August 22, 2021
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.” We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment. The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God’s kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods. But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It’s a choice we all have to make. ©LPi

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

It is hard to believe but the school children from St. Vincent Pallotti will be returning back to school soon. What better way to start the school year other than new school supplies? Lists of needed supplies are available at every entrance as well as boxes in which to place the supplies. The drive will go through the weekend of September 11. If you have questions, please contact Cathy Healey (414) 412-7940.

Thank you for your generosity,

Did You Know???

FINAL REFLECTION ON Living the Gift of Sunday

Sunday is *Our First Day.

“But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead came also through a human being...The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for “he subjected everything under his feet.” 1 Corinthians 15:20-27

“Sunday is the first day, a day of new life, a day that inspires hope, a day that launches us into a new week and new opportunities to share God’s love. The decision is yours. You can make Sunday the last day of a weekend or truly make Sunday the Lord’s Day, an intentional beginning to a new week abundant in the promise of meaning, purpose and value.”

With all of the commemorations Sunday holds for the faithful, it is also the “first day” in the sense of understanding our mission. We cooperate with Christ and His grace in the salvation of the world. Each Sunday provides us the grace to begin that task anew: to recall and repent our sins, to be fed at the table of Word and Sacrament, and to venture out on the great mission He Himself authorized: “Preach the Gospel to every creature.” Sunday provides us the “spring-board: and the sustenance to carry out that work with the Lord and with His holy Church.”

LIVE IT!

- Failing to plan is planning to fail. How will you order your life so that you live first things first? How are you called to reorient your life to live as if God matters? Consider how you spend your time and your money.
- During the week, think back to the main message from Sunday’s readings and homily. Do you remember it? How are you living it out? What does it inspire you to do differently the rest of the week?
- Sunday sets the tone for the rest of the week. Put the lessons gleaned from Sunday worship (mercy, charity, peace, unity, etc.) into practice at work, at home and in the community.

SACRED SCRIPTURE THROUGH THE WEEK

1. Isaiah 25:9 Let us rejoice and be glad for God has saved us.
2. Isaiah 60:1 The glory of the Lord has dawned upon you.
3. Mark 16:2-6 He has been raised.
4. Romans 13:11-14 Put on the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. 2 Corinthians 5:17 Whoever is in Christ is a new creation.
6. Hebrews 10:25 We should not stay away from the assembly.

Remember, Sunday is a Day of Unity.
