They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

USCCB Daily Bible readings:dailyreadings@usccb.org

As our Christmas season continues, we come to the Epiphany of the Lord.

The Magi were searching for Christ. When they found him they worshiped him and offered him gifts.

Millions have followed in the footsteps of the Magi and come to Christ.

We can count ourselves among those fortunate millions.

There are many practical ways in which the Feast of the Epiphany makes its point. It teaches us that in Christ there is no room for religious elitism.

It may sound like a time-worn truth, but it still bears repeating:

In God’s eyes all are equal. We are not free to build roadblocks of any kind.

Today’s second reading says that we are all co-heirs, co-members and co-partners. We are called to a classless society in a Christian sense of love and openness.

Each Epiphany reminds us that we still have a way to go.

There is a beautiful Epiphany tradition of blessing your homes. Available today is an Epiphany home blessing that can be used with your families

It involves a prayer of blessing and the marking of your entry doors with chalk.

A copy of the blessing, an explanation of what to write on your entry way and blessed chalk are available at the church entrances.

It is a beautiful and old tradition in our faith.

Lastly, I would like to take this opportunity to offer a huge THANK YOU to everyone for your good wishes and generosity that have been extended to me during this Christmas season.

I appreciate all the cards and gifts. It is a privilege for me to be part of this community.

I am so looking forward to 2022 as our building project is completed and as we continue our lives of discipleship and growth in our faith.

Thank you for all that you do to make St. Bernard’s a great community of faith. Blessings, Fr. Brian

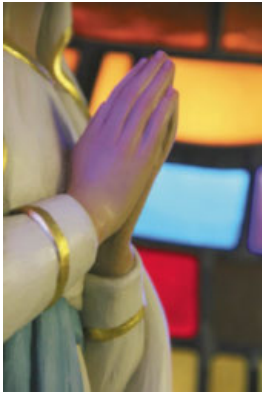

May the Lord’s blessings be with you in 2022 as we journey together in faith.

Liturgical Life

Next 'Hour with Jesus' set for Jan. 12

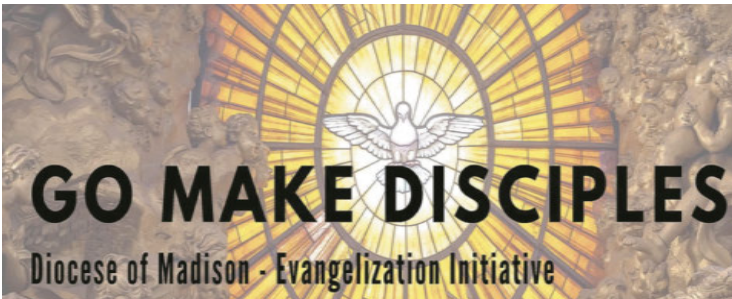

On Jan. 12, "An Hour with Jesus" will be held from 7-8 p.m., in the church here at St. Bernard Parish.

"Spending quiet time with the Lord can be life-changing," said Fr. Brian.

"It can change our hearts and allow the Holy Spirit to ... give us direction in our lives."

Most of these hours of adoration will be held every second Wednesday of the month.

For more information, call the parish office at 831-6531.

"Why did God make you?"

God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in heaven."

I want to reflect on the Baltimore Catechism's simple answer to the question of why we exist as we embark on the new year 2022.

Our existence is hopeful and focused on our relationship with the God who loves us.

We may not be able to change other people or solve the world's big issues, but we CAN change ourselves.

As you look ahead to this year, how can YOU know, love, and serve God better?

Prayers for a hope-filled New Year!—Laura Angle

Prayers for our pastor

Fr. Brian works each day to support us as his flock, so wouldn't it be great to give back by supporting him in his leadership?

We would like to start a Seven Sisters Apostolate in the parish, where seven women (along with a few alternates) would rotate praying a Holy Hour each day for the sole intention of our pastor.

To learn more, go to sevensistersapostolate.org.

For questions or to indicate your interest, contact Laura Angle at laura@stbmid.org or 608-829-5879.

FORMED®

A new David

In the Book of Numbers, Balaam is granted a vision of the messiah. As Balaam says, the messiah is coming as the "star" and "scepter." These symbols are representative of kingship, and they ultimately point to Jesus' reign. Thus, in the New Testament, when the star appears to the magi, the arrival of the true messianic king is signaled!

Religious Education

Confirmation retreat set for Jan. 14-16

Preparation for Confirmation 2022 has begun!

Our retreat is scheduled for Jan. 14-16 at Camp Gray, so any high school student hoping to be confirmed in the fall, please contact Kathleen Teodoro at kathleen@stbmid.org to register ASAP!

Register for Frassati Fest by Jan. 3

Frassati Fest is a weekend youth conference for teens in the Diocese of Madison.

This annual event has been set for Superbowl weekend, so save the date for Feb. 11-13.

Frassati Fest will be held at the Kalahari Resort, so there is plenty of fun to be had in the waterpark, along with inspiring speakers, Mass, Confession, games, great food, an epic dance party, and more.

If we had enough people, we could reserve a house for St. Bernard teens, but the registration deadline is Jan. 3.

Email kathleen@stbmid.org to learn more!

Parish Events

The St. Bernard Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul had a very successful cookie sale in December.

“This is the best we have ever done!” said Mike Spiewak, the conference treasurer.

He thanked Rod Nilles for being the lead organizer of this fundraiser, all the great bakers in our conference and in our parish and everyone who helped with set-up, printed signs and materials, cookies baggers, check out team, and all the people who worked the sale and kept it looking festive! The net proceeds exceeded $2,000.

“God bless our faithful members and the generous and loving parish that is St. Bernard,” said Neal Bickler, the conference president.

All proceeds will help those in need in our community.

Prayer shawl ministry meets on Jan. 12

The prayer shawl ministry hopes to entice more parishioners to share their talents of knitting, crocheting and sewing to make prayer shawls for those in need.

We meet on the second Wednesday of each month. Our next meeting will be held at 10 a.m., Jan. 12 in the library.

The shawls have been very popular, and we would like more people to share in this wonderful ministry. They can be knit, crocheted or sewn.

We attach a small label with our parish name and then another hang tag with a prayer for the user.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Laurie Zimmerman at 608-215-6894 or Sharon Braem at 608-335-9001.

Also if you would like to contribute your items, but cannot attend the meetings, please contact Laurie or Sharon.
