USCCB Daily Bible readings:dailyreadings@usccb.org

As our Christmas season continues, today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

We need to remember that we form part of the family of the People of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus stays behind in the temple. He did not get lost in the temple, but rather he began to find his true identity there as the Son of God.

Happy are we too if we find our true selves, as human beings and as children of God. The Christian family can be a great help to each of us in finding out who we truly are.

Thanks are in order to all who took part in the St. Vincent de Paul Christmas cookie sale. Thanks to our St. Bernard conference for their organizational efforts, to all who donated cookies to be sold and to all who stopped by and made a purchase. THANK YOU!

This year's sale set a record. We are so blessed at St. Bernard's to have such an active SVdP conference. The outreach they do in the community to assist those facing so many needs is such a great example of Christian charity at its finest. Thanks to all.

I have been asked about relief efforts for those suffering from the recent tornadoes in the middle part of the country.

Here is one way for individuals to donate through the Diocese of Madison webpage. Go to madisondiocese.org. Click on "Donate," then select "U.S. and Kentucky Tornado Relief." These donations are managed through the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

After the first of the year, we will take up a collection at Mass for relief efforts as well.

Keep your Christmas joy alive. A Savior has been given us. Rejoice! Have a blessed week, Fr. Brian

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds and light where there is darkness.

Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families."

While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love.

The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth, because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Liturgical Life

Next 'Hour with Jesus' set for Jan. 12

On Jan. 12, "An Hour with Jesus" will be held from 7-8 p.m., in the church here at St. Bernard Parish.

"Spending quiet time with the Lord can be life-changing," said Fr. Brian.

"It can change our hearts and allow the Holy Spirit to ... give us direction in our lives."

Most of these hours of adoration will be held every second Wednesday of the month.

For more information, call the parish office at 831-6531.

We are the church.

In baptism, each of us is joined into the body of Christ and becomes a member of His Church.

We each have a role to play, using our gifts, talents, and interests to strengthen the community and share Christ with the world.

We are "Christians" or "little Christs", so our mission is to know Him and make Him known to those around us, through our actions and our words.

To quote Pope Francis: "All baptized persons are missionaries of the Good News, above all by their lives, their work, and their witness of joy and conviction."

Do others see Christ in the way you act and speak?—

'Life is Messy' book discussion

Need some incentive to read the new book, "Life Is Messy?"

Make a resolution to finish it in January, then come to the Religious Education Center lower level on Feb. 5 from 9-10:30 a.m., to discuss what you read. Mark your calendars!

Prayers for our pastor

Fr. Brian works each day to support us as his flock, so wouldn't it be great to give back by supporting him in his leadership?

We would like to start a Seven Sisters Apostolate in the parish, where seven women (along with a few alternates) would rotate praying a Holy Hour each day for the sole intention of our pastor.

To learn more, go to sevensistersapostolate.org.

For questions or to indicate your interest, contact Laura Angle at laura@stbmid.org or 608-829-5879.

FORMED®

Loving God and neighbor

When asked what the greatest commandment is, Jesus tells us that we are to love God with all our being—heart, soul, and mind. Closely related to the greatest commandment is Jesus's exhortation to love our neighbors as we love ourselves. Examine how you can grow in love with God and your neighbor.

Parish Events

Young Adult News

Young Adult Women's Group: Our young adult women have decided to start a small group in January, reading and discussing a book about Mary. The group plans to meet twice a month on Wednesday evenings.

Young Adult Schedule: All young adults (20s and 30s) are welcome to join our new regular schedule of get togethers. We will meet in the parish library (second floor of the Religious Education Center) every second Thursday and third Wednesday of the month from 6:30-8 p.m., for fellowship and diving deeper into our faith.

We will start the year watching and discussing Chris Stefanick's The Search series. If you can't make it each time, that's ok! Come when you can.

For more information about either group or to be added to the Young Adult Flocknote, please reach out to Laura Angle at laura@stbmidd.org.

Parish distributes Giving tree gifts

Many thanks to all who contributed to the Giving Tree this year.

A large envelope of gift cards was delivered to St. Vincent de Paul in Madison.

Fourteen bags of baby gifts were sent to Elizabeth House, and a large van full of toys and gifts were delivered to our sister parish, St.

Francis of Assisi in Milwaukee. They work with each individual to find just the coat or gift that they need.

Many parents will be able to give their children something special this Christmas. Thank you for your generosity!

Prayer shawl ministry meets on Jan. 12

The prayer shawl ministry hopes to entice more parishioners to share their talents of knitting, crocheting and sewing to make prayer shawls for those in need.

We meet on the second Wednesday of each month. Our next meeting will be held at 10 a.m., Jan. 12 in the library.

The shawls have been very popular, and we would like more people to share in this wonderful ministry. They can be knit, crocheted or sewn.

We attach a small label with our parish name and then another hang tag with a prayer for the user.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Laurie Zimmerman at 608-215-6894 or Sharon Braem at 608-335-9001.

Also if you would like to contribute your items, but cannot attend the meetings, please contact Laurie or Sharon.

Creation Care Corner

Laudato Si' on the Incarnation

In the Encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home, Pope Francis encourages us to be open to awe and wonder when viewing the natural world that God created, in which He was incarnated, and of which we are a part. (Laudato Si', 11)

Further, he reflects, "In the Christian understanding of the world, the destiny of all Creation is bound up with the mystery of Christ, present from the beginning: 'All things have been created through him and for him' (Col 1:16). The prologue of the Gospel of John (1:1-18) reveals Christ's creative work as the Divine Word (Logos). But then, unexpectedly, the prologue goes on to say that this same Word 'became flesh' (John 1:14). One Person of the Trinity entered into the created cosmos, throwing in his lot with it, even to the cross. From the beginning of the world, but particularly through the Incarnation, the mystery of Christ is at work in a hidden manner in the natural world as a whole, without thereby impinging on its autonomy."
