Toward A Contemporary Understanding Of Jesus

Looking at the 300s and 400s in Church history, we find there were actually 4 councils that were held. Do not think these were polite little discussions going on as to who Jesus really was. Think more of the Republicans and Democrats fighting over the Affordable Care Act or the MPs in Britain arguing over the provisions for Brexit. The first council in this time period - the Council of Nicea - was convened not by the Pope but by the Emperor in 315. Treasure the Nicene Creed which was hammered out by the 180 bishops present. "I believe .... in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Born of the Father before all ages. .... Consubstantial with the Father." These words affirm the divinity of Christ against those heresies which denied it such as Adoptionism and Docetism.

Having jumped through several time periods, on Monday, Apr. 15th, we will begin featuring theologians of our own day. The first will be Karl Rahner, a peritus (advisor) at the Second Vatican Council, followed by S. Elizabeth Johnson. Both deep thinkers, they are challenging in their observations.
