Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

"Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
- Mark 10:17

What the Rich Young Man May Have Thought Later On

Who am I? Where do I come from? Where am I going? I am nothing. Everything I possess, my being, life, understanding, will and memory-all were given me by God, so all belong to him.

Twenty short years ago, all that I see around me was already here. Everything was proceeding in its appointed way under the watchful eyes of divine providence. And I? I was not here. Everything was being done without me, nobody was thinking of me, nobody could imagine me, even in dreams, because I did not exist. And you, O God, with a wonderful gesture of love, you who are from the beginning and before all time, you drew me forth from my nothingness, you gave me being, life, a soul, in fact all the faculties of my body and spirit; you opened my eyes to this light which sheds its radiance around me, you created me.

So you are my Master and I am your creature. I am nothing without you, and through you I am all that I am. I can do nothing without you; indeed, if at every moment you did not support me I should slip back whence I came, into nothingness. - Saint John XXIII (†1963) reigned as pope 1958 - 1963.

"Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword . . ." - Hebrews 4:12

The 1% Challenge

Each day there are 1,440 minutes. Commit to giving 1% or roughly 15 minutes a day to growing in friendship with Jesus. Just as we make time to feed our bodies each day so too must we feed our souls and the staple diet is the scriptures. Remember that until you are convinced that prayer is the best use of your time, you will never find time to pray.

Perhaps begin with the gospel of Mark. Create a time, place and space in your daily routine for reading the scriptures. Before you begin your quiet time invite the Holy Spirit to be with you and to seek the gift of the wisdom of God for your life. Read a short selection of the scriptures and follow the ancient practice of 'prayerful reading.'

The Four Steps of Lectio Divina or Prayerful Reading

1. Lectio: Read a Scripture passage aloud slowly. Notice what phrase captures your attention and be attentive to its meaning. Silent pause.
2. Meditatio: Read the passage aloud slowly again, reflecting on the passage, allowing God to speak to you through it. Silent pause.
3. Oratio: Read it aloud slowly a third time, allowing it to be your prayer or response to God's gift of insight to you. Silent pause.
4. Contemplatio: Read it aloud slowly a fourth time, now resting in God's word.

"We must train people to read and meditate on the Word of God: this must become their staple diet, so that, through their own experience the faithful will see the words of Jesus are spirit and life."

- Benedict XVI.

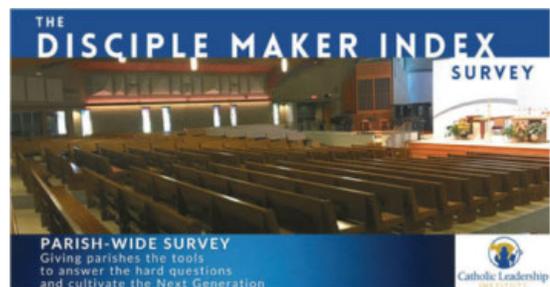

Disciple Maker Index Survey

The Diocese of Madison has received a grant through Catholic Leadership Initiative. The "Disciple Maker Index" is an online survey tool (paper copies will be made available) to help pastors and leadership teams of a parish to gather data in regards to parish life, discipleship and our parishioners engagement with their Catholic faith. The survey goes "live" on October 14. I am eager to get a pulse of our "parish profile."

"Freedom makes free to the extent to which it transforms a person's life and directs it toward the good."

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA

"There is nothing more calming in difficult moments that knowing there is someone fighting with you."

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Saint Vincent de Paul-Madison is seeking 8-10 vaccinated volunteers to help with our outdoor, contactless drive through food pantry! We need volunteers who are able to lift 20-30 pounds and carry items to vehicles. This also requires the ability to bend, lift and place bags and boxes of food into trunks and backseats of vehicles. We are asking for a commitment of one 2-hour shift per week on a recurring, weekly basis through March 2022. Shift times are Monday, Tuesday and Friday: 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., 12:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. and Thursday: 2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The pantry is located at 2033 Fish Hatchery Rd., Madison, about half mile north of the beltline.

If you are physically up to the task, available during the times listed and want to help our neighbors in need, or want more information, please email Jennifer at jtroia@svdpmadison.org.

BUCKY BOOKS

Bucky Books are for sale in the Parish Office from 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Monday - Thursday. Sale of the books help support parish Faith Formation programs. Cost is $35. Thank you.

FALL BUNDLE SUNDAY

This weekend the Saint Vincent de Paul Conference at Saint Dennis will be handing out bags on Saturday, October 9 and Sunday, October 10 for our "Bundle Sunday" project. We ask that you take a bag - or more - home to fill. Return the bags the weekend of Saturday, October 16 and Sunday, October 17 when the Saint Vincent de Paul truck will be in the parking lot. Volunteers will be at the truck to help load your bags. All donated items help fill the stores, and the profits from their sales support the many projects for those in need. Thanks for your donations.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWAALSKA

"O Jesus, You know that there are times when I have neither lofty thoughts nor a soaring spirit. I bear with myself patiently and admit that that is just what I am because all that is beautiful is a grace from God. And so I humble myself profoundly and cry out for Your help; and the grace of visitation is not slow in coming to the humble heart." (Diary, 1734)

ARE WE TRULY IN LOVE

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love does not operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

CARE FOR CREATION

Triune Lord,
wondrous community of infinite love,
teach us to contemplate you
in the beauty of the universe,
for all things speak of you.
Awaken our praise and thankfulness
for every being that you have made.
Give us the grace to feel profoundly joined to everything that is.

God of love, show us our place in this world
as channels of your love
for all the creatures of this earth,
for not one of them is forgotten in your sight.
Enlighten those who possess power and money
that they may avoid the sin of indifference,
that they may love the common good,
advance the weak, and care for this world in which we live.

The poor and the earth are crying out.
O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
help us to protect all life,
to prepare for a better future,
for the coming of your Kingdom
of justice, peace, love and beauty.

Praise be to you!
Amen.

SAINT TERESA OF ÁVILA

Feast Day October 15

Saint Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, Saint Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers. Saint Teresa of Avila died on October 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: Saint Ignatius Loyola, Saint Francis Xavier, and Saint Philip Neri.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. Saint Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.
