Month of the
Precious Blood

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we hear the parable of The Good Samaritan. We know this story well and it often overpowers the other readings of the day. So I would like to focus on the first reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

In the first reading, Moses is leading the people beyond a superficial practice of religion to a heartfelt, substantial, loving relationship with God. How do we do this? By trying our best to following God's will and realizing the presence of God within us and among us. This is not always an easy thing to do. It takes patience and perseverance. It's not for the lazy!

Moses stresses that God's will and love are very near, not something mysterious and far away. God has placed his law "in our mouths and hearts" as the ancient author wrote. This requires our hearts to be open to God's will and actions that follow it. We just have to carry it out.

This coming weekend members of our youth group will be heading to Springfield, Missouri for the Steubenville Conference for Catholic Youth. They will be joined by teens from parishes across the country. It's an intense time of prayer, Eucharist, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and much more activity! Please pray for them in the week ahead. May they follow the spirit of our first reading and enter into a deeper, loving relationship with God. Pray also for their safe travels.

Have a great week,

Father Brian

Home Bound and Hospital Visits

Please call if you or a family member would like to receive a visit from Father Brian Barker or one of the parishioners. Please call Rita Dutton at 889-7215 or the office in Marion at 993-3194, opt. 1 or Sandi West in Johnston City at 983-5073.

Vocation Corner

"When I was 8, I penned a rhyme that listed 12 things I liked. Reading it as an adult, I was delighted that "people" had made the list - and disappointed that "ice cream" had not. The verse ended, "I like God the best." Even then, the Lord was inviting me to be exclusively his own.

I was grateful to my family for giving me the gift of faith. After graduating from college, I served the Church full time for 11 years. I thought I had found my mission to active ministry..." But gradually, in the quiet intimacy of adoring Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, he revealed the difference between doing God's work and fulfilling his will. Gently, he invited me to embrace a contemplative vocation. "

Sr. John Mark Maria of St. Peter the Apostle; Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration, Tonopab, AZ.

Respect Life Corner

The creation of a Christian family is not a function of biology. It is grounded in the belief that God creates each of us in His image and likeness, to be fully human and to share in God's life. May the adoption of children be grounded in faith, love, sacrifice, and covenant.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 10, 2022
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

“We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers).” It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law “is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out.” We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules. ©LPi
