Good Shepherd Parish Prayer
The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart. And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor
Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con todo su corazón.

Cycles of Faith - 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Tickets booked, packing list double-checked, itinerary set - how do you know you’re prepared for a trip? Being ready requires plenty of practical preparation. Do we give the same care to our spiritual preparedness? “Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom,” Jesus tells us. In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus reminds us to have the right attitude for the gifts and callings he wants to give us!

Clear out your clutter! “Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” Jesus reminds the disciples that earthly standards of security and success will wear out in time. If our lives are structured around values that don’t align with the kingdom of God, we’ll miss opportunities to receive God. If we’re so concerned with our child’s success in sports that we miss Sunday Mass for their tournaments, we’re missing out receiving the sacraments and building a consistent community of faith. If our quest for the promotion takes us away from family commitments, we won’t be able to fully receive the love intended in our closest relationships.

Set faith-based priorities. “Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.” Our conflicting commitments can cause any routine to slip from time to time. All the more reason to make sure faith is a priority. Pray as a family before meals. Bring your children regularly to the sacrament of confession. Make room in the schedule for faith enrichment activities offered by your parish. Volunteer once a month. “At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” When will the call come to care for an ailing parent? To take on a new leadership position? God speaks to us through the circumstances of our lives. He calls each of us to greater love, sometimes in very concrete ways. This week, take some time to consider: Will you be ready?

Hidden Treasures Sale
Your summer home/basement/garage cleaning or sale done? Think of Good Shepherd’s Hidden Treasures for all items except beds, couches, or clothes. Please leave your items at school (between doors in large tub) or at St. Joseph’s (inside right side hallway in large tub) or call Paul Scott for pick up 608-235-2116. We truly appreciate all of the generosity our community offers helping us create reuse and upcycling. We work at the school on Tuesdays and Wednesdays if you have time to help.

Everyday Stewardship

My father would always say to me when I was growing up, "Whatever is mine is yours." He was always very generous toward me and, if I am being truthful, probably spoiled me. We were not a rich family by any measure, but I never really wanted for anything. If I asked, I would receive.

In Luke 11, Jesus tells us our heavenly Father is similar to my father, but God is profoundly more generous. However, I am not sure many of us really believe that. When growing up we ask our earthly parents for all sorts of things, some requests being large but many being small. I know my own three children might ask me for anything at anytime. If God is more generous with me than I am with my own three children, how come I find myself mostly asking God for things when all my other options have run out or my back is against the wall? We make deals with God in our moment of despair or fear, but when things were great we asked for little or sometimes nothing at all.

We need God and his generosity 365 days a year. Better than that, God wants us to ask for things and learn to rely on him. There is no strength in walking in this world alone. God wants to be the source of all our strength. That is one reason why at every hour of the day, somewhere in the world, Mass is being celebrated and his children are receiving him in the holy Eucharist. If God can become man, die, and rise again, and then humble himself in the elements of bread and wine to be close to you, do you not think he will respond to your everyday simple requests? May God’s generosity flow to you in great abundance for his love knows no limits.

19º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
11 de Agosto del 2019, Año C

Hemos pasado ya gran parte del verano, las vacaciones van pasando, damos comienzo a la preparación del regreso a clases. Quizá en algunas escuelas y colegios ya están en clases. Siempre lo preparamos todo de antemano; la vida es una constante carrera, siempre de prisa atentos al reloj ajustando el tiempo. Estar ocupados es bueno. No se discute. Pero, la liturgia de este domingo continua con el Evangelio de Lucas, y te reta a detenerte en medio de la prisa para reflexionar si estás preparado y vigilante para recibir al Señor. Pero ¿quienes son los que tienen que vigilar? La respuesta de Jesús da luz a que no solo los obispos, sacerdotes, religiosos, religiosas y los grandes teólogos deben vigilar. Todos somos centinelas; todos estamos obligados a ello.

"Estén preparados, tengan puesta la ropa de trabajo y sus lámparas encendidas... Afortunado ese servidor si al llegar su Señor lo encuentra cumpliendo su deber." (Lucas 12:35 y 43). Jesús nos muestra tres parábolas este domingo; algo así como para escoger la que mejor nos acomode en el vivir de cada día: 1. Estar preparados y vigilantes, servidores fieles, donde el Señor prepara la mesa para ellos. 2. El ladrón que entra en la casa sin dar aviso y roba. El enfoque está aquí en lo inesperado del ladrón. 3. Administrador fiel y prudente, cuando le pidan cuentas estará preparado. ¿Cuál de las parábolas te prepara mejor para enfrentar los retos de la vida? Afortunados serán aquellos que viven una vida de justicia y paz. El Señor puede llamar en cualquier momento.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Planifica Sabiamente
¿Qué pasaría si te enteraras ahora mismo de que unos parientes tuyos van a venir a la ciudad el día de mañana y esperan quedarse contigo? Puedes decirles que no pueden quedarse contigo, o puedes comenzar de inmediato un proceso furioso de limpieza, arreglos y compra de comestibles en anticipación a la llegada de tus invitados. Si tu no tienes que hacer nada para preparar porque tu casa es perfecta, limpia y completamente equipada, tal vez no vivas en tu casa o seas un obsesivo compulsivo. ¡Sospecho que la mayoría de las personas que leen esto entrarían en un estado de pánico!

Pasamos mucho tiempo aplazando las cosas para después. Luego, cuando sucede algo inesperado, nos ponemos en acción para enfrentarlo o prepararnos para sus efectos. Habríamos actuado de manera diferente si supiéramos lo que se avecinaba en el camino.

¿Cómo luce tu estilo de vida de corresponsable? ¿Estás viviendo como si tuvieras para siempre, o estás viviendo como si Jesús pudiera regresar en cualquier momento y tu vida aquí en la tierra pudiera terminar mañana? El regalo del tiempo a menudo se subestima. Si vivimos más conscientes de este regalo, desperdiciamos menos de el y maximizamos los momentos en que nos encontramos. Nos entregamos a nosotros mismos de maneras más significativas y productivas. El regalo del mañana no se te esta prometido, pero el regalo de hoy ya se ha dado. Usa este día con sabiduría porque quién sabe lo que el mañana puede traer.
