25° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Good Shepherd Parish Prayer

The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart. And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor

Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con todo su corazón.

Cycles of Faith - 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I work for five hours, I expect to get paid for five hours. If I work for two, I expect to get paid for two. What if we worked for a company that paid everyone the same amount regardless of how long they worked? How would we feel going home with the same pay for working eight hours as my co-worker did for working only two hours? Secular wisdom would have a huge problem with this and a visit to the Labor Board would quickly pursue. But this is God's wisdom and God's ways.

We sometimes think that if we pray more, better, or more fervently and go over and above with the practice of our faith, God will somehow reward us and present us with some kind of merit badge. We are so wrong. Spiritual practices have only one true purpose: to deepen our love for God. In deepening our love for God, we also increase our ability to see God's presence around us, living life more purposefully and contemplatively. What if God chooses to treat someone who has come on the scene of faith later in life the same as someone who has devoted their whole lives to it? Does it really matter? If we have the merit badge notion of faith, we can find ourselves feeling a little arrogant and even jealous of folks who have not followed the same path that we have. We can even see ourselves as the privileged few who have a corner on the faith and fully possess it.

That thinking doesn't square with God. God is all about mercy in abundance and is ready to take anyone to himself regardless of when they come. He is only happy that they have come home and delights in their return. After all, if you really and truly love someone, does it matter what they will give you in return or what you receive as a benefit? If relationships were assessed based upon productivity, they would lack authentic love. We invest too much self interest in our prayer and neglect to see it as an opportunity to pursue our Lover and deepen the intimate bond we have with God. When we breathe our last, all that is of consequence is union with God. If my love for God is real, I am going to want to live the Gospel, abide by the commandments, practice my faith, forgive and love my neighbor, and care for the environment, regardless of how much time it takes or benefits me. We want God to think and behave as we do, and in doing so, we set ourselves up for disappointment. God has a totally different agenda and that's okay. ©LPi

Did you agree to be paid for the work you did? Then how do you feel? Did you get paid for the work you did? Or did you get paid for the work you did not do? And you are the one who is paid for the work you did not do? That is the way it is with the Lord. He will pay you for the work you did not do. That is the way it is with the Lord. He will pay you for the work you did not do.

Algunos de los que se fueron a trabajar en la viña, se fueron a las once de la mañana. Y cuando se fueron a trabajar, dijeron al amo: "Señor, no nos llames a trabajar porque ya se fue el día." El amo les respondió: "Sí, pero yo necesito a algunos más. ¿Por qué no van ustedes?"

Catholics invited back to weekly Sunday Mass; safety protocols remain in place

As has been circulated in recent days, the five Wisconsin bishops jointly decided to lift the suspension of the Sunday Mass obligation in their respective dioceses this month. For the Diocese of Madison, this suspension will be lifted beginning on Sunday, September 27th.

As Bishop Hying wrote to the priests of the diocese, "We have been living with the obligation suspended for almost six months and we rightly chose to be cautious, concerned for the safety and health of our people, especially at the beginning of the pandemic."

Since late May, diocesan guidelines, observing all state and local orders for safe reopening of our 134 churches have been in place throughout the 11-county Diocese of Madison. These measures have proven effective. Our churches were reopened for public worship with limited capacity, distancing, and great caution for the public health, without any known spread of COVID-19.

We now invite all Catholics back to Sunday Mass, who can safely and securely do so. The elderly, the immunodeficient, and those who are still at increased risk may refrain from Sunday Mass attendance, without committing sin, as allowed by the Church's canon law.

For Catholics, the celebration of Sunday Eucharist is the heart and center of who we are as children of God. It is the source and summit of the Christian life. Participating in the sacrifice of the Mass, we hear the Word and receive the Eucharist. We need the very real and sacred nourishment of the Mass, and as good and pious as watching Mass at home and making a spiritual communion has been for many these months of quarantine, this can never substitute for the efficacy of participating in even one celebration of the Eucharist.

Some Frequently asked questions:

What if I have been exposed to COVID-19?

In accordance with the principles of canon law and moral theology, those who are prevented from attending Mass for grave reasons such as illness (including COVID-19, Influenza, and other communicable disease) or the care of infants (CCC #2181) are consequently not bound by the obligation to attend Mass in the first place, and they may therefore miss Mass on a day of obligation without the fear that they are thereby sinning, displeasing the Lord, or failing in their obligations as a Catholic

If I do not attend because I am excused, what should I do on Sunday to keep it Holy?

Anyone who legitimately does not attend Mass on a given holy day, whether in virtue of this dispensation or for some reason that excuses the obligation by its very nature, is urged to sanctify the day through prayer and pious works such as reading Scripture, praying the rosary, praying the Liturgy of the Hours, or watching the Mass on television

Additional Adoration Times

Each Wednesday and Friday from 7:15-8:15am we will have Eucharistic Adoration at St. James Church concluding with Benediction. Eucharistic Adoration (also known as Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament), is a prayer opportunity where Jesus is taken out of the Tabernacle and placed on the Altar in an ornate display called a Monstrance. It is a time of silent Adoration of Jesus, truly present to us, who wishes to speak in the silence of our hearts. We hope this will prove a benefit for some of the students living in our neighborhood and for parents to spend a few moments with Our Lord when they drop their children off for school. May this opportunity help you find more peace in the midst of the troubles that surround us.

The Hidden Treasures Team is pleased to announce that July's book sale resulted in a profit of $3,274.50. This money has been donated to the Good Shepherd Capital Campaign in Msgr. Baxter's name. A big thanks to everyone who participated. Look for a similar sale next summer.

The Blessing of the Community

I have been blessed to be a member of my parish community for 28 years. For much of that time I was serving as a member of the parish staff, but it was still the community that I call home. I have been fortunate to be able to remain in that parish even as my life has encountered new chapters and callings. I am so grateful to God that I have been able to grow, be nourished, and find companionship in a parish for this long of a time.

It is a natural tendency for human beings to desire belonging to something bigger than themselves. Not everyone is fortunate enough to find the community, big or small, that fulfills that need. Unfortunately, that means that many communities suffer from not having the benefit of the gifts, skills, and talents that any member can offer. Communities are in many ways living organisms that move and breathe based upon the individuals who form that body. A community is truly the sum of its parts.

Your parish community reflects you and everyone else in that community. The more each member gives to the community, the stronger that community finds itself. If you hold back, your community suffers, and you gain little. I know firsthand what being a part of a community can mean to a person. I would be no one at all – and you would not be reading this – if it weren't for the life I have had in my parish community.

– Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi

Our maintenance man, Rick Hillebrand at St. Joseph Church will be retiring soon. Congratulations to Rick and thank you for your joyful service! We are in the process of looking for a replacement for him to train.

Job Opportunity

Custodial, Grounds, and Maintenance work at St. Joseph Church We are looking for someone who is responsible and flexible to do a weekly cleaning of the Church, offices, bathrooms, and meeting spaces at St. Joseph's as well as to mow the lawn and to do snow removal from the sidewalks. Someone with the capacity to do simple maintenance projects such as repairing leaky sinks, repairing/changing locks, etc.) would be a plus. Approximately 10-13 hours per week, with the cleaning ideally on Saturday or Thursday or Friday night. Please send a brief resume and contact information to Fr. Dave Carrano at david.carrano@ goodshepherdmadison.org to apply.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Is God calling you to receive Baptism in the Catholic Church? Or are you baptized but have not received the sacraments of confirmation or Eucharist? Or are you interested or know someone who is interested in knowing more about the Catholic Church? RCIA class will be starting in the Fall. If you would like more information please call the parish office at 268-9930.

Virtual Grief Support Groups

Agrace will offer three virtual grief support group series hosted by its grief support specialists in October. The groups will meet online, using Zoom, and are open to the public. There is no fee for people whose family member was in hospice care in the past 12 months; fees for others can be lowered or waived for others, if needed. Call (608) 327-7118 with questions or to register.

- Journey Through Grief is a six-week grief support group series for adults. It meets Wednesdays, September 30 to November 4, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Pre-registration required.
- Spouse/Partner Loss Support Group is a six-week series for adults who are grieving the death of a spouse or partner. It meets Mondays, October 12 to November 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Pre-registration is required.
- Young Adult Group is a four-week series for adults 18 to 30 years old who are grieving a death. It meets Wednesdays, October 7 to October 28, from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Pre-registration is required.

25° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

20 de Septiembre 2020, Año A

El marco de la perspectiva de Dios es siempre la salvación. La promesa de Dios se cumplirá siempre. Ya desde el Antiguo Testamento, el profeta Isaías lo proclama. "Pues sus proyectos no son los míos, y mis caminos no son los mismos de ustedes, dice Yahvé. Así como el cielo está muy alto por encima de la tierra, así también mis caminos se elevan por encima de sus caminos y mis proyectos son muy superiores a los de ustedes. (Isaías 55:8-9).

Por otro lado, el Evangelio muestra nuevamente la gran bondad de Dios con la parábola de los trabajadores de la viña. Una historia con un final sorprendente. El dueño de la viña paga el salario por igual al que entró temprano, al mediodía y al caer la tarde.

¡Gracias Dios! Por pagarnos a todos igual, al inmigrante, al extranjero, al que radica en su tierra. Gracias, porque para ti todos somos raza santa y herederos de tu Reino. Pues, a que patrón se le ocurre contratar personal a última hora y pagar igual como el que tiene señoría. ¡No se vale Señor! decimos los humanos, eso es injusto. Prestemos atención, al mensaje. ¿Cuál es el punto de Jesús? ¿Qué pretendía con sus oyentes? Pretendía que cambiaran de pensamiento, que no fueran indiferentes con los que sufren, con los menos favorecidos. Ahora, qué pretende Jesús para nosotros en esta Liturgia. No se puede salir de la Eucaristía igual que cuando llegamos a ella. ¿Cuál es el camino a seguir de ahora en adelante? No seamos sordos a su voz, pongamos atención para trabajar en su viña. ©LPi

ANUNCIO IMPORTANTE

A partir del 4 octubre, estamos agregando otra misa en español todos los domingos a la 1:30PM en la Iglesia de San José. Gracias a Padre Manuel y a todos los ministros que harán posible esta oportunidad. Espero que les servirá. También nos ayudará dar la bienvenida a todos que quieren venir a misa sin el miedo de llegar a la capacidad máxima que nos ponen los reglamentos en el tiempo de COVID-19. Dios sea alabado!

Lecturas de hoy

Primera lectura: Isaías 55, 6-9

"Busquen al Señor mientras lo pueden encontrar, invóquenlo mientras está cerca... Mis pensamientos no son los pensamientos de ustedes, sus caminos no son mis caminos, dice el Señor".

Salmo: Salmo 144, 2-3, 8-9. 17-18
Cerca está el Señor de los que lo invocan.

Segunda lectura: Filipenses 1, 20-24. 27
Dijo el apóstol: "para mi, la vida es Cristo, y la muerte, una ganancia. Pero si el continuar viviendo en este mundo me permite trabajar todavía con fruto, no sabría yo que elegir... lleven una vida digna del Evangelio de Cristo".

Evangelio Mateo 20, 1-6
Aunque muchos trabajaron más que otros, todos recibieron la misma paga. El dueño de la viña preguntó: "¿Qué no puedo hacer con lo mío lo que yo quiero?"

Hoy celebramos el Domingo Catequético "Una oración para los catequistas"

Amadísimo Señor, creador de todas las cosas, nos llamas a estar en relación contigo y, con los demás.

Te agradezco por tu llamado a ser un catequista, por la oportunidad de compartir con otros, lo que me has dado. Que todos aquellos con quienes comparto el don de la fe, descubran cómo estás presente en todas las cosas.

Que todos vengan a conocer, al único verdadero Dios y a Jesucristo, a quien tu enviaste.

Que la gracia del Santo Espíritu guíe mi corazón y labios, de manera que me mantenga constantemente en tu amor y alabándote.

Que sea testigo del Evangelio y, un ministro de tu verdad.

Que todas mis palabras y acciones, reflejen tu amor.

Amén.

Posición de trabajo de custodia, terrenos y mantenimiento en la iglesia San José

Buscamos a alguien que sea responsable y flexible para hacer la limpieza semanal de la iglesia, oficinas, baños y espacios de reunión en San José, así como para cortar el césped y quitar la nieve de las aceras.

Alguien con la capacidad de realizar proyectos de mantenimiento simples como reparar fregaderos con goteras, reparar / cambiar cerraduras, etc.) sería una ventaja.

Aproximadamente de 10 a 13 horas por semana, con la limpieza ideal los sábados o jueves o viernes por la noche.

Envíe un currículum e información de contacto al Padre Dave a: david.carrano@goodshepherdmadison.org para aplicar.

Despedida de Lisa Harrington

Con gran pesar les hago saber que renuncio a mi puesto como Gerente de Finanzas en la Parroquia del Buen Pastor. Mi último día de trabajo será el viernes 25 de septiembre. Ha sido un honor servirles durante los últimos dos años y medio. Mientras Dios me llama a un nuevo camino, les deseo a todos buena salud y alegría.
