OF THE LORD

“I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.
I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” - Lk 3:16bc

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Baptismal Promises

As one enters a Catholic Church, they bless themselves with holy water. This gesture is done each time we enter Church as a reminder of our Baptism. Every time we enter a Catholic Church, we are to be reminded to die to our own desires and be brought to new life in Christ, placing Him at the center of our life. We are reminded to renounce Satan, his evil works, and all his empty promises. We're reminded of our promise to renounce sin and the lure of evil. Blessing ourselves with the holy water as we enter Church is called to remind us to reflect on when we have failed to reject Satan and sin. It calls us to once again renew our desire to reject the fake glamour of evil. This weekend, we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord. Jesus did not need to be purified in the waters, however he humbled himself to enter the waters to open up the Promised Land.

Not only does blessing ourselves remind us of our desire to let go of sinfulness and evil, but it also calls us to remember our beliefs. We believe in God, the Father, creator of all. We believe in Jesus, who took on humanity, humbled himself to death, and rose again in order to save us. It reminds us of our belief in the Holy Spirit and in the Church itself. We are reminded of something beyond the here and now. We are called to be better than we have been.

As we bless ourselves with the holy water we make the Sign of the Cross. This simple prayer is truly profound. As we sign ourselves with the cross we remember the Trinity. We remember Jesus' death and resurrection. The combination of these words and actions are in themselves a creed. This is not simply a statement of beliefs, but a commitment to defend those beliefs. It can be easy to rush through these motions as we do them so often, but it is important that we take time to reflect on the true meaning of what we are doing and saying.

Just like the act of blessing ourselves with holy water can seem easy, there is more to the image of water. Water brings us life, as we need water to survive. Water cleans us as we take showers and baths. Water can also be extremely dangerous as it can bring about death. Each of these symbols speaks to the truth of Baptism. In Baptism, our old self dies and we are brought to new life as children of God. We are cleansed of Original Sin and filled with God's grace. Just like we are cleansed in our Baptism we are cleansed when we bless ourselves with holy water.

We also use holy water to protect us from evil. God's blessing is upon it, so it has His power behind. Next time you go to dip your fingers in the holy water font at the entrance of the Church, stop and think about what you are truly signing yourself with. You are calling on God to protect you, cleanse you, and remind you whose you are. The Church has given us this sacramental as a reminder of who we are called to be.

or 1-877-270-8174 (toll free)

We always encourage you to report the incident to civil authorities.

YOU MATTER TO US - THERE IS HOPE!

JESUS & COMPANY

IF YOU WERE to take a walk (or drive) past the church on a Wednesday night at about 6:30 pm you would see the porch light turned on at the parish business office. That is a true sign that Jesus and Company is "open for business" up stairs. You might decide to go in just to see what it's all about. So you go into a lit hallway and you can see the stairway that goes up to the next level. There are 15 steps in the stairs, we know because they have been counted several times. When you reach the top you can see an open door to a brightly lit room and you guess that must be the Upper Room so many have talked about.

YOU GO IN and see all kinds of soft, cushy chairs and a sofa and some tables. Most of the chairs were gifted to Jesus & Company by parish members who had bought new furniture and gave JC the older stuff that they probably could have sold...another sign of giving and caring by others. If you decide to walk around to see what else is there you will find a lot of literature on the tables about retreats, camps and weekends that are designed to help us find ourselves and our faith while having fun doing it...kinda like JC tries to do.

THEN AS YOU walk around the Room you will see a mini-library of good - reading books and stuff for anyone who just wants to relax by themselves. You will also find cabinets and shelves and a file cabinet full of games and paperwork for riddles, puzzles and much more as it relates to our faith growth. And like we said, a lot of it is just pure fun-learning. There is even a Catholic Monopoly game to help us keep the proper attitude in the Room! You will also find a cabinet full of a variety of sweet goodies and a small frig that holds bottles of water (soda was voted down a long time ago). We should end here and say "to be continued" because there is a lot more that can be shared with you. So stay tuned.

THERE PROBABLY wasn't enough snow on the ground between Christmas and New Years for our annual Slide'n Ride at the hill by the football field. This year the Wednesday night would have been perfect, right between both dates. Actually if we get some snow we can go on any Wednesday night...with a notice a week ahead of the night. We will also explain this adventure next week.

JESUS - Your birthday invites you to be reborn in all of us... thank you.

HERIAGE MISSALS - A reminder that the 2022 Heritage Missals are to be left in church. If you wish to purchase one for yourself, please contact the parish office at 849-9363 by January 17, 2022, the cost is $10.

FORMED.ORG

Good Shepherd has a subscription to formed.org for the entire parish to utilize. Please go to this site to learn more about your faith, view movies or listen to music.

CACS NEWS: The 7th and 8th grade students of CACS will be in the back of church at the conclusion of every mass in the month of January selling tickets for a chance to win a raffle basket. Each ticket is $1. All proceeds will be going to cover the cost of the 2022 Washington DC field trip.

OPEN HOUSE: Mark your calendars for the return of the CACS Open House! On January 30th, our doors will be open after the 10:00 Mass. Come see what our school is all about, check out student projects, and shop our book fair. EVERYONE is welcome to take a tour and visit with our staff and students.

PARENTAL CHOICE PROGRAM: There will be an informational meeting about the Wisconsin Parental Choice Program on January 25th at 5:30 pm in the CACS Technology Center. Any and all interested families are welcome to attend to receive information about and deadlines for the WPCP.
