Good Shepherd Parish Prayer

The Lord says: I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you, not harm you, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will answer you. You will seek me with all your heart.

And you will find me.

Oración Parroquial El Buen Pastor

Pues así habla Yavé: Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y, cuando me supliquen, yo les escucharé. Y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, Pues me llamaron con

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE -

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It's all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation.©LPi

Jesus said to him in reply: "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him: "Master, I want to see." Jesus said to him: "Go your way, your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Evangelio para el tiempo ordinario - Año C - 2021 - 10/24/2021

El Señor dijo al hombre: "¿Qué quieres que yo haga por ti?" El hombre respondió: "Señor, quiero ver." Jesús dijo al hombre: "Ve, tu fe te ha salvado." Inmediatamente recibió la vista y lo siguió por el camino.

Evangelization

The Forms of Participation in the Life of the Church

The lay faithful together with the clergy and women and men religious, make up the one People of God and the Body of Christ. Being "members" of the Church takes nothing away from the fact that each Christian as an individual is "unique and irrepeatable". On the contrary, this belonging guarantees and fosters the profound sense of that uniqueness and irrepeatability, in so far as these very qualities are the source of variety and richness for the whole Church. Therefore, God calls the individual in Jesus Christ, each one personally by name. In this sense, the Lord's words "You go into my vineyard too", directed to the Church as a whole, come specially addressed to each member individually.

Because of each member's unique and irrepeatable character, that is, one's identity and actions as a person, each individual is placed at the service of the growth of the ecclesial community while, at the same time, singularly receiving and sharing in the common richness of all the Church. This is the "Communion of Saints" which we profess in the Creed. The good of all becomes the good of each one and the good of each one becomes the good of all. "In the Holy Church", writes Saint Gregory the Great, "all are nourished by each one and each one is nourished by all."

Individual Forms of Participation

Above all, each member of the lay faithful should always be fully aware of being a "member of the Church" yet entrusted with a unique task which cannot be done by another, and which is to be fulfilled for the good of all. From this perspective the Council's insistence on the absolute necessity of an apostolate exercised by the individual takes on its full meaning: "The apostolate exercised by the individual—which flows abundantly from a truly Christian life (cf. Jn 4: 11)—is the origin and condition of the whole lay apostolate, even in its organized expression, and admits no substitute. Regardless of circumstance, all lay persons (including those who have no opportunity or possibility for collaboration in associations) are called to this type of apostolate and obliged to engage in it. Such an apostolate is useful at all times and places, but in certain circumstances it is the only one available and feasible."

In the apostolate exercised by the individual, great riches are waiting to be discovered through an intensification of the missionary effort of each of the lay faithful. Such an individual form of apostolate can contribute greatly to a more extensive spreading of the Gospel, indeed it can reach as many places as there are daily lives of individual members of the lay faithful. Furthermore, the spread of the gospel will be continual since a person's life and faith will be one. Likewise, the spread of the gospel will be particularly incisive, because in sharing fully in the unique conditions of the life, work, difficulties and hopes of their sisters and brothers, the lay faithful will be able to reach the hearts of their neighbors, friends, and colleagues, opening them to a full sense of human existence, that is, to communion with God and with all people.

Pope John Paul II, Christifidelis Laici 28

You are a unique and irrepeatable person in the Body of Christ. You have been entrusted with a unique task of evangelization that no one else can fulfill. How does that make you feel?

All Madison-area college and university instructors (including teaching assistants) are invited to explore St. John Henry Newman's The Idea of a University with Mass and a talk by Bishop Hying on All Saints' Day, November 1st, at 6:30 p.m. at the Bishop O'Connor Catholic Pastoral Center (702 S. High Point Rd., Madison). This event is the first in a series for Catholic faculty that will focus on the contributions of saints who were also scholars. For questions, or to receive notice of future events, contact Cecelia Klingele at cklingele@wisc.edu.

Celebrating National Hispanic Heritage Month

Celebrating the diversity of Good Shepherd with over 350 Latino families involved in our Parish. We have 2 Latino Masses on Sunday; 1:30 (the most attended Mass of the week) and 7:00pm, with daily Mass on M-W-F, Prayer Group on Tuesday and Adoration on Thursday all at 7pm at our St. Joseph site. We take a moment to get to know Denise Jimenez, Director of Religious Education, Latino Pastoral Coordinator, and volunteer extraordinaire. Denise has worked in our Parish since 2008 and loves to work with families, welcoming, helping with all sacramental preparations, plans and organizes woman's retreats, seeks out volunteers to help with all the fun and fund raising opportunities, and is always a faith leader in all her encounters with others. She does all this with a smile and genuine care as she knows how important it is to have someone talk to you in your own language. Denise loves the outdoors including camping and kayaking, plays soccer, and her 3 girls attended St. James School. She loves the many people in our parish coming together to celebrate the same Catholic faith and share in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Gracias and Dios te bendiga Denise!!

About The Disciple Maker Index

The Disciple Maker Index was developed by Catholic Leadership Institute in 2013 with the guidance and input of our Bishops and Priests, and the expertise of professional survey teams to be an instrument that is statistically sound while at the same time focusing on important aspects of our Catholic Faith.

The Disciple Maker Index (DMI) is an anonymous survey of parishioners that provides insights into the level of missionary discipleship in the parish in addition to the effectiveness of the Mass experience, preaching and other aspects of the parish.

The data results are visualized for parish and diocesan views, and include benchmark information based on all parishes in the database. The benchmark of parishes of similar size or in similar environments provides a national perspective to local results. The survey and results were designed so that parishes can repeat the Disciple Maker Index every 2 to 3 years to see changes over time through longitudinal data comparison.

Data from the Disciple Maker Index is intended to be used as input to planning, to help parishes identify key strengths and areas of opportunity, which can be further refined into Priorities and Goals for the parish. CLI Leadership consultants guide parish leaders in the process of reviewing the data and identifying possible goals. Thank you for your participation.

Together Again Helping make this a successful festival

Festival Flyers - Please take some flyers from the foyer of the churches, next to the bulletins, and post them at your work, give them to friends, post in businesses you use.

Auction - The Fall Festival on-line auction will start next Saturday, October 30th at 8:00 am and will run for the 2 weeks until the day of the festival. We have many wonderful, interesting things to bid on, and items will be added almost daily. Please go to GSPSA2021.givesmart.com starting at 8:00 am on October 30th.

Volunteers - Since our festival will be in-person again this year, we will need many volunteers to make it happen successfully. The volunteer sign-up sheets WILL be in the back of each church for the next 2 weeks. If you forget to sign up, please say yes if you are called to do a shift.

Room set up on Nov 7th - We will be setting up the rooms for the Hidden Treasure and Book Sales in Sunday, November 7th after 8:30 mass. If we get lots of help, it should take about 2 hours. Please come to help.

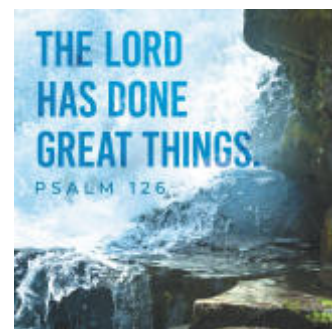

Cookie rolling - continues this week Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 2-5 pm.

Items will be needed - We will need lots of bakery and craft items for the Festival day. Please plan to make some of your favorite items and bring them Saturday November 13th to the school.

* We will follow all guidelines recommended by the Dane County Health Department that will be in effect on Nov. 14th.

Offertory Program

At all the Masses on the weekend of November 6/7 we plan to conduct our annual Offertory Pledge Campaign for Good Shepherd Parish. In the upcoming days you will receive a brochure in the mail explaining the finances of the parish over the past year and information regarding the pledge process. Please look over the brochure carefully and prayerfully prepare to make a pledge for the 2022 calendar year. Your participation in this pledge process is an integral part in our parish's planning for the near and long-term future. For anyone who is unable to attend Mass at this time, please use the pledge form included in the mailing and send it back to the rectory. Thank you for your continued support of God's work at our Parish.

30° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

24 de Octubre 2021, Año B

El mundo ha llorado mucho en estos dos años de pandemia. Después de tanto sufrimiento, Dios nos sigue invitando al cambio en nuestro corazón. La hemos pasado mal, muchas familias lloran aún a sus familiares que perdieron la batalla, otros miles siguen buscando trabajo. La lucha no termina y la esperanza en medio de todo es que volvamos a Dios, tal como el pueblo de Israel en la primera Lectura: "Partieron en medio de lágrimas, pero los hago regresar contentos" (Jeremías 31:9). Ya es tiempo de gozar del amor y la misericordia eterna de Dios. Fijémonos, en todo lo bueno y noble que hemos aprendido en este tiempo y trabajemos por una sociedad más justa.

El Evangelio también nos presenta el amor y la compasión de Dios por medio del ciego de Jericó que grita a la orilla del camino. "¡Hijo de David ten compasión de mí!" El ciego es símbolo de todas las personas que sufren en el mundo. Jesús, le pregunta: ¿Qué quieres que haga por ti? La respuesta del ciego: "Maestro, que pueda ver". Eso es lo que seguimos pidiendo: que podamos ver todas las injusticias de la sociedad, que podamos dialogar y buscar soluciones juntos, para poder vivir con paz y tranquilidad y así simbólicamente tirar el manto y escuchar su invitación: ánimo, ten fe, levántate. Jesús sigue llamando a cada uno, porque a todos nos toca ahora ver qué podemos hacer por los que nos rodean. El papa Francisco lo resume así: "Fijarnos en Bartimeo y su grito de búsqueda de Jesús. Hacerse prójimos en el camino de fe para acompañar. Testimoniar, fijándonos en los discípulos que le dirigen a Bartimeo solo tres palabras, ánimo, levántate, que te llama" (10/28/2018).

Programa de ofertorio

En todas las misas del fin de semana del 6 al 7 de noviembre, planeamos llevar a cabo nuestra Campaña anual de compromiso del ofertorio para la parroquia El Buen Pastor. En los próximos días recibirá un folleto por correo que explica las finanzas de la parroquia durante el año pasado e información sobre el proceso de compromiso. Por favor, lea el folleto y prepárese en oración para hacer una promesa para el año 2022. Su participación en este proceso de compromiso es una parte integral en la planificación de nuestra parroquia para el futuro a corto y largo plazo. Para cualquier persona que no pueda asistir a misa en este momento, utilice el formulario de compromiso incluido en el correo y envíelo a la rectoría. Gracias por su continuo apoyo al trabajo de Dios en nuestra parroquia.

San Judas Tadeo 10/24/2021
 El 28 de octubre es la fiesta de San Judas. San Judas fue uno de los 12 discípulos de Jesús y en la Biblia se le llama Judas (que no debe confundirse con el Judas Iscariote). La tradición dice que después de Pentecostés, Judas se asoció con Simón el Zelote (otro de los 12) y juntos difundieron el mensaje del Evangelio mesopotámico y finalmente fueron martirizados juntos en Siria. San Judas es el santo patrón de las causas perdidas, lo que significa que su intercesión se evoca en las circunstancias más extremas y difíciles. Se especula que obtuvo este deber único porque compartió su nombre con el traidor de Cristo y tendrías que estar extremadamente desesperado para pedir ayuda a un San Judas. ¿Cuáles son algunas de las cosas en el mundo por las que crees que deberíamos pedirle intersección a San Judas?

Celebrando el Mes de la Herencia Hispana

Celebrando la diversidad del Buen Pastor con más de 350 familias latinas involucradas en nuestra parroquia. Tenemos 2 misas latinas el domingo; 1:30 pm (la misa más concurrida de la semana) y 7:00 pm. Con misa Lunes, Miércoles y Viernes, Grupo de Oración los martes y Hora Santa los jueves, todo a las 7 pm en nuestro sitio San José. Nos tomamos un momento para conocer a Denise Jiménez, Directora de Educación Religiosa, Coordinadora Pastoral Latina y voluntaria extraordinaria. Denice ha trabajado en nuestra parroquia desde 2008 y le encanta trabajar con familias, dar la bienvenida, ayudar con todos los preparativos sacramentales, planificar y organizar retiros para mujeres, busca voluntarios para ayudar con todas las oportunidades de diversión y recaudación de fondos, y siempre es un líder de fe en todos sus encuentros con los demás. Ella hace todo esto con una sonrisa y un cuidado genuino, ya que sabe lo importante que es que alguien te hable en tu propio idioma. A Denice le encanta el aire libre, como acampar y andar en kayak y juega fútbol. Sus 2 hijas mayores asistieron a la escuela St. James (San Santiago) y la más pequeña es actualmente estudiante de nuestra escuela. Denice ama a las muchas personas de nuestra parroquia que se unen para celebrar la misma fe católica y compartir el don del Espíritu Santo. ¡¡Gracias y Dios bendiga a Denice!!
