APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH Safe Environment Week, April 18-24, 2021

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee is committed to keeping children safe each and every day of the year. April is national Child Abuse Prevention Month and during this time we place extra focus on prevention and awareness of safe environments. In April, we highlight one week as Safe Environment Week so that everyone can simultaneously focus on abuse prevention, including the archdiocesan initiatives that are already underway. This year the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will recognize April 18-24, 2021, as Safe Environment Awareness Week.

At St. Catherine, we keep a safe environment (in person and online) for our children and teens by being aware of the warning signs of abuse (physical, emotional, sexual) and by acting appropriately when we see the warning signs of abuse. The goal is to keep kids safe. Know the warning signs of abuse. Tell someone who can help. Go to archmil.org for more information about safe environments and keeping children and youth safe. See the bulletin insert for the warning signs of abuse in minors and how to keep children and teens safe from harm when they are using online technology.

Please pray for the safety of all children and youth.

Lorrie

SOULFUL MUSE

The sounds are either constant or recurring - all without my permission. It's a worm that floats between my two ears. No, I'm healthy but the metaphor is apt for this malady. Aptly called "earworm" because it "worms" its way throughout my head.

I think of only one word and suddenly a song begins adding that word to the other musical words of a song enjoyed long ago. It's fun for a while but by Noon I wish I could change the channel. Switching to a new song doesn't help but only replaces one worm with another.

Regrets have a way of worming their way into our hearts and slowly moving to hearts. A young persons' may be something that happened last night but worms as old as forty or fifty can squirm and squirm their way inside. Forget my morning repeating song. How about the tired feeling at night but some past episode begins to replay itself. No resolution. It's only relieving what was once lived. It is now over but still has its way to find its way back.

A peaceful, prayerful recitation may help. "May God bless me and keep me, may God's eyes look upon me with kindness, and may my life continue now with new insight, a new perspective. It's the same old me but with Your support and presence, it will be a new me."

Keep the ear intruding music of joy throughout my day. I've learned to appreciate it. For Sirius/XM, I've got my two ears, heart, and mind. Any regret is only a spiritual invitation to uncover a new song to, instead of worm, float from ear to ear.

Fr. Joe, S.D.S.

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFER

We would like to encourage our parishioners to participate in electronic contributions to the church. It is simple and easy. If interested, please contact Jon Gabik, our Director of Administrative Services, at 414-365-2020, ext. 12, or jgabik@stcatherinemke.org. He will answer any questions and provide you with the necessary form. You can also access the ACH Contribution Form on our parish website.

Help is needed in the Community Garden. There is a big pile of mulch to be moved! Do you have a small garden tractor that could move the mulch? The garden managers have moved it in the past with wheelbarrows and it's a big job. Please call Nicole Hartley 414-213-0286 or email nichartley@att.net if you can help. We will also need people to help spread the mulch. Thank you!

EMAIL FROM THE PARISH

St. Catherine uses an email program called Constant Contact to send out occasional announcements to parishioners. If you would like to be added to our list, please contact the parish office at 365-2020 or at info@stcatherinemke.org. You may also sign up to receive emails by going to the home page of the parish website at www.stcatherinemke.org, click on the link Mailing List Signup located under Email Communication.

LITURGY NOTES

3rd Sunday of Easter

What do you believe?

Last Sunday we heard about Thomas and his difficulty with believing that Jesus had risen, even though his closest companions said to him, “We have seen the Lord!” Instead, Thomas insisted on physical proof that this was true. It’s a great story because I think so many of us at one time or another wish for some kind of proof for what we believe. But of course, because we’re speaking of faith, proof is not the point. In thinking about what I believe and how I came to be a person of faith, I came across a creed taken from a Nicaraguan Mass that makes a beautiful connection between what we believe and how our beliefs affect how we look at our world.

Creed from Nicaraguan Mass

Firmly I believe, Lord, that your prodigious mind created the whole Earth.

To your artist’s hand beauty owed its birth:
the stars and the moon, the cottages, the lakes,
little boats bobbing down river to the sea,
vast coffee plantations, white cotton fields, and the forests felled by the criminal axe.

In you I believe, maker of thought and music,
maker of the wind, maker of peace and love.

Christ the worker, I believe in you,
light of light, God’s true only begotten Son,
that to save the world you in Mary’s humble womb grew and became human.

I believe that you were beaten, treated with scorn,
martyred on the cross under Pilate’s command.

I believe in you, friend, human Christ, Christ the worker,
death you’ve overcome.

Your fearful suffering brought the new human being born
for freedom.

You still rise again each time we raise an arm
to defend the people from profiteering dominion, because you’re alive on the farm, in the factory, and in school.

I believe your fight goes on, I believe in your Resurrection.
