol is retiring after twenty-four years as the Director of Christian Formation of Saint Charles Borromeo. Cathy will continue to work part-time for six months or so to help in the transitions at our two parishes. I am grateful for her continued presence and help!

Amelia Ávila will work collaboratively with Betty Salazar, Director of Christian Formation at Saint Roman parish to provide comprehensive Christian Formation for both parish communities. Classes for children from K4 through 5th grade will meet at Saint Roman Parish on Sunday mornings. Older children and youth will meet on alternating Mondays at Saint Charles Borromeo parish. More information regarding our collaborative Christian formation programs, including specific schedules and information regarding sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and RCIA will be forthcoming.

We are very blessed to have wonderful people on our pastoral staffs to help us to grow in our faith! Thank you all!

Father Brian Holbus, Shared Pastor
