Blessing of Throats:

St. Paul Church at Noon.
St. Joseph Church at 5:30 pm.

My Fellow Pilgrims on the Journey,

When Paul wrote what we call the First Letter to the Corinthians, he was dealing with a very divided Christian community. Some were following a Christian named Apollos. Others were following a man named Cephas. Their teachings were a bit different from each other and the two groups didn't especially like each other. On top of this, many members were boasting about the importance of their different gifts. These were mostly spiritual gifts like speaking in tongues, prophesying, interpreting preaching, healing, and things like that. Paul's image of the body is intended to deflate the people's arrogance and put their fellowship with Christ in a new context. The people have accepted the faith as individuals, but Paul wants them to understand that at baptism, the Holy Spirit draws all believers together into fellowship with Christ in one body.

This thought of being one in Christ's body got me thinking about our nation and about our parishes. As a nation, we don't have to go far to see the divisiveness and demonizing of one side against the other. These United States don't seem to be too united anymore. I wish and pray that we can live up to our Pledge of Allegiance where we say "...one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." We have a long way to go. We need healing.

In terms of our parishes, I think Paul's passage in today's readings gives us an opportunity to reflect on our own gifts and talents that God has blessed us with. As one body, we can rely on one another and need to recognize the important role each part in that body plays. Am I using the gifts God has blessed me with for the good of the parish, our Christian community? Gifts and talents are not meant to be hoarded. They're meant to be shared to build up the Kingdom and for the greater glory of God. We can always use more folks to help with our liturgies such as readers, servers, singers and Eucharistic Ministers. Think about this reading from Paul and do a little introspection. Is God calling you perhaps, to use a gift or talent to help us worship or to help others?

January 22nd is a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. It was on this day that the Supreme Court ruled that a woman's right to choose to be pregnant or not was greater than the gift of human life itself. The Church sets aside today as a day of prayer and even encourages fasting for the victims of abortion, for those who have had abortions, and that our nation's leaders may be more aware of the needs of the unborn, and establish laws to protect them. This weekend, let us remember that all life is sacred, from womb to tomb.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

January 23, 2022
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God’s transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is—the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God’s constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God’s Word, God’s life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one’s soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn’t forget. He always comes for us.

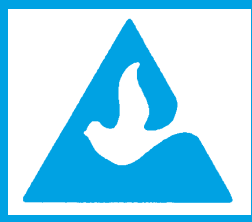

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God’s Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God’s fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away. ©LPi
