Calendar of EVENTS

“In order to enter the habitation of the Blessed, we must become images of the Crucified. But we can become such only through tribulations.”

-St. Vincent Pallotti

Reflect: According to St. Vincent Pallotti, a person experiences glory only through the cross. No one can think of reaching the state of glory without going through the state of suffering and tribulations. This is very clear from the life of Jesus himself. His suffering and death are preludes to his resurrection. The glory of the resurrection comes about as the consequence of his suffering and death. Therefore, for St. Vincent, in order for a person to become worthy of the glory of God’s kingdom, he must become the image of the crucified Lord Jesus, meaning accepting tribulations and hardship in a person’s life in imitation of Jesus. Jesus encounters sufferings throughout his life. During his public ministry, despite his good will towards the Jewish leadership, they wait for opportunities to find fault with him. Towards the last days of Jesus’ life, he willingly accepts mental agony and physical pain. St. Vincent’s invitation to become the image of the crucified implies that a person is ready to accept joyfully and live courageously the sufferings of the human situation in the spirit with which Jesus accepted his sufferings and lived them. If a person accepts his suffering with the spirit of Jesus, then he would definitely attain the glory, like Jesus.

Thoughts: Do I believe that I can attain glory only through the cross? Do I take time to pray so as to reach out to God’s presence? What is the nature of my spiritual life?

Thank You
