A CATHOLIC CHURCH CENTERED ON CHRIST

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." - Luke 1:44

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, do not blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Or, do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

There is something sacred about sun when it dances upon a field of newly iced snow. Lights and colors bounce around in myriad ways flashing prisms of beauty as if in tune with the rhythm of a melodic dance. The Word became flesh and now dwells among us. Humanity can now dance. We sparkle with the beauty and radiance of God and can now walk through life with confidence knowing that we have been divinely kissed. It is a sacred moment, a holy marriage between God and His sons and daughters. All is bright and all is well. Today we celebrate who we are in Christ and rest safely in God's care. God's presence, revealed in the humble birth of His Son, dances in our hearts, calling us to beauty, truth, purpose, and love. Today we know, without doubt, that we are not the product of the rambling offerings of a universe that created itself. We are loved, treasured, and blessed. We have a Savior who can show us the way. Accept him.

SAINT STEPHEN

Feast Day December 26

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of Saint Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin. Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, Saint Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, Saint Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

FATHER RANDY WRITES . . .

*“Put on, as God’s chosen ones,
holy and beloved,
heartfelt compassion, kindness,
humility, gentleness, and patience. . .”*
- Colossians 3:12-13

As the feast of the Holy Family arrives we receive instructions for the lived response of faith. Saint Paul instructs us

“Put on as God’s chosen holy and beloved.”

Remember who you are first and then dress appropriately.

Chosen is who you are by the Maker of the Universe, the one who created the heavens and the earth chose you to reflect His glory.

Holy is to be set apart, to be set apart for the glory of God. Just as God called Abraham and Sarah and set them apart and later the nation Israel, so God has called you to be holy. To be holy is to be about living, serving, witnessing, dedicating your family, your finances and your future to the work of God.

Beloved is who you are, this is not about your earning God’s special status of love nor is it about being “good enough” to be in the top 10 of God’s beloved. Rather, it entails being embraced by the truth of “God loves you not because you are good, but because God loves you, you are good.”

As we come to remember whose we are and the promises that await us, then we “dress accordingly.”

“Do not end any day without asking each other for forgiveness, having peace back in your house and your family. Never end a single day without being at peace with each other. This is the secret in order to preserve love.”
- Pope Francis

Peace, Father Randy

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

“I said to [the Infant Jesus in my arms,] ‘I know that You are my Lord and Creator even though You are so tiny.’ Jesus stretched His little arms out to me and looked at me with a smile. My spirit was filled with incomparable joy.” (Diary, 609)

OUR HOLY FAMILY

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today’s Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE AT SAINT DENNIS

- Single mother 8 months pregnant with two other small children had a fire in their apartment. Unable to work due to fire loss and reestablishing a new apartment. She was helped with new furniture and two months' rent through multiple sources.
- Single male living in car working part-time. He needed his car repaired so he could continue to go to work. He was helped with car repair.
- Single mom with school age children trying to work full-time but struggles paying for childcare. She was helped with a childcare bill.

The Saint Dennis Saint Vincent de Paul Conference has recently come to the end of its fiscal year. Although the pandemic has altered the way those in need are visited, our Conference continues to engage with our neighbors by sharing in their story and helping in many small ways. This past year the number of requests for assistance have been down but the requests were for larger amounts. The generosity of Saint Dennis Parish allowed the Conference to help people more fully with diverse needs and in greater amounts.

This past year 139 visits were made assisting 401 people. The Conference donated 1018 hours of service.

Continue to pray for those affected by COVID, our ministry, and whether God is calling you to go to serve the poor? Saint Vincent de Paul said, "To serve the poor is to go to God." and "There will be two of you for this work, our Lord and you, and with Him you can do all things." Take the first step to join us and contact Saint Dennis Saint Vincent de Paul: svdpstdennis@gmail.com or call 608-561-1853.

THE POPE'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION FOR JANUARY 2022

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

CARE FOR CREATION

"All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the Care of Creation."

- Pope Francis

Reducing air travel can dramatically reduce your household carbon emissions. Air travel accounts for 12% of all U.S. transportation greenhouse gas emissions that warm the planet. Driving may be a better environmental option on shorter trips. Driving high mileage cars with additional passengers is almost always a better environmental option.

When flying, non-stop coach flights are the best alternative. If you must fly, consider purchasing carbon offsets from a reputable third-party certified company like Sustainable Travel International. Purchasing offsets invests in projects that remove some of the planet-warming carbon dioxide out of the atmosphere. Easy to use calculators help you calculate a price to compensate for your travel footprint, so you can purchase credits equivalent to the amount of emissions you were responsible for.

If you have any questions about how you can participate in Care for Creation, contact us at careforcreation@stdennisparish.org.

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Have you and your spouse been consumed with the busyness that often comes with this time of year? Find a moment to reconnect as a couple and enjoy each other's company.
