Happy Good Neighbor Festival Weekend!

My thanks as well to Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt for being here last weekend.

This weekend, we celebrate the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The primary reason why we gather is to worship God.

Jesus said of the Pharisees that they honor him with their lips but that there is really nothing in their hearts. Their worship is empty and hollow. This is a danger that we can all face.

One of the worst things that can be said about a person’s worship is that their heart is not in it. It means merely lip service.

Similarly, one of the best things that can be said is that a person’s heart is in it.

In other words, worship comes from the heart.

Today’s Gospel places great emphasis on the heart and we can see why. The heart is the source from which all our thoughts, words and deeds flow.

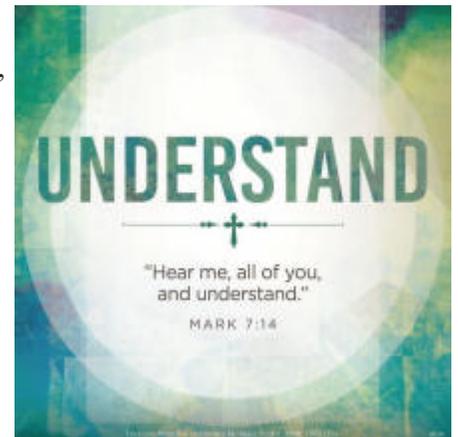

If the heart is clean, then all that flows from it will be clean, like water flowing from a pure spring.

The Pharisees paid more attention to the outside than the inside.

They were more preoccupied with having clean hands than having clean hearts.

It is the heart that matters. But only God can see what is in the heart. And only he can make it into what it should be. Take care of your heart!

Have a blessed week, Fr. Brian

Mission nights with Bishop Hying

Sept. 7, 8 and 15

The three-night mini retreat will focus on the Four Pillars of the Catholic Church – One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic.

It will be an examination of the pillars using the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

“This will be a wonderful opportunity to learn about the foundations of our church and Catholic faith,” said Fr. Brian. “Bishop Hying is a very engaging speaker and teacher.

“These pillars are at the heart of our Catholic being and discipleship. I have no doubt that these will be three evenings well spent.”

Liturgical Life

'Great numbers were added to the believers'

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a way of welcoming new members in the Catholic Church.

You are invited to be a part of the RCIA process if:

- You have no faith tradition or are from other traditions and want to know more about the Catholic faith.
- You are Baptized but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation.
- You are a Catholic who wants to know more about your faith.
- You are a confirmed Catholic, willing to walk with a candidate as a Sponsor.

RCIA inquiry sessions begin in September. There are various days and times available.

If you are interested in joining the RCIA, have any questions or concerns, would like to be a part of our RCIA team or would like to sponsor a new member, please contact Kevin Laufenberg at 831-6531 or kevin@stbmid.org.

Sign up now for liturgical ministries

By virtue of our baptism, each of us is called to minister to the needs of one another.

Getting involved in the liturgy at St. Bernard's can be a rewarding experience, offering you a special bond between yourself and Christ as well as yourself and our parish family.

We rely heavily on the dedication of many men, women, and youth who participate in liturgical ministries here at St. Bernard's including: altar servers; Eucharistic ministers; lectors/commentators and ushers.

We would love to welcome new faces to all of these groups! Please prayerfully consider joining one of these ministries.

For more information, please call Joy Bauman at 829-5880 or email at joy@stbmid.org

One-on-one spiritual guidance now available

Our lives are full, and we rarely take the time to stop and ask big and sometimes overarching questions. Who am I? Why am I here? What is missing from my life? How does my faith lead the life I'm living?

If you find yourself asking these questions, you may want to consider spiritual guidance or direction. This is time for you to meet with a guide, who supports you as you explore where the Holy Spirit is active in your life.

A spiritual guide or director listens deeply with openness and acceptance to your experience.

These one-on-one monthly meetings bring stronger awareness and development of your relationship with God.

If you are interested in spiritual guidance or direction, please contact Kevin Laufenberg at kevin@stbmid.org.

FORMED®

Trust God

When God calls us on a mission, we cannot complete it on our own but must rely on his help. The Israelites did not trust that God would help them successfully secure the Promised Land. Are there obstacles in your life that you try to remove yourself, or do you ask God to help you?

Religious Education

Registration now available for new RE program

Registration is now available for our new religious education, which will be led by parents and supported by the parish and titled, "Family of Faith."

We will ask all families to volunteer in some capacity throughout the year.

More information on volunteering will be available at our first meeting in September.

Family of Faith nights are tentatively scheduled to run from 5:30-7:30 p.m., on Wednesdays. We will begin with an optional meal at 5:30 p.m.

Tentative dates are: Sept. 22, Oct. 6, Nov. 3 and Dec. 1.

Registration is online at www.stbmid.org/familyfaith. For more information, contact Jenna Ripp at jenna@stbmid.org.

Last preschool playdate on Tuesday

Our Lady's Good Helpers (OLGH) Preschool Co-op will host its last informal park playdate at 9:30 a.m., at Westmoreland Park.

This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know some current members, ask any questions you may have about joining OLGH Preschool Co-op, or to just come play and make new friends!

To prepare you for the new school year

Our Lady's Good Helpers Preschool Co-op will be available after all Masses this weekend to answer your questions about their program.

Stewardship

Give it all back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This world view tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings.

Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head.

For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger.

What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery.

Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.— Tracy Earl Welliver, LPI

Faith comes by hearing the word of God

Representatives of Lifeline Audio Video Technologies, Inc., recently installed mock-ups of new speakers in the church. "We are trying to determine how best to replace the speakers in the church as we undertake a sound system upgrade," said Fr. Brian. "What you see are simply cardboard models of what the most up-to-date speakers look like. If you have any feedback, please share it with me."

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

If you plan to move, change your address or leave the parish, please contact the parish office at 831-6531, so we can update our records.

If you cannot hear what is being said during Mass, St. Bernard has several Williams Sound brand hearing assistance receivers available to parishioners. The sound amplifier works through the parish sound system.

Creation Care Corner

Celebrate the Season of Creation

The Season of Creation is a month-long prayerful observance that calls upon Catholics to pray and care for God's Creation. It starts September 1 and ends October 4th. It's a time to reflect on our relationship with the environment, how we live, and how our lifestyles impact the natural world, humans and other creature inhabiting it. This "time for creation" offers, in the words of Pope Francis, "individual believers and communities a fitting opportunity to reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation...".

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us that "we show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of Creation". Pope Francis urges us to recognize our connectedness with the natural world saying, "Nature cannot be regarded as something separate from ourselves or as a mere setting in which we live. We are part of nature, included in it and thus in constant interaction with it." (LS 139). Advocating for Creation Care helps safeguard the inheritance the Creator has given us, ... an inheritance essential to our well-being. Pope Benedict XVI told us that protecting this inheritance is a way of fulfilling our role as stewards of Creation.
