Homily

Profession of Faith

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, & is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living & the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the Body, and life-everlasting, Amen.

Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

Verses 1, 2, 4

1. Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring love.

2. Make me a channel of your peace. Where there’s despair in life, let me bring hope.

3. Make me a channel of your peace. Where there’s doubt, true faith is you.

4. Make me a channel of your peace. Where there’s sadness, everlasting joy.

Verse 3

3. Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek solitude as to console, To be understood as to understand. To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Music: Hymn Tune, David Clark, 1979; GIA Publications, Inc.

Verses 1 and 4

O Christ the Great Foundation

To preach your true salvation In every age and land: We bear our Lord’s inspiration, The sign of second birth: Where in no cents are fright-ened The right-eous fear to speak, Shall lead his church vic-to-rious, Their champion and their head.

Pour out your Holy Spirit To make us strong and pure, One holy people gathered In love beyond our own, There let your church a-wak-ing At-tack the pow’rs of sin The Lord of all crea-tion His heav’nly kingdom brings

To keep the faith un-broken As long as worlds endu re, By grace we were in- vited, By grace we make you known, And, all their ram-parts break-ing, With you the vict-or-y win, The fi-nal con-sum-mation, The glo-ry of all things.

Guys and Dolls ~ Fireside Bus Trip
One of Broadway’s hottest shows is back as a brand new production of this immortal Broadway fable. This blockbuster won seven Tony Awards including Best Musical in 1951 and four more in 1992 including Best Revival. It’s a colorful and hilarious adaptation of Damon Runyon’s beloved stories about some of the most unforgettable characters ever to walk across a stage such as Liver Lips Louie, Nicely-Nicely Johnson, Nathan Detroit, Miss Adelaide, Society Max, and Big Jule. Its fabulous musical score features such memorable songs as “Luck Be A Lady,” “If I Were A Bell,” “A Bushel And A Peck,” and the show-stopping hit “Sit Down, You’re Rockin’ The Boat.”

The featured menu for this event includes Cream of Shiitake Mushroom Soup, Freshly Baked Breads from our Artisan Bakery, CHICKEN AND RIBS (Our Signature Lean Pork Ribs glazed with our special Barbecue Sauce, slowly roasted until the tender meat falls from the bone and a Skinless Chicken Breast dipped in egg batter, rolled in bread crumbs, and sautéed to a golden brown). Served with Monterey Jack Macaroni and Cheese topped with seasoned bread crumbs and Roasted Fresh Vegetables. The meal ends with Mindy’s Cheesecake for dessert. Coffee, tea and milk are included with the dinner and additional beverages are available for purchase.

PROTECTING YOUR KIDS ONLINE 2.0

LEARN Know the platforms. Online enticement happens across all platforms, so be aware of the sites, games, and apps your children frequent. Ask them to show you how they use them. Be proactive. Teach your kids to spot common tricks used by online offenders.

In NCMEC CyberTipline reports, the most common tactics used to entice a child online were:

- Engaging the child in sexual conversation/roleplay as a grooming method.
- Directly asking the child for sexually explicit images of themselves, or offering to mutually exchange images.
- Developing a rapport with the child through compliments and other supportive behaviors such as "liking" their online posts.
- Sending unprompted sexually explicit images of themselves.
- Pretending to be younger.

Spot the Red Flags. A child who is experiencing online enticement may be:

- Spending increasing time online.
- Getting upset when he or she is not allowed on their device.
- Taking extra steps to conceal what they are doing online.
- Receiving gifts from people you don’t know.

CONNECT Set some ground rules. Establish clear guidelines like what types of sites kids can visit, apps they can download, and when they can have access to electronics. Consider “blackout” periods that require disconnection. Research before you buy. It’s important to learn about a device’s capabilities before you buy. Will it allow unknown people to communicate with my child? Will this allow children to make unchecked purchases? Go beyond safeguards. Installing monitoring software doesn’t guarantee your child will be safe online. Time, attention, and active conversation are the best tools to protect them.

REPORT! If your kids are dealing with cyberbullies or potential online enticement, report it to the website, cell phone provider, law enforcement, or CyberTipline.org

ENGAGE Talk about it! Your kids might not tell you everything, but ask anyway. Regular conversations about safety can go a long way in increasing trust and communication. Get involved. Challenge them to a duel. If you have kids who like to play online games, ask if you can play, too. When you respect their interests, they’re more likely to respect your rules. Don’t pull the plug. Taking away internet access because they may have made mistakes online doesn’t solve the problem. Talk to them about protecting themselves and respecting others online...
