Divine Mercy Sunday
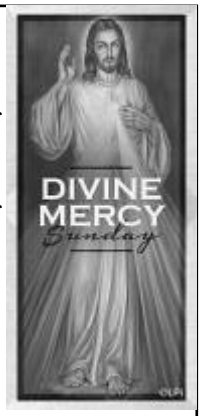
April 11, 2021



These post-resurrection appearances of Jesus are packed with meaning, including parallels with the Mass. First, both appearances occurred on the "first day of the week," which is Sunday, the day we still gather today. Second, the Lord is present with his followers, speaking to them His Word (like in the Liturgy of the Word), offering them peace (like in the Sign of Peace), and showing them His crucified and risen body (like in the Liturgy of the Eucharist). The Apostles' response is worship, as should be ours at Mass. Doubting Thomas needed to see the risen Lord in order to believe. But Jesus said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." As Christians, we must "walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Cor. 5:7). The risen Lord is fully present with us in the Mass through the Eucharist, but it takes the eyes of faith to be able to see Him there. Furthermore, this passage includes the institution of the Sacrament of Confession. Jesus said to the Apostles, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." In doing so, He gave the Apostles the authority to forgive and retain sins in His name. They passed this authority down from Jesus to bishops and priests all the way to today.

Reflect on how well you love God by obeying His commandments. What commandments do you need to work on observing in order to better love God and others? Say this simple prayer multiple times a day to help you grow in faith: "Jesus, I trust in you."

Did You Know???

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter. It is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, which recommended a particular devotion to the Divine Mercy. It also has links to the Bible and the readings of this day.

When was it made part of the Church's calendar?

In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and, during the ceremony, he declared:
"It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called 'Divine Mercy Sunday'".

What is the Divine Mercy image?

The Divine Mercy image is a depiction of Jesus based on a vision that St. Faustina had in 1931. There have been a number of paintings made of this image. The original, though not the most popular one today, is shown below.

A basic explanation of the image is:
Jesus is shown in most versions as raising his right hand in blessing, and pointing with his left hand on his chest from which flow forth two rays: one red and one white (translucent).
The depictions often contains the message "Jesus, I trust in You!" (Polish: Jezu ufam Tobie).
The rays streaming out have symbolic meaning: red for the blood of Jesus (which is the Life of Souls), and pale for the water (which justify souls) (from Diary - 299). The whole image is symbolic of charity, forgiveness and love of God, referred to as the "Fountain of Mercy". According to the diary of St Faustina, the image is based on her 1931 vision of Jesus
