Good Shepherd Parish Prayer

The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart.

And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor

Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con todo su corazón.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

Evangelization

How Should We Evangelize?

Be Holy, Part 3

Personal holiness is absolutely necessary in order to proclaim Christ effectively by the testimony of our lives. Our first priority, therefore, must be to commit ourselves in a serious way to strive for real holiness in our daily lives. But what does that look like? What is the third step to take on the path of holiness?

3. Pray Every Day

In addition to receiving the sacraments frequently and worthily, we should also commit to a daily routine of prayer, at least 15 minutes per day. Those who have already established the habit of 15 minutes of daily prayer should strive for 30 minutes or even an hour. Those who can should make a weekly holy hour in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Pope St. John Paul II was especially ardent in encouraging eucharistic adoration:

It is pleasant to spend time with him, to lie close to his breast like the beloved disciple (cf. John 13:25) and to feel the infinite love present in his heart. If in our time Christians must be distinguished above all by the “art of prayer,” how can we not feel a renewed need to spend time in spiritual converse, in silent adoration, in heartfelt love before Christ present in the Most Holy Sacrament? (St. John Paul II, Encyclical Letter Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Apr 17, 2003, 25)

Our daily routine of prayer should include vocal and mental prayer: “Through his Word, God speaks to man. By words, mental or vocal, our prayer takes flesh. Yet it is most important that the heart should be present to him to whom we are speaking in prayer.” (CCC 2700)

Mental prayer begins with meditation, which “engages thought, imagination, emotion, and desire.” (CCC 2708) Spiritual reading is especially helpful in order to sustain the attentiveness required for fruitful meditation: “We are usually helped by books, and Christians do not want for them: the Sacred Scriptures, particularly the Gospels, holy icons, liturgical texts of the day or season, writings of the spiritual fathers, works of spirituality,” etc. (CCC 2708)

The Church “forcefully and specially exhorts all the Christian faithful...to learn ‘the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ’ (Phil 3:8) by frequent reading of the divine Scriptures.... Let them remember, however, that ...

prayer should accompany the reading of Sacred Scripture, so that a dialogue takes place between God and man. For ‘we speak to him when we pray; we listen to him when we read the divine oracles.’” (CCC 2653)

Next week we will look at the fourth step to being holy.

Sharing Your Faith

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

Calling all UW-Madison instructors! This fall, St. Paul's University Student Center will be hosting a lunch on the first Tuesday of each month to build faith and fellowship among Catholic UW-Madison faculty and academic staff who teach on campus. Eucharistic Adoration:
Why is Adoration important?

It's not all about me

Like Mass, Adoration isn't necessarily about what we will get out of it. True, the graces dispensed by God help us grow in holiness, but the primary purpose of Adoration is right there in the name of the act: to adore the One present to us in the Eucharist, Jesus Christ, and His love for each one of us.

Just "be"

Remember that you don't actually have to do anything. The greatest gift God gives us is Himself in Jesus Christ. And Adoration is another way for us to recognize that gift outside of receiving the Eucharist at Mass. It's quite simple. Just receive the gift of spending time with Jesus in Adoration.

Hours of Adoration at Good Shepherd Parish:

- Tuesday: After 8:00 Mass at St. Joseph
- Wednesday: 7:15 a.m. at St. James (before the 8:30 Mass)
- Friday: 7:15 a.m. at St. James (before the 8:30 Mass)
- Thursday 7:00 p.m. Adoration in Spanish at St. Joseph

22° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

29 de Agosto, 2021, Año B

Estamos viviendo un contexto social muy difícil, muchas personas, a estas alturas del año, todavía no tienen trabajo y su salud es muy precaria. Las injusticias están a la orden del día. Gracias a la Palabra de Dios que nos guía, nuestro corazón se fortalece en la esperanza. Litúrgicamente, hoy regresamos al Evangelio de Marcos, ciclo B, después de haber escuchado el capítulo 6 de San Juan, donde se da el discurso del Pan de Vida. Iniciamos la lectura de Santiago, después de haber escuchado la de los Efesios. Hoy las lecturas apuntan a una misma dirección. ¡Hacia la coherencia en la propia vida! Hacer y vivir lo que decimos es una tarea de todos los días. Seguir los mandamientos con fidelidad es lo que pide el Señor. La enseñanza de Dios de vivir moralmente es el objetivo desde la creación del mundo.

“Y ahora, Israel, escucha las normas y los mandamientos que yo te enseño, para que los pongas en práctica” (Deuteronomio 4:1). La Carta de Santiago lo describe de la siguiente forma: “Hermanos muy queridos, no se equivoquen: son las cosas buenas y los dones perfectos lo que proceden de lo alto” (Santiago 1:16). Y en el Evangelio, Jesús lo pone más claro todavía explicando la manera de ser coherentes: “Ninguna cosa que de fuera entra en la persona puede hacerla impura; lo que hace impura a una persona es lo que sale de ella” (Marcos 7:15-16). Jesús habla un lenguaje desconocido para la gente de su tiempo, muchos de ellos eran muy apegados a la ley. Por lo tanto, no podían comprender lo que es la verdadera pureza. ¿Tú lo comprendes? ¡Vivir como Dios manda es lo ideal!

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Devuélvelo todo

La cultura pop nos ha dado una idea única del término justicia. La justicia, pensamos a menudo, se trata de tomar. Tomando lo que se debe. Tomando venganza. Tomando lo que nos merecemos. Esta visión del mundo tiende a hacer picadillo nuestras enseñanzas sociales católicas. Buscando el bien de los pobres, un llamado a la comunidad y la participación, la solidaridad, a primera vista, en una sociedad donde todo debe ganarse y se nos anima a acumular para nosotros cualquier éxito que podamos lograr, estos principios se parecen mucho a un asalto.

Pero cuando recuerdas la presencia de un Dios omnipotente, amoroso y misericordioso, pone de cabeza nuestro sentido pistolero de la justicia. Porque, ¿cómo habita la justicia en el mismo universo que un Dios que es tan rápido en dar y en perdonar?

Bueno, muy fácilmente, cuando recordamos Quién es exactamente la fuente de todas las cosas buenas y perfectas en este mundo. No hay ley que no se remonte a la Palabra. Y la Palabra salva nuestras almas.

¿Eso es justicia? No, eso es un regalo. Es el regalo indulgente e imprudente de un padre cuyo amor es mayor que su ira. ¿Qué es la justicia en el sentido bíblico?

La respuesta es simple. Mira tu vida. ¿Ves las horas de tu día? ¿Ves a tu cónyuge, a tus hijos, a tus nietos? ¿Ves la casa en la que viven, el dinero en tu billetera, la comida en tu refrigerador, el aliento en tus pulmones?

Lamarlo todo tuyo, negarte a compartir algo de eso, eso es robo. Devolvérselo todo a Aquel que te lo dio, eso es justicia.
