Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.” — Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire.

We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble.

When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes.

Baptism gives us what we need to make well-informed and purposeful decisions.

By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way.

The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about.

Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings.

When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do.

Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God.

He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters.

Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest?

Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism.

Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Liturgical Life

In 2021, a total of 18 children were welcomed into the church through the sacrament of Baptism here at St. Bernard.

They are: Easton Puls, Weston Hurley, Jonah Hickle-Koclanes; Liam Gade; Abigail Woywod; Harper Wilson; Walker Hellenbrand; Mack Houserman; Zachary Arnholz; Piper Lenerz; Aurora Baschnagel; Kendra Kodzode; Karen Kodzode; Keziah Kodzode; Benjamin Juech; Matthew Laws; Elizabeth Ranke and Remy Heck.

If you are expecting or have a new baby, please contact Jenna Ripp to begin the Baptism preparation process at jenna@stbmidd.org.

Next 'Hour with Jesus' set for Wednesday

On Jan. 12, "An Hour with Jesus" will be held from 7-8 p.m., in the church here at St. Bernard Parish.

"Spending quiet time with the Lord can be life-changing," said Fr. Brian.

"It can change our hearts and allow the Holy Spirit to ... give us direction in our lives."

Most of these hours of adoration will be held every second Wednesday of the month.

"How monotonously alike all the great tyrants and conquerors have been; how gloriously different are the saints." – C.S. Lewis

Each of us is called to be a saint in our own way, in the places we are, within our families, workplaces, neighborhoods, and communities.

We are made for the same destination, but we each have our own path to walk.

Our church family is here to help us journey toward holiness and fulfill our unique mission.

So get to know your neighbors and uplift those around you, as you share the journey with them.—Laura Angle

Epiphany and Revelation

John's First Epistle reveals something marvelous about God, namely, that he is love. Reflect on this glorious truth, wonderfully displayed in Christ's life, death and Resurrection!

Religious Education

LBH registration begins Jan. 24

This past summer, over 600 missionaries joined Love Begins Here in service to our neighbors in need, giving 11,300 hours of love to the poor and suffering within the Diocese of Madison.

We give great thanks and praise to God for the revival that took place in the hearts and homes of those who served and those we were able to help.

We look forward to a glorious summer in 2022, welcoming all missionaries back to the traditional format of overnight, weeklong mission trips around the diocese.

If you have middle or high school teens in your family, we would love for you to mark your calendars for Jan. 24, when LBH2022 registration will open.

For more information about our parish group, please contact Kathleen Teodoro at Kathleen@stbmidd.org.

Stewardship

I hope I am like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta.

A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like Him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective.

A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way.

All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history.

He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it.

“One worthier than I is coming,” he insists.

And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?— Tracy Earl Welliver, LPI

Christmas liturgy thank you!

A big thank you to all who helped our Christmas liturgies flow so smoothly - ushers, lectors, commentators, servers and Eucharistic ministers.

We couldn’t do it without you!

And a special thank you to all the singers for sharing their gifts with the parish - our cantors, children’s Christmas choir (a small but awesome group!); the youth choir, featuring a solo by former member Thomas Berthelon-Lathrop; and our adult choir, with a featured solo by Jane Ohmes Mirshak.

The music was a beautiful celebration of the wondrous feast of Christmas and welcoming the Child of Light into our hearts!—Joy Bauman

Parish Events

Prayer shawl ministry meets Wednesday

The prayer shawl ministry hopes to entice more parishioners to share their talents of knitting, crocheting and sewing to make prayer shawls for those in need.

We meet on the second Wednesday of each month. Our next meeting will be held at 10 a.m., Jan. 12 in the library.

The shawls have been very popular, and we would like more people to share in this wonderful ministry. They can be knit, crocheted or sewn.

We attach a small label with our parish name and then another hang tag with a prayer for the user.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Laurie Zimmerman at 608-215-6894 or Sharon Braem at 608-335-9001.

Also if you would like to contribute your items, but cannot attend the meetings, please contact Laurie or Sharon.

Creation Care Corner

"The Church has a responsibility towards Creation and considers it her duty... to protect earth, water And air as gifts of God, the Creator, meant for everyone...."

— Pope Benedict XVI

Pandemic Reflections: Slowing Down

During this pandemic, often our plans have been dashed and our hardships amplified. We've been forced to slow down and simplify our existence at times. What's most important rises to the surface: our spiritual and emotional connection to God, family, friends, community and Creation... and the health of those we love. Pope John Paul II reminds us that in light of Christ's death and resurrection, suffering is no longer an exclusively negative event. "Rather, it is seen as...an opportunity 'to release love..., to transform the whole of civilization...' Salvifici Doloris, #30)". What positive changes and behaviors can we carry forward from this forced slow down? What new insights will we have into what material things we really need in life? How can working together to overcome the COVID-19 variant crisis provide learnings on how to overcome other crises, like the climate crisis?

DEATHS

Our sympathy and prayers are extended to the family of Anna Simon, who passed away on Jan. 2. May God grant her the peace and joy of heaven; and to her family, the consolation of their Catholic faith. May she rest in peace.
