Pastorate 12

OLA * St. Jude * St. Stephen * St. Thomas

For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many,
are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them...

From the desk of Fr. Bart:

Twenty-fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus invites us to radically generous forgiveness, a magnitude of forgiveness far above Peter's guess at what generous forgiveness should be. God's logic is not ours; this is not a transaction that makes sense on human terms. This is one more way that we are called to imitate God, whose mercy is boundless and to whom we owe much more than we are owed. In my experience, forgiveness is a longer process than just forgiving and moving on. Forgiveness is a process of acknowledging the harm, working through the feelings and thoughts that were provoked, and praying for God's help. Who are we called to forgive in the light of this Sunday's Gospel that calls us to forgive seventy-seven times?

Pilgrimage to Holy Land and Greece

This weekend I will be arriving in Tel Aviv, Israel, and riding on our tour bus through Jericho, then finally into Jerusalem. Please know that all of you and all of the intentions of our Pastorate #12 are in my prayers as I make this pilgrimage. I really appreciate Fr. Jim, Fr. Lawrence, Fr. John, and Msgr. Duane who will be doing extra work and helping out while I am gone.

Welcome to OLA Fall Fest!

I am so sorry to miss our Parish Festival at OLA this weekend, I planned my pilgrimage before I learned of my transfer to Beloit/Clinton. I hope everyone has a wonderful time without me! We welcome all friends and guests and parishioners! I pray for the success of the event and thank all of the volunteers and the Festival Committee for all of their good work to help make the Fall Festival the wonderful event it is! On this day, we gain support for our mission and it offers us an opportunity to gather as a parish family and strengthen our community.

Madison Diocese Presbyteral Assembly XLIII

On Sunday, all priests in the diocese will gather at the Chula Vista Resort in the Wisconsin Dells for our Annual Assembly of Priests with Bishop Hying. This year our theme is: Into the Deep: "Pressing Forward to What Lies Ahead." Our featured speakers will be:

- ◆ Our very own Bishop Hying, who will be talking with us about the Into the Deep initiative.
- ◆ The Table Group, the consultants who are helping us during the changes and transitions we are managing.
- ◆ And finally, Justin Bangert, a Christian Counselor who will be speaking to us about the important topic of Mental Health and how we can be better equipped to support our parishioners.

If you need a priest this week, please contact the parish office during business hours.

New Pastorate Bulletin!

Welcome to our new bulletin for our pastorate! I hope that this new format and having only one bulletin will further help us unify and work together, and it should make our communication stronger and easier. Going forward, staff member Berta Ingham Eddy will be the bulletin editor, allowing other staff members to accomplish other tasks. Thank you to all of our bulletin advertisers. I hope we can do what we can to support these businesses, as it's their generosity that makes the bulletins possible.

God's Blessings,

Fr. Bart

Continued Education for All of Pastorate 12

Adult education is an important part of parish life. The phrase "lifelong learner" is key in a changing world. In faith, continued growth is key as well. Renew International has prepared materials for adult faith development for nearly 50 years. Renew began in the Archdiocese of Newark and our Diocese used their materials for "Renew 2000." Renew describes itself as:

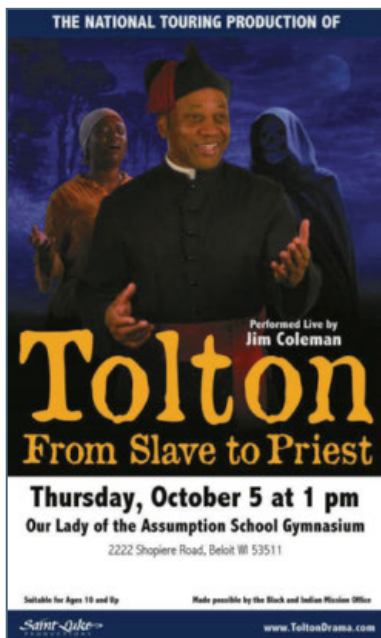

From the beginning, RENEW has been dedicated to revitalizing both personal faith and parish life. We do this by encouraging and supporting the formation of small groups that gather prayerfully to reflect on and share the Word of God, to make better connections between faith and life and to live their faith more concretely in family, work and community life.

Renew has a book for each participant with sessions that contains a scripture passage, a non-biblical reading, questions for reflection and discussion, suggestions for action and a closing prayer. Longing for the Holy is a Renew offering based on the writing of Fr Ron Rolheiser. We will need to order Renew books for each participant at a cost of $17.00.

I would propose meeting on Tuesdays at 10:30 at St Thomas. To allow two weeks for registration, please have registrations in by October 9 with our first session on October 17 at 10:30 at St Thomas. The fee for the book can be paid at the first session.

Fr. Jim

OLA School Hosting Drama, "Tolton: From Slave to Priest," on October 5

Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Church and School in Beloit will be hosting a performance of the dramatic production, "Tolton: From Slave to Priest." The one-man multimedia play will take place on Thursday, October 5, at 1:00 p.m. in the OLA School Gymnasium, 2222 Shopiere Road, Beloit, WI 53511.

"Tolton" is the inspiring, challenging true story of the man who overcame great adversity to become the first African American Catholic priest.

This moving performance is recommended for ages 10 and up – it will be viewed by OLA students in grades 5-8. Please note that, for the sake of authenticity and intensity, harsh language will be used at times.

"In 'Tolton: From Slave to Priest,' teachers might want to prepare their students to hear words, common in the late 1800s yet highly objectionable today, describing people of African heritage," said Saint Luke Productions. "Some of these terms were very offensive and derogatory even then. Bishop Joseph Perry, the postulator for Father Tolton's cause for sainthood, reviewed the script for Tolton and encouraged us not to shy away from the reality of abuse and insults that Father Tolton suffered, but to use the actual language he would have heard."

The public is welcome to attend this performance. There is no fee, but donations will be accepted to help defray the costs of bringing the production to OLA.

Eat To Support OLA 8th Grade! On Thursday, September 28, from 10:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m., Papa John's at 326 Blackhawk Blvd in South Beloit is donating back 15% of sales from Takeout, Delivery, and Pickup orders to the OLA 8th Grade class!

When we go on a trip, we prepare by buying what we need, carefully packing our luggage, and buying our plane ticket. But most of all, we anticipate who and what we will see. The trip's object is in our thoughts and in our hearts. Likewise, we prepare for our trip to St. John the Baptist, both spiritually and practically.
