Faith Formation/Religious Education News

Mandatory parents only meeting on Wednesday, November 30 at 5 p.m.— 6:15 p.m. in room 350 (3rd floor of the school)

EXHIBITION

With a wide variety of photographs and historical descriptions, the exhibition presents part of the main Eucharistic Miracles that occurred over the centuries in various countries of the world and that have been recognized by the Church. Through the panels "it is possible to visit virtually" the places where the Miracles occurred.

We invite our community to enjoy the exhibition poster at SS Peter & Paul Church.

From November 22nd to December 18th.
Poster will be display in the Church Hall.
Special talk about the Eucharist from Fr. Greg Parent on November 22 at 6:00 PM and November 23 at 12:00 PM at the SSPP Church

The exhibition will be open on November 18th for display on the following times
Saturdays: 3:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Sundays: 7:30 AM – 2:00 PM
Wednesdays: 5:00 PM – 7:30 PM
Fridays: 8:30 AM – 11:00 AM

Here is the link for the poster's information

PERSEQUI = Latin for Pursuit

Guy's! Join me in my pursuit - your first question should be, What is Don Patz in pursuit of? First - the definition: pursuit is the action of following someone or something. I am here by giving action to my pursuit (hands on hips and cape flapping in the wind). Pursuit of what you may ask? NOT Pursuit of fame, money or status. What else is there to pursue? So...Whom shall I pursue?! Not the Wife, friends or family.... You guessed it GOD!!!

PERSEQUI will be open to all men - we are all starting out as beginners - no experience needed - high school men through men with many years under their belts will be welcomed....Along our way in this journey of our persequi, you will expect to find that you are able to identify the fingerprints of God, catch a glimpse of God's presence and find that your desire to pursue God is being fulfilled moment by moment. To lay our groundwork and invite the guys to get the first book "Plan of Life" Roger J Landry.

First meeting on Nov. 3 from 7:00 to 8:00 pm in the Parish hall.

1st and 3rd Thursday of the month (subject to change due to parish events and life).

Men! Please join me! Don Patz.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus encounters a short, rich tax collector named Zacchaeus. He wants to meet Jesus and accept His teachings. To win Jesus's favor, he invites Jesus to stay overnight in his house and then he promises Jesus he will give half his riches to the poor. At Mass today, we also encountered Jesus. And like Zacchaeus, we must also be willing to change and grow and be vigilant of our relationship with others. We could use some people like Zacchaeus in our parish. During our fiscal year which ended on September 30, we helped 99 families with furniture needs. We helped 65 families with rental assistance. We helped 140 families with clothing and household items. We helped 7 families with utility bills. And most important, we helped 17 students with tuition assistance at NWTC. Please continue to send us your donations of furniture, clothing and household item. But what we are really short of is your money. Please put your donation into an envelope, mark it SVdP and put it into the collection basket or mail or drop it off at our parish office. Thank you so much and God bless you.

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday, we remember all of our beloved family members who have passed away, especially those who passed last year. For some of you, it has been a few months, or a year, and for some of you perhaps many years since your loved one passed away. Although it is sad to know that they are now gone from this earth, we are comforted in the fact that our Lord Jesus came to their rescue!

The first reading reminds us that God has mercy on all, He "overlook people's sins that they may repent" (Wis 11:22-12:2). It reminds us also that God is Lord and lover of souls. Every single soul that has passed away is deeply loved by God who created it for Himself! The Father in heaven creates out of love – and for love! Our final breath on earth, is meant to be a beautiful encounter with the lover of our souls, the Lord almighty, maker of heaven and earth and also of your soul and mine.

"The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost" (Lk 19:1-10). We were the lost ones, and Jesus came to rescue our souls. We trust in the beauty of His sacrifice for our redemption. The Father in heaven has sent the Son to seek you, me, and everyone! It is a crazy idea that the Lord almighty, the lover of souls, is seeking you and me – all for the sake of overwhelming us with His divine love!

This is why we shouldn't fear the encounter with God at the end of our lives! We must look forward to this moment where the lover of our souls comes to embrace us. This beautiful encounter is not only on the day of our departure, but it happens at every Mass in the Eucharist.

The lover of souls, Jesus Christ Himself, comes to seek and to save you and me! Will you let Him embrace you?

In His Most Sacred Heart,
Fr. Jose

St. Aloysius Gift drive

The St. Aloysius teen group from St. Patrick's Oratory is pairing up with Catholic Charities to bring Christmas joy to families who have had a hard year, but we need your help! We need new unwrapped gifts for children 0-18 years of age. We are accepting non-monetary donations from now until November 16th. There is a bin located in the entryway for your donated items at SS Peter Paul. If you have any questions, please contact Shari Reif rsreiffam@gmail.com.

A big thank you from the St. Aloysius teen Group!
May the Lord bless you and your families.

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

Este domingo recordamos a todos nuestros amados familiares que han fallecido, especialmente a los que fallecieron el año pasado. Para algunos de ustedes, han pasado unos meses, un año y para algunos quizás muchos años desde que falleció su ser querido. Aunque es triste saber que ahora se han ido de esta tierra, ¡nos consuela el hecho de que nuestro Señor Jesús vino a rescatarnos! La primera lectura nos recuerda que Dios tiene misericordia de todos, él "pasa por alto los pecados de los hombres para que se arrepientan" (Sb 11, 22-12, 2). Nos recuerda también que Dios es Señor y amante de la vida. ¡Cada alma que ha fallecido, es profundamente amada por Dios que la creó para sí mismo! ¡El Padre del cielo crea por amor y para el amor! Nuestro último aliento en la tierra, está destinado a ser un hermoso encuentro con el amante de nuestras almas, el Señor todopoderoso, hacedor del cielo y la tierra y también de tu alma y la mía.

"El Hijo del Hombre ha venido a buscar y a salvar lo que se había perdido" (Lc 19,1-10). Nosotros éramos los perdidos y Jesús vino a rescatar nuestras almas. Confiamos en la belleza de su sacrificio para nuestra redención. ¡El Padre que está en los cielos ha enviado al Hijo a buscaros a vosotros, a mí ya todos! ¡Es una idea loca que el Señor todopoderoso, el amante de las almas, te esté buscando! ¡Todo en aras de abrumarnos con Su amor divino! ¡Por eso no debemos temer el encuentro con Dios al final de nuestra vida! Debemos esperar este momento en el que el amante de nuestras almas venga a nuestro abrazo. Este hermoso encuentro no es solo el día de nuestra partida, sino que sucede en cada Misa en la Eucaristía. ¡El amante de las almas, el mismo Jesucristo viene a buscarte y salvarte a ti ya mí! ¿Le dejarías abrazarte?

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

Padre José
