NEDJELJNO RAZMIŠLJANJE

Tko je On?

Slavimo ga danas kao Trojstvo, trojedinoga Boga, jedinstvo triju osoba objavljenih kao Otac, Sin i Duh Sveti. Različiti u djelu, isti u naravi.

Trojstvo u jednostavnosti razumijevanja poziva nas na trojstvo života: Bog — ja — bližnji!

Poziv je to na zajedništvo koje je utemeljeno u ljubavi, zajedništvo koje donosi mir i radost. Dok slavimo ovaj blagdan prihvatimo kršćanstvo u dubini svoga srca živjeti nesebično zajedništvo u svagdašnjem životu prema ljudima nama poslanima, darovanima u našim obiteljima. Po njima dolazimo Ocu, Sinu i Duhu Svetom!

RAZMIŠLJANJA O POVIJESTI

Danas, 30. svibnja, ispunit će se 31 godina slobodnih izbora u Hrvatskoj. U 1990. godine naš narod je izabrao Franja Tuđmana i njegovu stranku. Naš narod je uvidio u svojoj mudrosti i hrabrosti da trenutak je došao da Hrvatski narod bude među slobodnim narodima ovoga svijeta. Iz ljubavi i iz potrebe, narod se trebao mnogo žrtvovati kroz ove 31 godina. Samo sa pomoću Isusa, Marije i Josipa, Hrvatski narod je mogao to prebroditi, i samo sa njihovom pomoću ćemo moći poboljšati život.

Isuse, Marijo i Josipe, molite za nas!

Mladifest 2021. je skoro tu!

Ako ste između 16 i 30 godina stari i ako bi htjeli doživjeti duhovnu katoličku skupinu mladeži, dođite na Mladifest 2021. Mladifest će biti 4. do 6. lipnja ove godine u Chicagu. Javite fra Ivanu ako ste interesirani. Ako roditelji hoće doći, i to je moguće.

IZBORI ZA ‘TRUSTEE’ održat će se na dva vikenda: 12. i 13. lipnja te 19. i 20. lipnja. Svi oni koji su bar 18 godina, aktivni župljani i idu redovito u crkvu mogu se kandidirati za „Trustee”. Tko god želi biti kandidat nek se javi u Župnom Uredu. Zadnji dan za nominiranje kandidata je utorak, prvog lipnja. Možete imenovati sebe ili nekog od drugih župljana.

A nationwide Mass for the homebound is being filmed here in our parish

The "Heart of the Nation" Catholic Mass that you can see Sundays on TV on Milwaukee's Channel 24 at 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. is being filmed in our church. For the past year, people across the U.S. who are homebound due to elderliness, illness, disabilities, or "sheltering from the coronavirus" have been able to see our church. This ministry brings in very able priests from Milwaukee and Chicago to celebrate. We are proud of our beautiful church!

PARISH TRUSTEE ELECTIONS will be held on two weekends: June 12/13 and June 19/20. Anyone who is 18 years of age, a registered parishioner, a practicing Catholic and is active in Sacred Heart Parish, can be a candidate for either of the two Trustee seats. Nominations of candidates need to be given to the Parish Office by June 1. You may nominate yourself.

Archdiocese of Milwaukee and City of Milwaukee are continually opening up:

As of Tuesday, June 1st, the City of Milwaukee will no longer require wearing masks indoors, nor the 6-foot social distancing. Accordingly, on the left side of the church only 2 pews will still be closed off (for our air purifiers). On the right side we will continue to have every other pew closed off. Masks will continue to be available at the entrance.

As of May 20th, the Archdiocese is permitting the use of Holy Water fonts. We will continue to have our automatic Holy Water dispenser, in addition to the fonts.

Big Youth Festival in Chicago this year being organized by Fr Antonio Musa

If you are between 16 and 30 years old and if you desire to experience a spiritual three-day youth festival with other Catholic young people seeking to grow in their faith, please let Fr. Ivan know. If parents want to join us, that is also a possibility. Let us know soon.

We hope that many of our young people will go to this Catholic youth gathering, Mladifest 2021, from Friday, June 4 to Sunday, June 6 in Chicago. (Though the title "Mladifest" is in the Croatian language, most of the talks will be in English.)

'Living the Gift of Sunday' is a booklet produced by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in order to help us truly recover from the trauma experienced during that terrible time last year when it was not possible to attend Mass and receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

For 10 long weeks, including last Easter Sunday, we could not have in-person Masses. And then understandable anxiety about spreading the covid virus caused many to delay returning to the Sacraments, which of course are inherently "in-person."

Now as life opens up more and more, it is a timely kindness of our Archdiocese to teach us in a renewed way through this beautiful booklet about celebrating Sundays together at the Mass. We can take the Mass for granted as cradle Catholics. This booklet can help us overcome apathy and even spiritual blindness about the Mass. Please read and share this booklet with loved ones who can use an encouraging word in these times of trial and tribulation.

MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY MEDITATION

In the Armed Forces, commissioned officers derive their authority directly from a sovereign power. They have command authority because of the commission that they have received. By virtue of their commission they exercise both responsibility for and control of those under their command. "Commission" can refer both to the granting of duties as well as the actual execution of those duties.

The Gospel for this weekend comes from the very end of St. Matthew's Gospel. It is often described as the "Great Commission." After His Resurrection, Jesus gathered His disciples on a mountain in Galilee. He gave them a commission:

they were to go out and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to observe all that He has commanded. "Commanded" — that is the word that Jesus used in this passage from Matthew: to teach what He has commanded. Like a commissioned officer in the Armed Forces, the commission of a follower of Jesus is derived from a sovereign power, except that in this case, it is the ultimate sovereign power - Jesus Christ, true God and true man.

The Gospel command is not limited to eleven Apostles standing on a Galilean hillside almost 2,000 years ago. The Gospels remains in force today. The commission includes us as well. And since this commission is given in the context of Matthew's Gospel, it is important to recall that part of what Jesus commanded was to love our enemies. Matthew's Gospel also contains the reminder that we see Christ in the least of our brothers and sisters: the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the stranger, the ill, the imprisoned. And it is He who commands us to be attentive to them. A commissioned officer is ultimately responsible to the commander-in-chief. In our case, that means that we are ultimately responsible to Christ, the King of kings.
