

WELCOME TO THE PARISH OF
GOOD SHEPHERD

BIENVENIDOS A LA PARROQUIA DE
EL BUEN
PASTOR

Madison, Wisconsin

April 28, 2019
2nd Sunday of Easter

28 Abril, 2019
2º Domingo de Pascua

Good Shepherd Parish Prayer

The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart.

And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor

Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con todo su corazón.

Cycles of Faith

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today's Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name."

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God's voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

Luego le dijo a Tomás: "Aquí están mis manos; tocate tu dedo. Trae acá tu mano, métela en mi costado y no sigas dudando, sino cree". Tomás respondió: "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!"

April 28—Eucharist

Our final mass passport symbol of the year is an image of the Eucharist itself. At the last supper Jesus chose to give us the amazing gift of his body and blood in the form of bread and wine. Just as food nourished our body, the Eucharist nourished our soul. At mass bread and wine which has been made by human hands is offered up by the priest and changed through the Holy Spirit into Jesus' very body and blood. For nearly 2000 years the church has professed belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Next weekend we will have over 70 students make their first Eucharist on Saturday and Sunday. Please pray that all our first communicants recognize what an amazing gift they are receiving and if you are making your first communion, say a special prayer to God thanking Him!

Confirmation Question: How do we know Jesus is real?

Form a historical perspective, no serious scholar doubts that Jesus existed. The theory that Jesus never existed pops up now and again in the news, but this theory has been rejected and refuted by the vast majority of biblical scholars and historians. There is no doubt that a man from the town of Nazareth by the name of Jesus lived about 2000 years ago, was baptized by a man named John, gathered a group of disciples about Himself, had a reputation as a great teacher and miracle worker, and was eventually crucified by the Roman authorities. Moreover, after His crucifixion, Jesus' followers proclaimed that God raised Jesus from the dead and Jesus was the messiah who was promised to the Jewish people. Those are the historical facts. So in the historical sense, we know Jesus was real, but the more important question is how do we know Jesus is really God? This is not a question any historian can answer because it is a question of faith. There are good rational arguments for the divinity of Jesus based on what Jesus taught and did during His lifetime, as well as even more from that way the apostles were transformed after the resurrection from a cowering group of bungling disciples to men who risked their lives to boldly proclaimed Jesus of Nazareth to the world. But the best what to know that Jesus is real is through experience. Jesus loves us more than we can understand. If we work on building a relationship with Him our efforts will be blessed. Our personal encounter with the Lord will be stronger evidence than any rational argument we can come up with. This is not an easy task to undertake, but with perseverance and determination we can encounter the love of God in unimaginable ways. See your YOUcat §86-107 for

Spring Into Good Nutrition!

Author Michael Pollan's lean quote states, "Eat food, not too much, mostly plants."

"Eat food" means to eat real food -- vegetables, fruits, whole grains, and, yes, fish and meat and nuts. Other suggestions he has:

1. Don't eat anything with more than five ingredients, or ingredients you can't pronounce.
2. Don't buy food where you buy your gasoline. In the U.S., 20% of food is eaten in the car.
2. Don't eat anything your great grandmother wouldn't recognize as food. "When you pick up that box of portable yogurt tubes or granola bars, or eat something with 15 ingredients you can't pronounce, ask yourself, "What are those things doing there?" Is this food? Or a food like substance?

These ideas are just a start. Talk to your health care provider, nurse, or friend to discuss healthy eating choices. "You are what you eat", this is your positive choice for your healthy lifestyle. Make the change today!!

PRAYING THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Begin with the Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Apostles Creed. Using regular rosary beads, work your way around the five decades with the prayers below.

On the standalone beads, pray: "Eternal Father, I offer you the body, blood, soul, and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."

On the decade beads, pray: "For the sake of his sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

At the end, pray the following three times: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

It is typical to conclude the Divine Mercy Chaplet with the words: "Jesus, I trust in you."

2° Domingo de Pascua

28 de Abril del 2019, Año C

El punto clave en este segundo domingo de Pascua llamado también de la Divina Misericordia, es que la Resurrección del Señor hace la diferencia en el mundo. El pecado es perdonado, la duda se aclara con la presencia del resucitado. El apóstol Tomás exclama lleno de arrepentimiento y gozo: "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!". La respuesta de Jesús nos llena de esperanza a todos los cristianos de todos los tiempos: "Tú crees porque me has visto; dichosos los que creen sin haber visto" (Juan 20:28-29). Lo que le paso a Tomás nos pasa a todos. Hay que proclamar al Señor como nuestro Dios, como el centro del corazón.

Hoy es el día de poner en práctica lo que escuchamos del Evangelio, lo que vemos alrededor nuestro, lo que sentimos y lo que creemos. Dar alcance con nuestro amor al necesitado. Los hechos cuentan tanto como las palabras y el acompañamiento. Jesús nunca nos ha dejado solos. Este domingo de la misericordia es para que nos transformemos en esa compasión de Cristo para los demás. El papa San Juan Pablo II nos dejó un legado de esperanza. Su mensaje aún resuena en el mundo:

Tanto los creyentes como los no creyentes pueden admirar en el Cristo humillado y sufriente una solidaridad sorprendente, que lo une a nuestra condición humana más allá de cualquier medida imaginable. La cruz, incluso después de la resurrección del Hijo de Dios, "habla y no cesa nunca de decir que Dios-Padre es absolutamente fiel a su eterno amor por el hombre. (...) Creer en ese amor significa creer en la misericordia. (Dives in misericordia, 7).

Pasaporte de Misas

Eucaristía: Nuestro último símbolo de pasaporte masivo del año es una imagen de la propia Eucaristía. En la última cena, Jesús eligió darnos el asombroso regalo de su cuerpo y sangre en forma de pan y vino. Así como la comida nutre nuestro cuerpo, la Eucaristía nutre nuestra alma. En la misa, el sacerdote ofrece el pan y el vino que han sido hechos por manos humanas y se transforman a través del Espíritu Santo en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús. Durante casi 2000 años, la iglesia ha profesado creer en la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía. El próximo fin de semana tendremos más de 70 estudiantes recibiendo su Primera Comunión entre el sábado y el domingo.

¡Oremos para que todos nuestros primeros comulgantes reconozcan el maravilloso regalo que estarán recibiendo. Si tu eres uno de los que están haciendo su Primera Comunión, hagan una oración especial a Dios dándole las gracias por este precioso regalo de la Eucaristía!

Este fin de semana, nuestra colecta especial apoya el Llamado para las Misiones Católicas. Casi la mitad de nuestro país es considerado territorio misionero. Este llamado ayuda a nuestros hermanos/as aquí en Estados Unidos quienes no tienen acceso a servicios pastorales básicos como la Misa, los sacramentos y la educación religiosa. A través de su apoyo, el llamado para las Misiones Católicas ayuda a

Pregunta de Confirmación

¿Cómo sabemos que Jesús es real?

Desde una perspectiva histórica, ningún erudito serio duda de que Jesús existió. La teoría de que Jesús nunca existió aparece de vez en cuando en las noticias, pero esta gran mayoría ha sido rechazada y refutada por la gran mayoría de los eruditos e historiadores bíblicos. No hay duda de que un hombre de la ciudad de Nazaret, llamado Jesús, vivió hace unos 2000 años, fue bautizado por un hombre llamado Juan, reunió a un grupo de discípulos sobre sí mismo, tenía una reputación de gran maestro y hacedor de milagros, que finalmente fue crucificado por las autoridades romanas. Además, después de Su crucifixión, los seguidores de Jesús proclamaron que Dios resucitó a Jesús de entre los muertos y Jesús fue el mesías que fue prometido al pueblo judío. Esos son los hechos históricos. Entonces, en el sentido histórico, sabemos que Jesús era real, pero la pregunta más importante es ¿cómo sabemos que Jesús es realmente Dios? Esta no es una pregunta que un historiador pueda responder porque es una cuestión de fe. Hay buenos argumentos racionales para la divinidad de Jesús basados en lo que Jesús enseñó y hizo durante su vida, así como aún más de esa manera los apóstoles se transformaron después de la resurrección de un grupo encorvado de discípulos malintencionados a hombres que arriesgaron sus vidas para proclamar audazmente a Jesús de Nazaret al mundo. Pero lo mejor de saber que Jesús es real es la experiencia. Jesús nos ama más de lo que podemos entender. Si trabajamos en construir una relación con Él, nuestros esfuerzos serán bendecidos. Nuestro encuentro personal con el Señor será una evidencia más sólida que cualquier argumento racional que podamos encontrar. Esta no es una tarea fácil de emprender, pero con perseverancia y determinación podemos encontrar el amor de Dios de maneras inimaginables.

Consulte su YOUCat §86-107 para más detalles.

Esta es nuestra última "Pregunta de confirmación de la semana" del año. El próximo sábado nuestros estudiantes de confirmación serán confirmados en la iglesia St. María Goretti a las 7:30 PM.

Por favor, mantenga a nuestros estudiantes en oración mientras comienzan sus vidas como miembros completamente iniciados de la Iglesia Católica.

¡Muchas felicidades a todos ellos!
