18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[Jesus] said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:15

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The cake is frosted, the guests have arrived, and the gifts are piled high. One by one, the packages are opened, and one by one, the child reaches for another. Who among us hasn't seen a child who appears crestfallen when the gifts run out? Even the abundance isn't quite enough. Today's Gospel tackles a key question in the spiritual life - grateful or greedy?

"There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest." We all recognize the need to be practical. Raising a family, there's need to save for all sorts of things beyond normal day-to-day costs - medical bills, family vacations, private school, rainy day funds, retirement. Jesus doesn't critique the rich man for simply having an abundant harvest. It's his mentality. Does the rich man sell off the extra to make the needed repairs to the back fence or to invest in some additional livestock to grow the business? Perhaps donate some of the excess to the poor? No. "You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!" The man wants to hoard and indulge with no concern for others.

Jesus doesn't condemn prudent saving or owning necessary items. He calls us to purify our attitudes. "Guard against all greed... one's life does not consist of possessions." We are called to be good stewards. This means being practical. It also means remaining open to God's invitation with our resources. Are we tithing to our parish? Do we give alms to the poor? Does our weekly entertainment far outstrip what we offer to others? Life is not about "stor[ing] up treasure for [our]selves." The more we grow in gratitude and generosity, the more we become "rich in what matters to God."

In the "Good Ol' Days", families would make meals for neighbors when someone was sick, home with a new baby, or grieving. The Care Committee (Christians Actively Reaching Everyone) is currently trying to bring back that small town comradery. Members take turns each month delivering a meal to a family/person on the list. If you want to "cook up" some new friendships, please join us by contacting one of the committee contacts:

Sharing the Gospel

When you put Jesus first in your life, you will have everything you need. Having a lot of stuff won't really make you or God happy. God doesn't want you to keep your blessings to yourself. God wants you to share what he has given you. Be "rich" in only the things that God cares about. The closer you grow with God, the happier you will be.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to remember what is really important to you.

Mission for the Week

When you get home, pack three toys and three books to give to children without any.

This is my Son, and I love him.

I have the opportunity to continue my education at St. John's University in Collegeville, MN. This is a Benedictine community, so I'll feel right at home. That is, until winter comes. After 2 years, I will have a Master of Arts in Liturgical Music. A 12 hour drive is quite a commute, so plans are being made at SHJ for accompanists while I am away. My plan is to continue accompanying when I come back for Christmas and summer. My last Mass will be August 18. I leave the next day. It is a joy to be a part of this community. Let us pray for one another.

Sr. Catherine Duenne
