Good Shepherd Parish Prayer

The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart. And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor

Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con todo su corazón.

Cycles of Faith - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us an invitation to have an abundant life. The banquet is ready, and the tables are set. Come! There is so much to attend to in the everydayness of our lives. We have plans, after all. There is never enough time and so much that needs to be done. There is work, children, and grandchildren, paying the bills, planning for retirement, figuring out the details of our next vacation, making sure we are on top of our game with work, planning social engagements, answering emails, texts, and getting our latest pictures on Facebook. There is always something. What is this about some banquet?

I need another party and commitment like a hole in the head. I can't manage what I already have, and someone is asking me to do more! Seriously? I saw the invitation; I think it came in the mail the other day. Did I leave it on the table? Oh wait, it may have gotten thrown away. I can't remember. In any case, I'm managing things pretty well on my own, I think. Thanks for thinking of me, but no thanks. My life is only as good as I make it and I have to be sure that all is in order! Oh, another invitation came today! This guy's being persistent. Now, I'm getting angry. I wish he would just leave me alone and stop with this invitation nonsense.

I woke up feeling a bit unsettled this morning. The kids have left the house, the grandchildren are busy with their lives, my retirement fund is losing ground, I'm worried about my health, folks have moved away, and I find myself alone. I am unhappy. I remember getting an invitation some time ago to a banquet promising new life and life in abundance. Did I miss something? I think I may have. I am finally discovering that life is not about me and my world. I think I've ignored the God who made me and the God who is the reason for my life, my hope, and my joy. It's always been about me. I have not really discovered Eternal Love.

Is the invitation still open? Can I come to the banquet? I think I'd like to come.

“The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests.” — Mt 22:8-10

“La boda está preparada; pero los que habían sido invitados no fueron dignos. Salgan, pues, a los cruces de los caminos y conviden al banquete de bodas a todos los que encuentren'. Los criados salieron a los caminos y reunieron a todos los que encontraron, malos y buenos, y la sala del banquete se llenó de convidados.”

— Mt 22: 8-10

Good Shepherd Fall Festival-2020

There will be a Good Shepherd Fall Festival this year. It just will be different. It will include an on-line Auction this year since we cannot have an in-person one.

The on-line Auction will start on Saturday, October 24th and will end at 9:00 pm on Sunday, November 8th. There is a good bit of work that we need to do, and we need your help.

We will use the same format online that was used for the Spring Auction for St James School. We will give you more information on how to access this Auction online and how to bid for items in the next few weeks.

But first, we are asking parishioners and school families to donate items that we can include in the auction.

This could be any of the following:

- nice items of value, new or antique,
- a service that you could perform, such as house cleaning, computer set-up, etc.
- baked or cooked items that are your specialty, such as 1 dozen cookies every other month for a year,
- gift certificates for places you like to go (this would be a help to your favorite businesses). If you would bid on such a gift certificate, someone else will, also.

We are hoping to have 40-50 items listed on our Online Auction for the Fall Festival. If you can help with our request, please contact Anne at the Rectory (608-268-9930) or Julie (608-268-9935) at the school by phone to describe your donations. Or you can send an email to Anne or Julie at the following emails.

Fall Festival Dinner - November 8th

We will be having a Take Out Dinner this year. More information to come! Watch the bulletin and website.

The Forester members of Good Shepherd Parish thank you for your recent donations to Alzheimers/Dementia Alliance of Wisconsin. We collected $355.00 that has been forwarded to the Alliance's main office. In addition, the home office of the National Catholic Society of Foresters will be sending matching check to the Alliance. Again thank you for your donations.

Cookie Making

Pfefferneusse cookies have been machine made NOT hand rolled this year, but the batter was from our same St. James historical recipe. The bags were weighed to all be the same and consistent with previous years. We were only able to make a limited number of bags this year so, please be kind and allow for everyone to get their bags. Also, social distance during the sale. Our sales will be after Mass, with each family able to purchase no more than a box (20 bags). Each bag will cost $5, we will take cash or checks only. The sale will be held October 17 & 18, 24 & 25.

Month of the Holy Rosary

In honor of the month of the Rosary, we will recite the rosary on October 18 and 25 at 8 am at our St. James Site. Please join us!

If God is good, why is there evil in the world?

Answer:

The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us! ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Respond with Love

Do you remember a time when you spent much time or money on a surprise or gift for someone else and they failed to appreciate it? We do open ourselves up to disappointment if our expectations do not match the response. Perhaps we reached down deep to share a part of ourselves only to encounter apathy and insensitivity. That can hurt even if the person ignoring our gesture meant no ill will toward us.

What must God feel like when we fail to respond to what He has done for us. We probably do not purposefully slight God, but perhaps we are so busy and mindless that it becomes impossible to be responsive and mindful. We can miss the gift of God which is right before our eyes.

It is very difficult to be a good steward if we do not intentionally choose to be mindful. We miss the important stuff in life, and we neglect those placed in our path as gifts to enrich our lives. If we are to live as Jesus asks, we must work on focusing our eyes of faith on the things that matter and the gifts we have been given. If we are made in the image of God, I suppose we can guess how God might feel when His gifts are not acknowledged, or His love not returned. If I reflect on the One who loves me more than anyone, how can I choose to not offer my love in return?

October 11—Mountain

The Old Testament reading this weekend is a vision from the book of the prophet Isaiah. The vision speaks of a great mountain on which the Lord will set a feast for God's people. Where there was death, there will be new life and every tear shall be wiped away. It is important to understand the context of this vision. The people Isaiah was prophesying to were in danger of losing their hope. Their kings had rebelled against God and had used their power to oppress the poor and their positions to increase their own riches instead of caring for God's people. Isaiah assures the people that corruption will not have the last word and that in the end God's justice will reign supreme. What evils do you see in the world? What do you think Isaiah would tell us?

Attention All Liturgical Ministers

We will soon be working on the liturgical schedule for December, 2020 through May, 2021. If you know of any dates you are not able to serve, please contact the rectory at 268-9930 or GoodShepherdMadison@straphael.org. Also, if you are no longer able to serve, just let us know and we will take you off the schedule. Please let us know your requests by November 7th.

We always need and welcome new ministers in all of the ministries. You can tell us which roles and Mass times work best for you. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact the rectory.

28° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

11 de Octubre, 2020, Año A

El domingo pasado se hablaba de la viña, y ahora en estas lecturas encontramos imágenes fundamentales del banquete, tanto en la primera lectura como en el Evangelio. Banquete, signo vivo de comunión, de diálogo y de intimidad de Dios con su pueblo. La cena de los justos, de los que practican la misericordia sin importar sus propios intereses. “Está preparado para todos los pueblos, en este cerro, una comida con jugosos asados y buenos vinos, un banquete de carne y vinos escogidos”. (Isaías 25:6). Isaías nos ayuda a comprender mejor lo que el Señor Jesús pronuncia en la parábola de la Liturgia de hoy.

El Evangelio nos habla de un rey que preparaba las bodas de su hijo. “He preparado un banquete, ya hice matar terneras y otros animales gordos y todo está a punto. Vengan, pues, a la fiesta de la boda”. Pero nos dice la narración que los invitados no hicieron caso a tan honrosa invitación. ¿De qué banquete habla la parábola? ¿De qué traje de fiesta habla el rey? Pues, no hay que pensarlo mucho. Para nosotros el banquete nuevo es la Eucaristía, el traje de fiesta es la gracia para poder participar de la fiesta. En cada Misa, el sacerdote nos presenta a Jesús Eucaristía. Recordemos lo difícil que fue para nosotros los meses pasados, cuando no podíamos ir a la iglesia a participar de la Eucaristía y comulgar. ¿Lo recuerdas? Teníamos que conformarnos con ver la Misa por los medios de comunicación y al final rezar la comunión espiritual. Ahora, esperamos esté todo claro y nos demos cuenta que todos somos invitados al banquete de bodas del Cordero.

Pasaporte de Misa

11 de octubre: Montaña

La lectura del Antiguo Testamento de este fin de semana es una visión del libro del profeta Isaías. La visión habla de una gran montaña en la que el Señor establecerá una fiesta para el pueblo de Dios. Donde hubo muerte, habrá nueva vida y toda lágrima será enjugada. Es importante comprender el contexto de esta visión. Las personas a las que Isaías estaba profetizando estaban en peligro de perder la esperanza. Sus reyes se habían rebelado contra Dios y habían usado su poder para oprimir a los pobres y sus posiciones para aumentar sus propias riquezas en lugar de preocuparse por el pueblo de Dios. Isaías asegura al pueblo que la corrupción no tendrá el último mundo y que al final, la justicia de Dios reinará suprema. ¿Qué males ves en el mundo? ¿Qué crees que nos diría Isaías?

VACUNAS CONTRA EL FLU

La parroquia El Buen Pastor en asociación con St. Mary's Hospital ofrecerá vacunas gratuitas contra la influenza en octubre. Las vacunas se administrarán el 11 de octubre de 9:30am a 10:30am en nuestro sitio San Santiago y de 5:30pm a 7:00 pm en nuestro sitio San José. También se administrarán el 18 de octubre de 12:00 pm a 1:30 pm en nuestro sitio San José.

Festival de otoño del Buen Pastor-2020

Este año habrá un Festival de Otoño del Buen Pastor. Aunque será diferente. Este año incluirá una subasta en línea ya que no podemos tener una en persona. La subasta en línea comenzará el sábado 24 de octubre y finalizará a las 9:00 pm el domingo 8 de noviembre. Hay mucho trabajo que debemos hacer y necesitamos su ayuda.

Usaremos el mismo formato en línea que se usó para la subasta de primavera de nuestra escuela St James. Les brindaremos más información sobre cómo acceder a esta subasta en línea y cómo ofertar por artículos en las próximas semanas.

Pero primero, estamos pidiendo a los feligreses y familias de la escuela que donen artículos que podamos incluir en la subasta. Puede ser cualquiera de los siguientes:

- Bonitos artículos de valor, nuevos o antiguos,
- Un servicio que podría realizar, como limpieza de casa, configuración de la computadora, etc.
- Alimentos hechos en casa que son su especialidad, como 1 docena de galletas cada otro mes durante un año, etc
- Certificados de regalo para los lugares a los que le gusta ir (esto sería una ayuda para los negocios).

Si puede ayudar comuníquese con Anne al(608-268-9930) o Julie (608-268-9935) o con Denice (en español) al 608-268-9932. Gracias por su consideración.
