Mission Statement

The Mission of Our Lady of Lourdes is to create a faith community for all members to grow in their relationship with God and each other so that they can proclaim the Good News of Christ's Message.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK....

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter and Happy Divine Mercy Sunday! Today we come to the end of the Easter Octave, the eight days we celebrate as one long Easter day and we celebrate the great gift of the mercy of God. We are blessed here in Washington to have such a great devotion to the Divine Mercy and to see the image of Jesus all over town. This celebration and this devotion is a call for all of us to both receive the mercy of God and to hand His mercy on to others.

The Resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the great conquering of the evil of sin that leads us into darkness and separates us from God. In a beautiful way, we experience the Resurrection of Christ Jesus most powerfully in all of the Sacraments of the Church. In particular, though, on this Divine Mercy Sunday, we focus particularly on the Sacraments of Mercy, baptism, confession, anointing of the sick and the Eucharist. Each of these Sacraments bestow upon us the Divine Mercy and unite us more closely to the Heart of Jesus. As we celebrate this Sunday of Divine Mercy, I would encourage each of you to rededicate yourselves to seeking out the mercy of His Resurrection in these great Sacraments.

As we continue this season of Easter and of spring, there will be quite a number of special events in the coming weeks. First of all, this coming Wednesday is the close of the year for our PSR. Thanks to all the parents and catechists who worked so hard all year to help the children of our parish to grow in faith. Special thanks to our DRE, Katelyn Boland, who successfully navigated her first year of PSR. It was a great year! Please keep our students and their families in your prayers.

And speaking of students, we have a number of students in both our PSR and day school who have a huge celebration next Sunday, May 1st. Our 2nd graders will be making their 1st Holy Communion and they are very excited. Please keep them and their families in your prayers for a blessed day and that the Lord might continue to bless them with His loving Presence in the Eucharist throughout their lives.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Jim Theby

Sunday of Divine Mercy — STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’”
(JOHN 20:21)
Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

THANK YOU for your support to the Annual Catholic Appeal

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Do we reflect Christ to others? In the Gospel, Thomas says to the other Apostles, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.” Later, when Jesus appears to the Apostles, Jesus rebukes Thomas, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.” We all know people like Thomas who need evidence to believe something. This is one of the reasons it is essential for us to allow everyone we meet to see the evidence of God working in our lives. Have you ever met someone that exudes the love, joy, and peace of Jesus in everything they do? People like this are contagious, because everyone wants what they have. They reflect Christ to others. If we all could strive to allow Christ to shine through us we would be able to give all those like a Thomas a glimpse of what they are seeking. This week would be a good time to ask the Holy Spirit to transform our hearts and help us to allow Christ to shine through us.
