ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

If you are not able to come together to celebrate Mass and receive communion, please find time to pray and receive Jesus spiritually.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

The Transfiguration of Jesus, celebrated on August 6th

After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.
Peter said to Jesus, "Lord , it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up the three shelters—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
While He was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him!"
When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified. But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up and do not be afraid", He said. When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.
He then instructed them, "Do not tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Father Shaji's Weekly Message

The Bread of Life...

There is story about St. John Vianney. Every day one of his parishioner came to the Church and sat there for long time looking at the Tabernacle. Once St. John Vianney went up to him and asked, "what are you doing?" The parishioner replied simply, "I look at Jesus and Jesus looks at me." The Gospel reading this week is the second of five Sundays on the Sixth Chapter of John, the chapter on the Bread of Life discourse. Last Sunday's Gospel from the beginning of chapter 6 presented the miracle of the loaves and fish.

When the people who had eaten the loaves and fish went looking for Jesus, and they asked, "Rabbi, how did you get here." He didn't answer their question. Instead he addressed the reason why they were looking for him: they were looking for another free meal. He tells them to seek Bread that will last forever, the Bread He will give. People told Jesus "Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat." This we read in our first reading, "Then the Lord said to Moses: I am going to rain down bread from heaven for you (Exodus 16:4)." We read in the Book of Wisdom "Instead of this, you nourished your people with food of angels and furnished them bread from heaven, ready to hand, untoiled for, endowed with all delights and conforming to every taste (Wisdom 16:20)." The wilderness manna was not false bread; it was merely a sign of the imperishable bread, the Eucharist. Manna did not take them to the heavenly reality, but Jesus himself the true bread of life which take us to heaven. The manna, the bread came from heaven, nourished only by the body. Christ gives us his very self as the bread of life that nourishes the soul.

We celebrate the Eucharist and have a deep encounter with Christ at Mass and at the reception of communion. We also have a deep encounter with the Eucharistic Presence of the Lord in our of Eucharistic Adoration. All Catholic Parishes celebrate Eucharistic Adoration in some form or other. All Catholic Churches have times that the Blessed Sacrament is exposed all day for adoration, just as we do here on Fridays.

Eucharist is not just food for our journey, it is also the end of our journey, heaven. How is heaven look like? The heaven, saints, angels, is full communion with God. At every Mass, heaven touches the earth. All saints and angels are present at the Mass. Jesus said to the people, "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent(John 16:29)." We can see only bread, but in the Eucharist Jesus gives himself. Jesus said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

Eucharist is a meal: participation in His Body and Blood, sacrifice: participation Jesus' offering of his body on the Cross and Eucharist is thanksgiving: Jesus gives himself and thanks the Father, and we who receive Jesus in Communion, give thanks to God for His Son.

When we gather to celebrate Eucharist, we are a people gathered in faith. Faith brings trust, which gives us the strength to face the challenges of day to day life to live that faith. We celebrate and proclaim our faith in the Eucharist and take with us share with one another.

Religious Education/RCIA

St. John Vianney, Priest (Patron saint of parish priests)

Also called: Cure' d' Ars, born May 8, 1786; died Aug. 4, 1859, Ars:; canonized May 31, 1925; feast day August 4!

Because of the French Revolution, Vianney received little education. Given the anticlerical sentiment of the Hebertists during the Reign of Terror, he was forced to make his first communion and confession secretly and was impressed by the heroism of the nuns and priests who risked their lives for their faith. He felt called to pursue the priesthood but struggled with Latin and needed private tutoring to supplement his lack of formal education. His studies were interrupted when he was drafted into Napoleon's armies in 1809. Whether deliberately or by serendipity, he was separated from his draft group and ended up in a rural village with a number of army deserters, where he was forced to hide until the decree of amnesty for all deserters in 1810. He was ordained in 1815 and was made assistant priest at Ecully, France. In 1818 he became priest of the small village of Ars, which he made a model parish and from which reports of his holiness and his supernatural powers soon spread. He was known for his devotion to the Virgin Mary and to St. Philomena and was dedicated to the sacrament of reconciliation for his parishioners. From 1824 he suffered attacks that he believed were caused by the Devil, who allegedly on one occasion set fire to Vianney's bed. By 1827 Ars had become a pilgrimage site, and every year from 1845 until Vianney's death, about 20,000 persons visited Ars to see Vianney and especially to make their confession to him. The holy cure' spent as many as 12 or 15 hours daily in his confessional. He was canonized by Pope Pius XI.

Dear God,

I have been busy outside playing in the beautiful weather you have given me to enjoy. I have been riding my bike, swimming with my family, making smore's over the campfire at night when we go camping, and playing ball with my dog.
May I ask you a favor God,? Please don't make the summer days go by so fast. This weekend is Flambeau Rama. I want to enjoy this fun with my friends. Mom says that school is just around the corner. Oh boy, I am not ready yet! Please try to slow the days down for me. I love you. Johnny
