Father Rutilio Grande, S.J. Beatification, January 22, 2022 San Salvador, El Salvador, C.A.

This article first appeared in the SPIRIT OF SETON – SPRING/SUMMER 2015 – Linda Horning, author Father Rutilio Grande, S.J. is the namesake of the community of our sister parish. Fr. Grande was born in El Paisnal, El Salvador and was ordained in 1959. He became friends with Oscar Romero, a fellow student in the seminary. After studying abroad in Spain, he returned to El Salvador and served as director of social action projects at the seminary in San Salvador. Fr. Grande was also prefect of the discipline and professor of pastoral theology in the diocesan seminary from 1965 to 1970.

In 1972 he became pastor of Aguilares and initiated a team effort which involved the formation Delegate of the Word. Delegates of the Word refers to a Catholic religious movement for and of the poor. They held long meetings every afternoon with the community, including group work, songs, prayers and Bible reflection. It was shocking for the peasants to speak and to be listened to. Once an old woman was asked what she remembered most about Rutilio, and she replied, “What I recall most, is how one day, he asked me what I thought. No one had ever put that question to me in all my 70 years.”

There was a common theme in Fr. Grande’s sermons. “We continue to struggle for a table for all which no one can monopolize.” The table refers to the land and other resources of El Salvador and the world. For him, the Eucharist represented “the greatest commitment, the symbol of a shared table, with a seat for each person and tablecloths long enough for all, the symbol of creation and for this, Redemption is needed” (Feb. 13, 1977). “God gave us a material world – for all, without borders.”

It is not a matter of someone saying, “Since I bought half of El Salvador with my money, I have a right to it and that’s the end of the discussion! This is a right that was bought with money. It is a denial of God! The needs of the majority take precedence over such rights of individuals.” Thus, continuing Fr. Grande’s common theme of a “table for all.”

A month before he was martyred, he gave a sermon during Mass – “I am very much afraid that soon the Bible and the gospel will not be able to enter at our borders because all its pages are subversive – against sin, naturally. If Jesus of Nazareth returned, coming down from Chalatenango to San Salvador, I dare say he would not arrive. With his preaching and actions, even to Apopa, they would arrest Jesus for being subversive and would crucify Him again.”

On March 12, 1977, on his way to offer Mass in El Paisnal, 48-year-old Rutilio Grande and his two companions, 72-year-old Manuel Solorzano and 15-year-old Nelson Rutilio Lemus, were shot down. He was the first of 17 priests executed by Salvadoran death squads.

SISTER FAMILY IN EL SALVADOR

Archbishop Oscar Romero was deeply saddened by the brutal murder of his friend and drew inspiration from his example. He said, “When I looked at Rutilio lying there dead, I thought, “If they have killed him for doing what he did, then I too have to walk the same path.”

The Vatican announced the beatification date of Fr. Rutilio Grande as January 22, 2022. Pope Francis described him as a priest who “left the center to go to the peripheries.” This servant of God, this namesake of our sister community is now a saint!

Thanks to Seton’s generous sponsorship of transportation, our brothers and sisters from the community of Rutilio Grande attend weekly Mass at St. Joseph’s church in El Paisnal, where Fr. Grande celebrated Mass and is buried.

STEPS TO SAINTHOOD

- Servant of God – the title given to a candidate for sainthood whose cause is under investigation, prior to beatification.
- Beatification – the stage after investigation into the candidate’s life to determine whether he/she demonstrated a heroic level of virtue (faith, hope and charity, prudence, justice, temperance and fortitude). For the beatification of a servant of God, a miracle attributed to his/her intercession, verified after death, is generally necessary. In the case of martyrs such as Rutilio Grande and Oscar Romero, evidence of a miracle is not necessary. Upon beatification, the candidate receives the title “Blessed.”
- Canonization – The formal process by which the Church declares a person to be a saint. This step requires a miracle attributed to the candidate. (i.e., inexplicable healing of someone who is sick and prays to a holy person who has died to intercede with God for a cure; an event that can be witnessed by the senses, but is in apparent contradiction to the laws of nature).

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.
