17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Lord, may our tables always be places where food and drink are shared readily with friends and stranger. We pray this in your name. AMEN.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship – thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

JULY FAMILY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION INFORMATION

Thought of the Week: "Do not strive to become whom others want you to be, but whom God made you to be." M. Bartolo-Abela

Religious Education Classes for Children and Teens

Register online now for the 2021-22 Religious Education classes beginning Wednesday, September 1. Classes will be on the first and fourth Wednesday evenings. Parents will spend time learning with their children along with hearing a presentation by a pastor while the children are in their classes. Parent led homestudy is also available for elementary and middle school students. Families can register and pay on the website southeastcatholic.org or download a paper registration form and mail in the form and payment. For questions, call 481-0777.

Volunteers for Religious Education

Religious Education needs adult teachers or aides in the Wednesday evening classes. We have openings for grades K5 – 8 available. Each teacher receives one student tuition free. Teacher resources and lesson plans are provided. High school students can serve as classroom aides and receive service credit. Please contact Karen soon for more information.

Adult Confirmation

Catholics over 18 and out of high school who have not received Confirmation are invited to participate in the Adult Confirmation classes. We meet twice per month from September – December, 6:30 – 8:30pm at Sacred Heart of Jesus parish office. Fr. Philip will celebrate the sacrament in December at Immaculate Conception church. Registration materials available at our website www.southeastcatholic.org under the Sacraments tab. Contact Karen for any questions.

Safe Environment Education for Adults

This Archdiocese mandated program is part of the requirements set down by the US Catholic Bishops to ensure all Church activities are safe for minors. Athletic program coaches, Boy and Girl Scout leaders, day school classroom volunteers, Religious Ed catechists are some of the categories of volunteers who need training. Sessions are virtual but you must register online at www.cmgconnect.org and complete a background check and Code of Ethical Standards before requesting a session.
