STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"... whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it is convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it is not convenient; when it is not on our schedule, but on the other person's schedule.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world. Let us pray . . .

God our Father,
 Graciously accept from your humble people
 a thankful heart and spirit.
 Everything we have and are able to share with others
 ultimately comes from your love of your creations.
 Often we think that everything we have
 is our own creation;
 we ask you this day to create in us
 a spirit of gratitude,
 that we may always know
 that all good gifts come from you.

We ask this through Christ our brother,
 in the power of the Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

LITTLE DRUMMER PROJECT

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul works with needy families throughout the year, and during the holidays provides Christmas presents to the children in these families. We are requesting your help once again. This year in lieu of presents, we ask for donations of gift cards to Target, Walmart or Amazon. These cards will then be distributed to the families. Cash donations will be used to buy gift cards from Scrip. You can purchase Scrip cards following Mass on Sunday, November 22. Curbside drop-off is an option or you can call the Parish Office at 246-5124. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

THANKSGIVING OFFICE HOURS

The Parish Office will be closed Wednesday, November 25 and Thursday, November 26 for Thanksgiving. Calls will be taken again on Monday, November 30.

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

In 1932, just as the Great Depression was getting underway, an itinerant philosopher named Peter Maurin found himself in New York City. There he met a young woman, a spiritual seeker and social activist who had just converted to Catholicism. Her name was Dorothy Day.

Together Maurin and Day founded the Catholic Worker Movement, at the heart of which lay a newspaper and several houses of hospitality, places where poor and hungry people could receive a meal or a place to sleep. Their goal was to create a society where it was “easier to be good,” changing modern America from being “a society of go-getters to a society of go-givers.”

How did they go about making this change? By following the practical precepts of the Church, which flow directly from Matthew 25, namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the imprisoned, shelter the homeless, bury the dead, counsel the doubtful, instruct the ignorant, pray for the living and the dead. When these are practiced, they realized, one’s concern for “peace and justice” is no longer an abstraction or a harmless velleity. It becomes real and impactful.

Upon our death we can take no earthly treasures with us. We leave behind our wealth, our power, our social status, our degrees, and our titles. Yet paradoxically, in Maurin’s own words, “What we give to the poor for Christ’s sake is what we carry with us when we die.”

- Bishop Robert Barron

“The way to God lies through love of people. At the Last Judgment, I shall not be asked whether I was successful in my ascetic exercises, nor how many bows and prostrations I made. Instead, I shall be asked, did I feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick and the prisoners. That is all I shall be asked. About every poor, hungry and imprisoned person the Savior says ‘I was hungry, and thirsty, I was sick and in prison.’ To think that he puts an equal sign between himself and anyone in need . . . I always knew it, but now it has somehow penetrated to my sinews. It fills me with awe.”

- Saint Maria Skobotsova, a Russian Orthodox nun in Paris, 1930s

“Every form of fundamentalist intolerance damages relationship between individuals, groups, and peoples. Let us be committed to loving and teaching the value of respect, a love capable of welcoming differences and the priority of the dignity of every human being.” - 11-16-2020

ADVENT BOOKS AND CALENDARS

Bishop Barron’s Word on Fire Advent Gospel Reflections book is in the gathering area. Saint Dennis calendars are available for pick up, too!

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Our Book of Remembrance is in the gathering area. You are invited to recall those loved ones who have died by enrolling their names in this book or you can call the Parish Office at 246-5124 and we will enter the names for you. They will be remembered in the prayers offered by the people of Saint Dennis Parish during November.

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

CARE FOR CREATION

“The justified concern about threats to the environment . . . commits us to work responsibly for the protection of creation.” - Pope Benedict XVI

Be a mindful consumer to reduce waste. Before purchasing, ask yourself how it will impact the environment. Avoid products with excess packaging. Don’t buy what you don’t need. Borrow or rent items that you need only for occasional use. For items you do buy, look for durability. Consider buying second hand clothes and household items from thrift stores, consignment shops and private sellers when it makes sense. Before disposing, donate useful old household items so someone else can reuse them.

Remember the 5 R’s of sustainability:
Refuse, Reduce, Repair, Reuse, Recycle.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

“A noble and delicate soul, even the simplest, but one of delicate sensibilities, see God in everything, finds Him everywhere, and knows how to find Him in even the most hidden things. It finds all things important, it highly appreciates all things; it thanks God for all things; it draws profit for the soul from all things; and gives all glory to God. It places its trust in God and is not confused when the time of ordeals comes. It knows that God is always the best of Fathers and makes little of human opinion. It follows faithfully the faintest breath of the Holy Spirit, it rejoices in this Spiritual Guest and holds on to Him as a child holds on to his mother. Where other souls come to a standstill and fear, this soul passes on without fear or difficulty. (Diary, 148)

THE KINGDOM OF CHRIST

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty. These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment. To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see.

It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It is a more black and white world. But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that does not always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy does not like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to. Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom?

JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What is most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It is almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty, too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?
