2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

USCCB Daily Bible readings:dailyreadings@usccb.org

This weekend, we return to the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time. Generally speaking, January is not a common month for weddings in this country.

Nevertheless, a wedding is at the center of today's Gospel.

It is at this wedding the Jesus performs his first miracle and really marks the start of his ministry. He changes water into wine at Cana.

All of us are in ministry in one way or another. Ministry may mean giving things (like at Cana), but more often it is about giving of ourselves.

It is really a ministry toward one another in our families and in the wider community. Even our jobs can be seen as ministry, a service.

Yes, there can be frustration, misunderstanding, failure and even powerlessness.

But the only thing we have to fear is indifference. No particular skills are needed.

At the end of the day, it comes down to love.

Simply put, ministry is an expression of love. Jesus is the greatest example.

In ministry what we are doing is what the servants did at Cana. They were just the agents of Jesus.

They drew water that had turned into wine and gave it to the guests.

Ever since, Christ's ministers have been sharing the gifts of Jesus to his Church and to the world.

From his fullness, we continue to both receive and to share.

What gifts that the Holy Spirit gives you can you use to make a transformation in your life? What gifts can you share with others as a minister of Christ's love?

Have a blessed week, Fr. Brian

Liturgical Life

Learn more about the Mass

Does Mass seem boring or hard to understand?

Gain a deeper appreciation for the Mass, its Biblical roots, and the meaning behind symbols and gestures we encounter every week in this upcoming video series, “A Biblical Walk through the Mass” by Dr. Edward Sri, facilitated by parishioner Tom Enwright.

The group will meet in the parish library Thursdays 1-2:15 p.m., Feb. 3 to March 3.

For more information or to sign up, contact Tom at tenwright00@gmail.com.

Need a New Year’s resolution?

How about joining one of our liturgical ministries?

It takes many people to make the liturgy flow well each weekend and the new year would be a great time to volunteer to serve in one of the ministries!

Opportunities are available for lector/commentator, server (fifth grade and up), Eucharistic Minister and usher (high school students and older).

Training is provided.

For more information, contact Joy Bauman at 829-5880 or joy@stbmidd.org.

One moment can change your life: “There’s been an accident.” “Will you marry me?” “The tumor is cancerous.” “I’m pregnant.”

Big life moments can be unexpected or long-awaited, difficult or joyful. They all have something on common: God is with you in them.

Jesus rejoices in your triumphs and empathizes with your struggles, never leaving your side in all of life’s twists and turns.

No matter what you’re going through, He wants to hear about it and experience it with you.

Talk to the One who knows you and loves you. He delights in spending time with you.—Laura Angle

FORMED®

The life of Christ

Jesus is not simply a moral teacher or prophet. He is much more than that—he is the Son of God, in whom true life is found. Jesus, however, does not keep this life to himself, but offers it to us by challenging us to believe.

Will you accept his offer by believing in him through faith?

Religious Education

LBH registration begins Jan. 24

This past summer, over 600 missionaries joined Love Begins Here in service to our neighbors in need, giving 11,300 hours of love to the poor and suffering within the Diocese of Madison.

We give great thanks and praise to God for the revival that took place in the hearts and homes of those who served and those we were able to help.

We look forward to a glorious summer in 2022, welcoming all missionaries back to the traditional format of overnight, weeklong mission trips around the diocese.

If you have middle or high school teens in your family, we would love for you to mark your calendars for Jan. 24, when LBH2022 registration will open.

Contact Kathleen Teodoro at Kathleen@stbmidd.org.

Stewardship

It takes all kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate.

God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so.

The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer.

The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom.

They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears?

Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.— Tracy Earl Welliver, LPI

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION:

Join organizations to generate momentum. Pope Francis urges the world's 1.3 billion Catholics and all people of good will to take urgent action against the injustice of the ecological crisis, to protect the poor and future generations. His encyclical letter Laudato Si' is a compelling call to care for our common home, the Earth, and builds on a long history of Catholic teaching. Joining groups focused on Creation Care can dramatically accelerate progress. Whether it's your parish Creation Care Team, or a national organization, you'll get innovative ideas on how to make a difference. Consider investigating and joining groups like the Laudato Si' Movement, LivingTheChange.net, or the Catholic Climate Covenant. There's power in numbers!
