STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

*"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name."
 - Genesis 2:19*

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it is not something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

RESPECT LIFE

This weekend, October 2 and 3, the Respect Life Collection will be conducted in our parish. Envelopes are included in your envelope packets. Your help in supporting this collection is critical. Brochures and extra envelopes are in the gathering area. Consider how you can make a difference! Pope Francis has said that respect for life is not just about the unborn child in the womb, but also about the least of our brothers and sisters. Yes, it is even upon the undocumented resident alien who has no voice but ours. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are all called to protect the voiceless.

KC'S MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

This weekend Saturday, October 2 and Sunday, October 3, the Knights of Columbus at Saint Dennis Parish are having a Membership Drive. We will be handing out Prayer for the Family cards to be recited at the end of Mass. The Knights will invite Catholic men from the parish to consider becoming a member of the Knights of Columbus. Those who sign up for information, or who choose to join us, will be entered into a drawing for a $50 gift card thru the Saint Dennis Home and School's Scrip program. There is no obligation to join to receive the gift card. Joining now also means a free year because of an Incentive program that expires December 31.

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

"This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two become one flesh."

- Genesis 2:23-24

Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York offered a keynote address at the Knights of Columbus Supreme Convention held in Anaheim, CA in 2012. Some general teachings that I pass along considering our readings at Mass this weekend on marriage:

- We understand the love between a husband and a wife has the same characteristics as the love that God has for us. It is faithful; it is forever and it is fruitful in that it brings about new life in children.
- We believe that when a man and woman vow that they will love and honor each other "for better or worse, in sickness and in health, for richer or poorer, until death do us part," they really do mean it.
- We hold fast to the teaching of the Bible that God so esteems marriage that he compared his personal, passionate, eternal love for Israel to that between a husband and a wife. Saint Paul likewise tells that the love of Jesus for us, his Church, is just like that of a groom for his bride. (cf. Eph 5)
- Government exists not to invent, define, grant or impede genuine freedom-the "first and most cherished" being freedom of religion-but to protect liberties that come not from any human whim but from the Creator. A government that presumes to redefine marriage is perilously close to considering not God, but itself, as "the Almighty."
- The most effective guarantee of a civilization of love, rather than the survival of the fittest; the culture of life over the culture of death; the law of the gift rather than the law of the "get"; and solidarity rather than selfishness, is precisely traditional marriage and family.
- Defend, promote and strengthen the very relationship between one man and one woman, united in lifelong, life-giving, faithful love, that dates back to the Garden of Eden itself.

Marriage Encounter

We are here because you have a good marriage and you want a great marriage. Marriage Encounter is a weekend experience for any couple - whether you are running the kids to soccer practice or enjoying your empty nest. It is not a retreat or a seminar, and there is no circle time or sharing - just you, your spouse, and a better marriage. An upcoming Marriage Encounter weekend is available in Milwaukee the weekend of November 5. Visit <https://agme.org/>.

Retrouvaille Program

For better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and health, until death do us part are words many couples say, but over time the silver is tarnished - perhaps very tarnished.

There is hope, there can be a new beginning. Retrouvaille helps couples experiencing difficulty at all levels of distress from disillusionment to deep misery. Visit www.helpourmarriage.com.

An upcoming weekend is available in Green Bay on November 5. Your confidentiality is always respected.

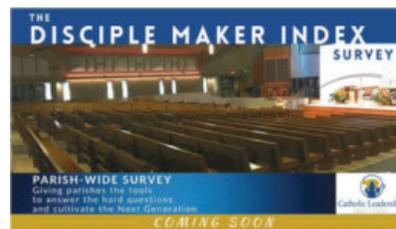

"The response of faith demands that we be active in our love for God and in our love of neighbor."

Disciple Maker Index Survey

The Diocese of Madison has received a grant through Catholic Leadership Initiative. The "Disciple Maker Index" is an online survey tool (paper copies will be made available) to help pastors and leadership teams of a parish to gather data in regards to parish life, discipleship and our parishioners engagement with their Catholic faith. The survey goes "live" on October 14. I am eager to get a pulse of our "parish profile."

Peace, Father Randy

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

"If one does not know what is better, one must reflect, consider and seek advice, because one must not act with an uncertain conscience. When uncertain, say to yourself: 'Whatever I do will be good. I have the intention of doing good.' The Lord God accepts what we consider good, and the Lord God also accepts and considers it as good. One should not worry if, after some time, one sees that these things are not good. God looks at the intention with which we begin and will reward us accordingly. This is a principle which we ought to follow." (Diary, 800)

CARE FOR CREATION

"... The world we have received also belongs to those who will follow us."

- Pope Francis

Act to reduce paper waste during the Season of Creation. The Season of Creation is September 1 - October 4. It is a time to reflect on our relationship with the environment, how we live, and how our lifestyles impact the natural world, humans and other creatures inhabiting it.

40% of the world's commercially cut timber is used for paper. This endangers natural habitats and depletes water resources. Since it is inexpensive to print, we do it without thinking. Try to go paperless: think about what you print, your bank statements, the paper towels you use, the junk mail you could opt out of. There are many areas where each of us can help to lessen paper production. Paper is recyclable. Recycle paper at home and office, and buy recycled paper products.

If you have any questions about how you can participate in the Season of Creation, send them to the Care for Creation team at careforcreation@stdennisparish.org.

DIVINE INTIMACY

"What God has joined together." We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God's power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed.

THE CHURCH'S VIGILANCE ON ABUSE CONTINUES

Any allegation of sexual abuse should be brought to the attention of law enforcement officials. If an allegation involves a priest, deacon, or other Church personnel, regardless of when it is said to have occurred, it should also be reported to the Diocese of Madison, by way of the Sexual Misconduct Question and reporting line, (608) 821-3162. The diocesan policies regarding sexual abuse allegations, and instructions for making a report of sexual misconduct, are available on the diocesan website.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God." Apart from the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ, nothing speaks better of God's incarnate love than marriage. God designed it this way. We place great value on love and rightly so. What we fail to realize, however, is that love, its very presence and place in our lives, is not simply part of the human package deal. Love comes from God. It is one of God's greatest gifts to human beings. When we begin to realize that our very ability to love is sacred, it changes up how we see the essence of life, and purpose and sanctity of marriage.

God is love. It stands to reason then that if we follow the path of unconditional, self-emptying love we will then stumble upon God. It is precisely this intimate wedding of God with love that gives such eloquence and honor to the love between husband and wife. As a living sign of Christ's love for the Church and for humanity, husbands and wives speak volumes of God's unconditional incarnate love for all of his children! The Divine power that brings unity and life to marriage is so strong that once joined, it really cannot be separated.

Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. God's perfect divinity always meets our broken and imperfect humanity. God is okay with this setup as he created it this way. Our loving is never as unconditional as God's and often tainted by our own imperfections, needs, memories, hurts, sinfulness, and weakness. All of this baggage negatively impacts even the most well-intentioned marriages, causing them to be hurtful and empty. We are love works in progress. God can succeed in perfecting our love only if we keep our eyes fixed on him as the source of that love. That's why marriage is always about three and not just two.

The Divine intimacy at the heart of marriage is what can make them celebrations of great union and happiness. Couples who are still madly in love with each other after many years, still looking at each other with that timeless twinkle in their eyes, best tell the story of God's oneness with humanity. Honor, celebrate, and support those who have accepted a vocation to marriage. Living in a world that easily pulls relationships apart, may they find hope and inspiration from their faith companions who are on the same journey!
