Call Kathy 920-849-9266

There are 5,981 Catholic schools nationwide. 4,812 of those are elementary/middle schools and 1,264 of those are rural schools. Today is the kickoff to Catholic Schools Week, where we celebrate these Catholic schools across the nation, but here specifically, we celebrate Chilton Area Catholic School. As an alumni (6th grade class of 1999), a parent of a current 2nd grader, and the new principal, I've seen CACS from all levels. As a student, I spent my most formative years under the guidance of the teachers here. I developed a relationship with Christ in a way that only Catholic schools can offer. I truly believe my successes in middle school, high school, and college can be attributed to the foundation of faith and academic excellence I received as a student here.

When I became a parent, I knew I wanted the same for my children. Two and a half years ago, my daughter began 5K at CACS and we once again became a part of the faith family of this school. Now as a parent, watching my daughter grow in many of the same ways I did through her Catholic school experience has been incredibly rewarding. When she would come home and talk about a new Bible story or saint she was learning about, or come home having learned a new prayer, up until this year where she has been preparing to receive the Sacraments, the love and joy of Jesus shines through her. Next year, my son will be starting 5K, and I'm so excited to see him grow in the same ways. CACS also offers a lot of opportunities for parents to get involved and grow their own relationship with Christ. This parental involvement is where I have met some of the most wonderful people who have helped me grow in Christ.

Now this year, I've embarked on my third experience with the CACS family - that of principal. This is my very first principal position, which would be incredibly overwhelming for anyone. But the people here have made this first year an incredible experience. I've felt welcomed and supported since day one. I can feel my faith once again growing stronger and I'm developing a new relationship with Christ, one that I felt was missing in my time away from CACS.

This is a truly special school. We are incredibly blessed to have CACS in our community as an option for our children. So when people ask what Catholic education means to me, I tell them it's home. It is where my relationship with Christ first flourished. It's where I can always come back to strengthen that relationship. It's where I will always feel supported and uplifted. I can't wait to help more and more children and their families find their home.

JESUS & COMPANY

THIS WEEK IS going to be a bit different than most in that we are going to get somewhat selfish. We are going to build a bucket list for ourself. It will be different because the bucket will contain only one request. We are going to put in the bucket the desire to see all those who have been a part of Jesus & Company for the past 27 years. We soon realized it would be an impossible venture. When we thought about it we realized that seeing every face from 27 years of JC activity would be a modern day miracle.

OUR OPTION THEN became Plan B. That in itself will not be any easier...but hopefully we can achieve greater results if we really work at it. In fact it's working already. We are now searching for the phone numbers of any and all JC'ers from our past. Just this past week we had a visit at our "home" from two of our loyal alumni and was given three phone numbers of cousins who were members of our little family. Then it dawned on us that we have to make contact with each other to get what we are searching for. If there is a brother, sister, cousin, mom, dad, neighbor, classmate, name, or anyone you know who was in JC and you have their phone number we need it and hope for it real bad!

THIS IS WHERE the selfish part comes into the plan. Having the phone numbers of how ever many we can gather will give us the dream of talking just one more time-to talk to the many who we came to know and love over all these past years. And many of you have left your mark on our lives and for that we are thankful to God....and you!

IF WE GET your number we promise we won't take up too much time with the call. The major intent for the call would be to hear your voice one more time and to hear how life is going for you in your space in our world and are you happy. We are anxious to know that you are OK and life is good. We have been able to track some of you...for others it's been a long, long time. Yes, we are selfish, anxious to know because you are now major and valuable memories of our past.

JESUS - is there room for me near you?

HERE IS AN add-on for you. If you have some phone numbers for us you can deposit them at (920) 898-4751.
