LENTEN NOTE CARDS

During Lent, look for baskets containing blank note cards, with a copy of the Peace Prayer of St. Francis, at the church entrances. We encourage you to take a card and write a note to a family member or friend. Use the Peace Prayer as your guide. As the years pass, things happen; and we drift apart. Use this time of Lent to reconcile and reconnect with those of whom you've lost contact. Send a message of love and consolation. Be a source of hope and light. Contact Cathy Healey 414-412-7940 with any questions.

Spiritual Adoption Program

If you have not spiritually adopted a baby, it's not too late. Stop by the Virtual Adoption display in the back of church. Additional information is added every week. A representative from Human Concerns will be available to answer questions.

Second Sunday of Lent March 13, 2022

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

This Lent, Here's How You Can Help Others:

Toiletries for those in need – St Vincent Pallotti is helping the Capuchin Community collect hygiene bags for those in need at both the House of Peace and St Ben's Community Meal. Take a bag found at each vestibule that has a checklist printed on it and mark the contents. Place your donations in the boxes provided at each vestibule and return no later than April 10th. If you prefer, loose items can also be placed in boxes. Any questions, please call Cathy Healey at 414.412.7940.

Saturday March 26

We will be at Christ King.
(92nd & North)

Morning/opening mass will be at 8:00 with talks, lunch, and fellowship to follow. If you have never been to the conference in the past, this will be an excellent opportunity to "check it out." For those who have been in the past, here is the opportunity to re-kindle that fire of being Men of Christ. For more information and to get on the list of committing to that journey from St. Vincent Pallotti contact Mike Griffin at 414-774-0642.

Did You Know???

How did Lent come to be?

Since the earliest origins of the Church, there's evidence of a period of a Lenten preparation before Easter, according to Catholic Education Resource Center. It all began after Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River, which Matthew 3:13-17 says marked his messianic mission, and he headed to the desert for 40 days. 40 days is a significant number in Jewish-Christian traditions, representing the duration of the Great Flood in the Bible scripture Genesis, Moses's time spent in the wilderness before receiving the Ten Commandments, and the days Hebrews spent in the desert before reaching the Promised Land.

During Jesus' 40-day fasting period in the desert, Christians believe he overcame temptations from Satan and a series of tests, which gave him the power to carry out his mission of preaching, healing, and saving humanity from sin once he returned. There's also historical evidence that "our forefathers" — also known as Jesus' apostles — fasted for 40 days, 24 hours a day, before Easter. In fact, a letter written to Pope St. Victor I from St. Irenaeus in 203 A.D. mentioned the act of fasting for "40 hours" or "40 days, seven hours a day."

It was not until 325 C.E. that Lent was formalized during the First Council of Nicaea. Strict fasting laws allowed for one meal a day, so long as no meat, wine, oil, or dairy products were involved. However, aside from on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, the strict fasting laws of Roman Catholics were renounced during World War II.

How is Lent observed today? Today, Christians around the world still take the 40 days preceding Easter to fast and prepare for the celebration of Jesus' resurrection on Easter Sunday. However, how people fast often differ based on what branch of Christianity they follow. Eastern Orthodox Christians tend to be stricter with their practices, as they continue to avoid wine, oil, and dairy products during the entire Lenten period (as well as during other fasting periods). For Western Christians, only Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are full fast days, although some give up meat every Friday.
