STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" - James 2:5

What is more important - being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

*“Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and Father is this;
to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.”
- James 1:27*

“Faith Without Works is Useless.”

Just as faith apart from works is dead, so works apart from faith is dead. If we have right doctrine but fail in right living, our doctrine is useless. So too, if we are careful about life but careless about doctrine that will not benefit us either for, we will grow weary in our labors.

James insists we are all dependent upon God for every gift of life and life itself. Yet, we often only become more aware of our dependence upon God when times are difficult, when a loved one is sick, or a tragedy strikes our family our community. In the midst of the unexpected we become more aware of our dependence upon God.

Grow in your awareness of your dependence upon God for your very being and life itself. The gift of our awareness of our dependence upon God keeps us in humble solidarity with the poor and compels us to act generously and freely.

Spend time with the letter of James. It is practical and so concerned with the motivation of our behavior. This weekend’s reading is specifically concerned and cautious when our care for others often is motivated by what they will do for us. Recognize that you have a greater need to care for others than they have need of your gift! Recall that faith without works is like a screen door on a submarine!!

The Discipline of Gratitude

Gratitude . . . goes beyond the “mine” and “thine” and claims the truth that all of life is a pure gift. In the past I always thought of gratitude as a spontaneous response to the awareness of gifts received, but now I realize that gratitude can also be lived as a discipline. The discipline of gratitude is the explicit effort to acknowledge that all I am and have is given to me as a gift of love, a gift to be celebrated with joy. - Henri J.M. Nouwen

Peace, Father Randy

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED MONDAY

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, September 6. Phones will be answered Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Though the office is locked Scrip can be purchased during that time. Just ring our door bell. Have a safe and happy Labor Day.

“What is the secret of a blessed life, a happy life? Recognizing Jesus as the living God. For it is not important to know that Jesus was great in history, what matters is the place I give him in my life.”

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for those who wish to know more about the Catholic faith and perhaps become members of the Catholic Church. Inquiry sessions of this process will begin soon. If you or someone you know is interested, contact Dewayne Kennedy-Parker at 241-8732 or email at dkennedyparker@gmail.com.

CARE FOR CREATION

“Due to an ill-considered exploitation of nature, humanity runs the risk of . . . becoming in turn a victim of this degradation.” - Pope Paul VI

Reduce Food Waste During the Season of Creation

The Season of Creation is a time to reflect on our relationship with the environment, how we live, and how our lifestyles impact the natural world: humans and other creatures inhabiting it. Christians are called to treat food like all of God's gifts: with respect and gratitude, and to avoid overindulgence and waste. Food waste is particularly problematic because in landfills the waste decomposes and generates methane a potent climate warming greenhouse gas.

Reducing food waste can save you significant money. The average U.S. family wastes $1,600 of food each year. Use shopping lists to avoid duplicate purchases and keep less food on hand. The “Best If Used By” dates on packages are not necessarily expiration dates. However, “Use By” dates signify expiration dates, when a product will be of best quality or flavor.

If you have any questions about how you can participate in the Season of Creation, send them to the Care for Creation team at careforcreation@stdennisparish.org.

JOIN A SMALL GROUP

Small Faith Sharing Groups Are Here for You!

“Faith grows in circles, not in pews,” a wise pastor at Saint Dennis has been known to say. But what does that mean? It means that Sunday Masses (in pews) are our worship, and small groups (in circles) are soil where the seeds of worship are watered, fertilized, and allowed to grow. Joining a small group does not have prerequisites. You do not need anything but an open mind and heart, and a willingness to take a small risk and show up. Faith shared is faith strengthened.

What Can I Expect?

- Gather with a group in person or online for about 90 minutes.
- Open God’s Word together to read, reflect, and apply it to our lives.
- Attend one session to see how it works before jumping in.
- Groups begin the third week in September.
- Sign up cards are available at the weekend Masses on September 11 and 12 or sign up on our website.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

“The essence of the virtues is the will of God. He who does the will of God faithfully, practices all the virtues.” (Diary, 678)

RECONCILIATION

Saturday from 8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. and 30 minutes prior to the 4:00 p.m., 9:00 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Mass or by appointment.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION AT THE MARY MORNING STAR CHAPEL

The Sisters of Mary Morning Star Chapel, at the Sisters’ convent , 4905 Schofield Street, Monona, will officially open on Sunday, September 12 with an inaugural Mass at 1:30 p.m. in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church with Bishop Hying as the president. Mass will be followed by a Eucharistic procession towards the chapel, concluding with Benediction. An outdoor reception will complete the afternoon with light refreshments. This will be a wonderful opportunity to meet those who have signed up to be adorers as well as the Sisters who have worked very hard to make their chapel a reality.

There are still several openings to fill in the schedule. The goal is to have two adorers per hour, including filling the Sunday openings. To sign up to be a weekly adorer or a substitute adorer go to: adorationpro.org/marymorningstar.

Contact us at smmsadorationsignup@gmail.com for more information about the weekly commitment or if you need assistance signing up. To learn more about the chapel and the Sisters go to: www.marymorningstarchapelwi.com.

Consider living beneath your means. Many people in the world do not have a choice. Even if you are still collecting necessities for your household, is there one thing that you can give away this week? You will be richer for it.

BE STRONG! FEAR NOT!

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. We face brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. For no apparent reason, life can quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar is gone and something we relied upon is taken away. We are left sitting with our incompleteness and swimming in the pools of our sadness. Be strong! Fear not! These admonitions flow from the mouths of prophets and are echoed by Jesus. It is difficult to trust that restoration, healing, and rejuvenation will one day come, and remain steadfast in our faith. But we are here because of a God who loves us, not as the result of a random occurrence. When we reach for that truth about who we are and who God is, life changes for us. We are healed from our old distorted way of seeing things. Our eyes, heart, and soul are opened to the beauty and magnificence of life. The pulse of our loving Creator is felt in all things and we can not wait for God to come and touch us again. God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. He has done all things well.

AS WE CELEBRATE LABOR DAY, CAN YOU TELL ME ABOUT CATHOLIC TEACHING REGARDING LABOR?

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work.

In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, "The value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person."

Labor Day offers an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are “supposed” to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it is really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, “be opened!” Be healed and allow your stories to change.
