Merry Christmas—to all the families of the three parishes, St. Joachim's, St. James and Holy Rosary; peace, joy and love of the Christmas season. May the grace of the newborn child, Jesus usher in good health and progress in the coming year! God Bless you all! Father Nathan

Dear friends and family, Christmas is the time to consider what we want the center of our lives to be, and that center is Christ. He is the center of life, of love, of everything. But to be Christ-centered is not to be moderate. It is not a compromise. It is living by the life-giving power of humility and faith. It is to live the radical love of Jesus that lays down its life for others and trusts in God's plan for salvation. Let us not lose heart in these difficult times. Let us remain Christ-centered! Sr. Carla
