Everyday Stewardship

I was recently reading an article about the real aspects of true love. The psychologist writing the piece said that many people hide behind the words "I love you." They can start believing that if they say it enough times, it simply becomes true.

Jesus claimed that the world would know his disciples by the fact that they loved one another. In the Church, we speak of loving one another quite frequently. I hope that someone can tell that I am a disciple of Jesus by the way I love others. However, that hope is something I have to keep in the center of my mind because I fear too often that I speak more of love than act out of love.

As Christians, we can find ourselves hiding behind our words. History, unfortunately, has shown us that our witness of action has not always been profound enough. The world will surely know whom it is we serve if we love like Jesus, we act like Jesus, and we serve others like Jesus. Our stewardship will bear witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ, and we will bring others to him. Our love will be an instrument of our evangelization. Our words will become true, not because we said them enough, but because they are true.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

How do people know that you are a disciple of Jesus Christ? Some folks prefer to keep their faith a secret and rarely mention their belief in Jesus. Others are more vocal and readily tell people that they are Christian. For Jesus, there is another way to recognize whether one is a disciple. He tells his friends that all will know they are disciples if they have love for one another. The love to which Jesus calls us to is not just an earthly love. It's not just about doing nice things for people or even keeping positive thoughts about others. Jesus' love is divine love. Put simply, Jesus became human so that we can become divine. We are called to look at the world, people, and ourselves as God does. This requires unconditional compassion and a whole lot of mercy and forgiveness. We cannot do this alone. That is why the risen Christ remains with us, especially through the Eucharist, to help us become who he is. If done correctly, there will be no question about who has our allegiance.

Vivir La Liturgia Inspiración de la Semana

¿Cómo sabe la gente que eres un discípulo de Jesucristo? Algunas personas prefieren mantener su fe en secreto y rara vez mencionan su creencia en Jesús. Otros son más vocales y fácilmente le dicen a la gente que son cristianos. Para Jesús, hay otra manera de reconocer si uno es un discípulo. Les dice a sus amigos que todos sabrán que son discípulos si se aman los unos a los otros. El amor al que Jesús nos llama no es solo un amor terrenal. No se trata solo de hacer cosas buenas por las personas o incluso de tener pensamientos positivos sobre otras personas. El amor de Jesús es amor divino. En pocas palabras, Jesús se hizo humano para que podamos llegar a ser divinos. Estamos llamados a mirar al mundo, a las personas y a nosotros mismos como lo hace Dios. Esto requiere compasión incondicional y mucha misericordia y perdón. No podemos hacer esto solos. Es por eso que el Cristo resucitado permanece con nosotros, especialmente a través de la Eucaristía, para ayudarnos a convertirnos en quien Él es. Si se hace correctamente, no habrá duda sobre quién tiene nuestra lealtad.

5th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Corresponsabilidad Diaria

Recientemente estuve leyendo un artículo sobre los aspectos reales del amor verdadero. El psicólogo que escribió el artículo dijo que muchas personas se esconden detrás de las palabras "Te amo". Pueden empezar a creer que si lo dicen suficientes veces simplemente se convertirá en realidad.

Jesús afirmó que el mundo conocería a sus discípulos por el hecho de que se amarían unos a otros. En la Iglesia, hablamos de amarnos unos a otros con bastante frecuencia. Yo espero que alguien pueda decir que soy un discípulo de Jesús por la forma en que amo a los demás. Sin embargo, esa esperanza es algo que tengo que mantener en el centro de mi mente porque temo, con demasiada frecuencia, que hablo más del amor que de lo que actué por amor.

Como cristianos, podemos encontrarnos escondiéndonos detrás de nuestras palabras. La historia, desafortunadamente, nos ha demostrado que nuestro testimonio de acción no siempre ha sido lo suficientemente profundo. El mundo seguramente sabrá a quién servimos si amamos como Jesús, actuamos como Jesús y servimos a otros como Jesús. Nuestra corresponsabilidad dará testimonio del poder transformador de Jesucristo y atraeremos a otros hacia Él. Nuestro amor será un instrumento de nuestra evangelización. Nuestras palabras se harán verdaderas, no porque las dijimos lo suficiente, sino porque son verdaderas.
