FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"It is more blessed to give than to receive," (20:35).

In today's gospel, Jesus performs a miracle of the multiplication of the loaves from five barley loaves and two fish given and offered selflessly by a little boy who is eager and willing to share a little of what he has. Surprisingly, Jesus is pleased with the offer. He proceeds to use it to feed five thousand men excluding children and women.

What Jesus wants us to do in this gospel is be ready and willing to share and to give what we have to others especially those who are in need, those who are lacking, and those who are in trouble financially, emotionally, and spiritually.

I think and I'm sure that God really designed and intentionally did it so that some of us would receive more grace from Him. It would be a talent, a time, or treasures, like money and wealth, to test these people to see how big their hearts are. Those who receive these graces coming from God have the duty and obligation to give to those who are lacking materially and in need not only of material things but also of their support and assistance in their political, economic, emotional, and spiritual well-being.

Some people give for self-glorification to become the center of attraction and we see those who love their fellow human beings regardless of status. They have to give because they love them and not because they receive payment in return. When they give, it is truly coming from their hearts. When they give, they are happy for it. And so, they are called spiritual givers.

Let us reflect on these words coming from John Michael Talbot, a Catholic musician: "God is the Master musician, we are His instruments. He crafts and tunes us. Christ is the Conductor who leads and guides those who play the music of the Master."

Let us make our annual Bazar today successful by participating and praying.

Fr. Raju

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

*"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"
JOHN 6:9*

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!
