17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you." - Lk 11:9

Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread."

This life isn't an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?... how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give.

Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always.

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." (Mt 7:7)

In the "Good Ol' Days", families would make meals for neighbors when someone was sick, home with a new baby, or grieving. The Care Committee (Christians Actively Reaching Everyone) is currently trying to bring back that small town comradery. Members take turns each month delivering a meal to a family/person on the list. If you want to "cook up" some new friendships, please join us by contacting one of the committee contacts:

Sharing the Gospel

Do you know how to pray? All you need to do is talk to God. He is your loving Father. Tell him how you would like to make him happy. Ask him to give you the things you really need. Ask him to help you forgive other people, just like he forgives you. God loves you, so talk to him often.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for loving me and listening to me.

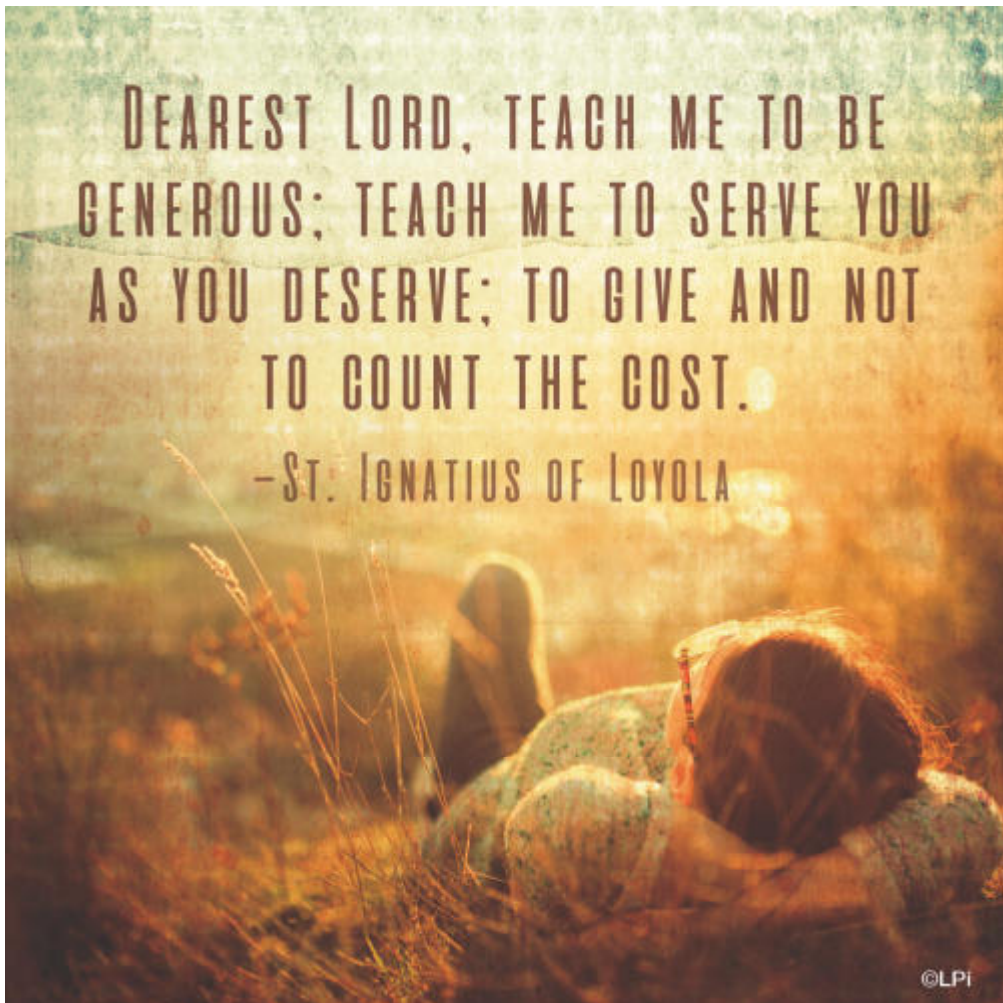

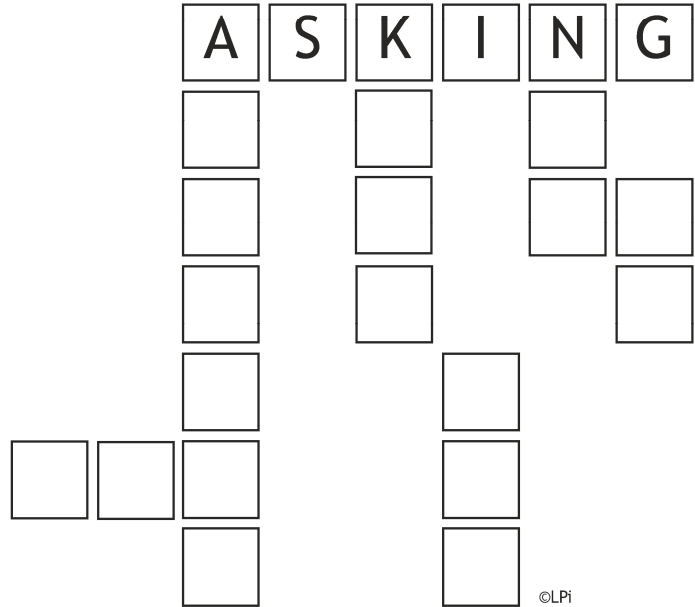

Mission for the Week

Make time to pray every day this week.

PARISH NEWS

Saturday 7/27 Congratulations to Kade Olinger & Aubree Arvin, who were married at Sacred Heart

Today 7/28 Congratulations to Joseph Allen Merkley, son of Brad & Stacy Merkley, who will be Baptized at Sacred Heart. Welcome to our Parish family!

Today 7/28 All are invited to the special blessing and dedication of the new organ at Sacred Heart at 2:00pm. Bishop Joseph Siegel will be here to bless the organ. This will be followed by a sacred concert and prayer service. A reception will follow. Please come and celebrate what your hard work and generosity have accomplished.

Thursday 8/1 The American Red Cross will hold a Blood Drive from 2:00pm-7:00pm at the Schnellville Community Club, sponsored by Divine Mercy Parish. To schedule an appointment, please visit RedCrossBlood.org and enter SCHNELLVILLE

Friday 8/2 NO First Friday Adoration at Sacred Heart

We are still collecting plastic bags (Wal Mart, grocery store, etc. --any color) to make blankets/sleeping mats for the homeless shelters. There is a container in back of each church for your convenience. There is a real need for them so your help is most appreciated. A sample of the finished product is in the back of each Church.

We will continue to offer an Adult Faith Formation Bible Study this fall. A survey for you to voice your preference of what kind of study we will provide is in the back of each Church. You may return your results to the parish office or simply put in the collection basket. If you have never participated in a Bible Study before and are interested please call the parish office.

There will be a Catholic Men's Conference at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis on Saturday, October 5. Fr. Donald Calloway will be the featured speaker and Fr. Rick Nagle, pastor at St. John's Church in Indianapolis will also speak. For more information, please visit www.indianacatholicmen.com

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

The Religious Education Registration forms for the 2019-20 school year are in the back of both churches. Please return to the Parish Office by July 31
