EPIPHANY

Merry Christmas! Our Christmas season continues this weekend as we celebrate the Epiphany, which refers to the Christian festival celebrated on January 6th in honor of the three kings coming to the infant Jesus. The Christmas season doesn't end until the Baptism of our Lord is celebrated on January 9th this year. January 6th, the date of the Epiphany, comes twelve days after we celebrate the birth of Christ on Christmas.

A popular Christmas carol about the twelve days of Christmas can be used to help share the Catechism of our faith. Our true love can refer to God, who offers us the various items listed in the song. The partridge in a pear tree relates to Jesus. The two turtle doves represent the Old and New Testament. The three french hens can relate to either the three theological virtues of faith, hope, and love, or the three gifts of the magi of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The four calling birds refer to the four Gospel writers: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. The five golden rings are the Pentateuch, the first five books, which tell the story of our fall and our need for the Savior. The six geese laying are for the six days in which God created the World. The seven swans represent either the seven Sacraments or the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Eight maids a milking relates to the eight beatitudes that Jesus gives us. The nine ladies dancing corresponds with the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, faithfulness, goodness, and self control. The ten lords-a-leaping represents the ten commandments. The eleven pipers are for the eleven apostles who stayed faithful: Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas, Matthew, James, Thaddeus, and Simon. The twelve drummers drumming correspond with the twelve points of the Apostles Creed.

According to the Merriam-Webster dictionary, another meaning of epiphany is either a sudden manifestation or a moment when you suddenly see or understand something in a new or clear way. Oftentimes when a character has an epiphany it is represented by a lightbulb. In Isaiah, we hear about the coming of the light. The Gospel of Matthew tells us about the star of Bethlehem that came to rest over the newborn king of the Jews. Stars are a light in darkness that can help guide those who understand them. As Christians, we walk in the light of Christ as we follow his footsteps. Advent was meant to be a time to prepare for the coming of the Messiah, the light of the world. Once we have made room in our hearts for the Messiah, we need to let Him shine forth.

This year, make one of your New Year's resolutions faith related. Follow Fr. Mike Schmitz from Ascension Presents as he goes through the Bible in a Year. Add a prayer app to your phone like Hallow or Amen to help you take time to reflect on Scripture and add more prayer into your life. Make a commitment to attend Mass every week if you don't already do so. Build upon wherever you currently are to allow more light into your life, which will in turn allow more light to shine forth from you.

JESUS & COMPANY

THE OTHER DAY we were hunting through the weekly paper in search of some pictures to pin on the board in the Upper Room. We found the one with all of our "old-timers" getting an award. Most of you had great smiles and you all looked really nice. Then we found a few more of this year's volleyball teams and we wondered how many of those faces would also look good and fit in nicely in the Upper Room. All the names were listed beneath the pictures and there were a few we recognized. But again we wondered if there's a lot more in those pictures we could invite to the Upper Room. Oh, and by the way, is the long hair a requirement to be on the team? If some of you have the time we would really enjoy your company and friendship in the Upper Room. It's one more place where you can have lots of fun. Just ask someone who's been there.

THOSE YOUNGER RELIGIOUS Ed Students that came down to the Bake Night "festivities" last week or so ago learned a bit of what Jesus and Company is all about. They may not have noticed it but they were all involved in two of our sought after goals...caring and sharing. They got into those two elements quickly as we watched them laughing and having lots of fun as they baked, frosted and packaged the piles and piles of cookies that kept showing up on the tables. There was also another group that was building home made Christmas cards to be delivered to others in town...more sharing and caring.

SO EVERYONE GOT a good taste of how much fun and satisfaction can be gained as we do our various projects during a typical year at Jesus and Company. And it seems like the more caring and sharing we do attracts two more strong feelings of loving and wanting to do more for others. It seems we get to feeling really good when we get ourselves involved with helping and caring for others. Oh sure, many of us could probably do it on our own but JC can add a little flame to the fire as we seek the mission God is giving us in our lives and help us along the way as we move on in search of our desired goals in our own lives.

DID ANYONE develop an appetite for more Jesus and Company as a result of Bake Night? We will have more news on how the Sale went next week...stay tuned!

JESUS - When you are all that we have, that's all we need!
