

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDERLY TIME

PROPHET

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Luke 4:28,30

FOLLOW JESUS | SERVE OTHERS

January 30, 2022

VISION

To be a growing community that inspires all to follow Jesus with a spirit of inclusion, compassion and service

MISSION

We encourage all to deepen their relationship with Jesus through scripture, prayer, stewardship and ministry to others

Welcome to St Elizabeth Ann Seton

TO FELLOW DISCIPLES OF OUR LORD JESUS:

“Love is patient, love is kind;
love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hope all things, endures all things. Love never ends.”
(1 Corinthians 13, 4—8)

I bet you have heard all these already. I certainly hope so. I also hope you have also read this yourself as you read your Bibles. These great words written by St. Paul certainly gives us a lot to think about. I am a great believer that we should post notes on the refrigerator door or our bathroom mirrors. Why? Because we stand before these items more than anything else. So when you go to the refrigerator, you will be reminded of these words. Or when you are putting on your morning face, you can reflect on how to focus your actions and attitudes for the coming day.

First of all, think about selecting one of the ideas about love that you think you should work on the most. Please don't try to do all of them at once. That is much too complicated. Just pick one. Then try to keep that in mind all that day and let it guide your thoughts, attitudes, words and actions. If you look at all of these items, most of them come out of our mouths. Most offences against love come from the words we speak. The letter of St. James says, “Every form of life, four-footed or winged, crawling or swimming, can be tamed, by humankind; the tongue no one can tame. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. We use it to say, ‘Praised be the Lord and Father,’ then we use it to curse others, though they are made in the likeness of God. Blessing and curse come out of the same mouth.”
(James 3, 7-10)

Then, secondly, ask someone close to you to tell you which one you should work on. Only do this if you really dare to and really want to know the truth! Then see how close you have come to knowing the truth about yourself and how you act toward others. Maybe this way, we can all come to really “love” more completely and carefully.

Winter Blessings and Shalom,

Father Joe

Father Gene's Help Center News

Do you have warm clothing that you would like to share with those less fortunate? The need for jackets, sweaters, sweatshirts, hats, and gloves are in greater need with the frigid temperatures. Please continue looking for your gently used items to donate, as they will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your support.

The next opportunity (offered every other month) to attend this session will be February 2, at 6:30 PM., in the Reflection Room. For additional information, please visit our webpage:

FEAST OF BAPTISM OF THE LORD

On Sunday, January 9, 2022, our Catholic Liturgical Calendar celebrated the last Sunday of the Christmas Season - The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord! We had an extra special Sunday as we also celebrated any families who brought their children into the Church through the Sacrament of Baptism this past year. All families who attended received a special blessing at Mass and also some yummy cookies and juice in Sippel Hall following Mass. Please pray for all families who welcomed a child into our faith this year and continued prayers for all who will celebrate Baptism in 2022. We hope to continue this tradition next January when we can rejoice with all of our 2022 Baptisms! Thanks to all who could make it~

God's Peace

About Good Samaritan Outreach Center (GSOC)

The GSOC mission is to provide emergency supplemental food and clothing items to those with needs in the area. Recent figures show that during a typical week, provisions of food and clothing are made available to 200 families.

An outtake from the GSOC mission statement helps tell its important story ... “We serve welfare recipients, W-2 enrollees, the low income, disabled, unemployed, and those with special needs. Clients may visit our center monthly ... We offer our services to fill a real need in our community with the hope that our contributions will help to better the lives of those we serve. We intend to be a ‘Good Samaritan’ in the like manner to one of the biblical presentations that we all know. We are proud to be supported by approximately 30 churches in the area that we serve.”

Questions of the Week Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

In his call to be a prophet, the Lord informs Jeremiah of both the human resistance and the divine providence that lies ahead for him. When have you felt God's presence in the midst of turmoil in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul eloquently defines the spiritual virtue of "love" for the Christians in Corinth. How well do you live by the standards of love as defined by Paul?

Gospel:

The people of Nazareth were "filled with fury" at Jesus' words to them. How do you imagine Jesus reacted to being rejected by those in his hometown of Nazareth?

How Can We Serve You?
