A CATHOLIC CHURCH CENTERED ON CHRIST

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“Be doers of the word and not hearers only . . .” - James 1:22

It is easy to understand the definition of stewardship - living a grateful and generous life. The hard part is doing it! How do your actions reflect God’s word? Do you share your time in prayer with God? Do you use your talent to help those in need? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?

Offertory change	$	986
Total	$	6,668

Would you prayerfully consider treating Saint Dennis Parish as one of your children in your will/estate planning?

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

*“Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and Father is this;
to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.” -James 1:27*

The terms “religion” and “religious” are rarely used in the New Testament. To this day many shy away from “religion” and yet readily admit they are “spiritual.” The writer James is concerned with three behaviors considered righteous or religious before God.

The first behavior demands “Keeping a tight rein on the tongue.” He offers the analogy of a bridle and bit as how a rider controls the horse in terms of speed and direction. James notices that such a tiny instrument has an authoritative influence upon the powerful animal. For Saint James, failing to control one’s speech means that one is deceiving oneself about having true religion and this kind of religion is worthless.

The second conduct involves “Looking after widows and orphans.” In the ancient world, widows and orphans were helpless and left to provide for themselves. Caring for the helpless, the poor and widows is not a leftover act of generosity but rather requires an intentional act of putting the needs of others first. How have you looked after “widows and orphans” this past week?

The third test is “To keep oneself from being polluted by the world.” This requires daily monitoring as not to be inundated with the “noise of the media” so much so that we neglect the still voice of God within our heart. Prefer ‘people and nature over devices and displays.’ Develop a daily routine that incorporates solitude and silence.

The School Bell Rings!

We are grateful for the gift and celebration of summer which allows for rest, renewal, and much opportunity for family time together. Yet, all good things come to an end. This past Thursday we welcomed back to school some 260 children, eager to be back together and return to the friendly place of Saint Dennis!

Blessings to all involved in the gift of educating our young children both here at Saint Dennis and all other area schools. Recall the impact of your favorite teachers or heroes from your own childhood and express gratitude to all those who are making a difference in the lives of today’s young people.

Peace, Father Randy

Membership connects you with opportunities to make an impact in your community and gives you access to resources that help you grow deeper in faith and stay informed about the issues Catholics care about. You will also have exclusive access to insurance and financial planning products to help you protect your family. As part of a council, you will be able to serve your parish and community directly with support of a fraternity of brothers who share your faith, your values and your desire to live with purpose. Questions? Call Rick Raulin at (608) 628-0973 or email Rick at rickraulin@aol.com.

“Let us ask the Lord to help us be consistent and to courageously combat anything that can lead us away from the truth and from the faith we profess. Only thus can we truly build unity and fraternity.”

CARE FOR CREATION

Restoring Our Common Home

The theme for the Season of Creation 2021 is “Restoring Our Common Home.”

During this season we are asked to join together to celebrate creation and protect our common home through prayer, reflection and action.

The global Christian family is called to awaken to the urgent need to heal our relationships with creation and with each other and to encourage our parish communities to do the same, “for we know that things can change!” (Laudato Si', 13).

This year we celebrate this season mindful of the fact that our world continues to deal with the Covid-19 pandemic as well as a devastating climate and biodiversity crisis. We look towards two UN Conferences in the Autumn, COP15 (on Biodiversity, due to take place in China) and COP24 (on climate change, Glasgow) in the hope that world leaders take the urgent action that is needed to Restore Our Common Home.

Catholics are urged to sign the “Healthy Planet, Healthy People” petition as a key action for this year’s Season of Creation. This petition has been endorsed by the Vatican Dicastery for Integral Human Development in the hope that millions of Catholics will raise their voices in the public sphere to help Restore Our Common Home in the run up to these vital UN Conferences. (Catholic Adult Formation and Education, Diocese of Fern, Ireland)

For resources on how to celebrate the Season of Creation and mark it in our parishes, see the Irish Bishop’s Conference website: Season of Creation 2021 | Irish Catholic Bishops’ Conference.

GETTING TO THE HEART

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are “doing” everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

GIVE IT ALL BACK

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

MY FRIEND HAS NEVER HEARD OF CHRIST AND I WANT TO SHARE THE GOSPEL WITH HER BUT I'M AFRAID TO. HOW DO I SHARE MY FAITH?

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Albert Einstein said that the “True measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who does not just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That is why people like Saint Francis of Assisi and Saint Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It is risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That is why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.
